MAYOR COMMENTS ON DURANT, INCORPORATED, VOTE BY ZONING BOARD.

Mayor Nichols commented on October 14 on the vote of the Board of Zoning Adjustment in not confirming the action of the Board of Appeal in the matter of granting a permit to Durant, Incorporated, to construct its two million dollar civic center.

It is unfortunate that by vote of the Board of Zoning Adjustment the erection of a two million dollar civic center for women is blocked.

The nontaxability of the enterprise ought not to have worked against it. If 10,000 good women can be encouraged to unite in so important an undertaking as this, they ought not to be taxed.

What the energy of 10,000 women in a civic center could accomplish for this city can hardly be over estimated. Two million dollars worth of building construction thrown away when Boston is crying for more building construction, and on the mistaken contention advanced by bitter and determined opposition that the height of the building is raised by 55 per cent, when the fact is the additional elevation is but 33 per cent on a small portion of the building. With $2,000,000 to be spent and work provided at a time of unemployment, a skilled casuist argues successfully that the power of exemption from zoning regulations was not intended by the Legislature to be used, no matter how meritorious the case.

A majority of the Board of Zoning Adjustment are in favor of granting the petition of Durant, Incorporated, to erect its home for working women. A two-thirds majority is required by law to grant the building height required. It is to be hoped that the petitioners will not be discouraged in an effort to convince the minority of the justice of their case. In my opinion they should again petition the Board.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

BOSTON FAR AHEAD OF OTHER CITIES IN MOST MUNICIPAL SERVICES—MAYOR NICHOLS ANSWERS MAYOR THOMPSON OF CHICAGO.

Mayor Nichols made the following comment on Mayor Thompson's reply to the question recently asked: "What would the boosting spirit of Chicago do if applied to Boston?"

I agree with Mayor Thompson in what Chicago plans for Chicago and he never boosted Chicago any harder than the Mayor of Boston boosts his own city, both at home and abroad.

But the City of Boston is so far ahead of any other American city in most of the municipal services that contribute to the sum total of civic happiness and prosperity that most of us think that our superiority must be a fact self-evident to the whole world. And it is no such thing.

We have so much to be thankful for that criticism takes the place of boosting. There is a lot of lavish talk elsewhere that takes the place occupied here by solid accomplishment and rash people are consequently prone to view Bostonians as too cautious.

The City of Boston has many things to teach her municipal sisters and this statement will find general recognition among people who know. But not so many people really do know.

The Mayor of this city always takes a deeper pride in its high standards of excellence when he sees by personal contact what other cities have to offer. It is nevertheless his wish and he deems it his duty to study their success and draw therefrom such suggestions as may be applied to the advantage of his own city.

The Mayor of this city believes that Boston should cultivate the consciousness of a metropolis of nearly two millions. Size is important in the estimate of values. But size is nowhere near the importance of having every resident of the metropolitan city talk great things for the city, instead of small things.

There is a great deal of wild boosting among American cities and some in Boston. There is considerable organized propaganda everywhere for unwise spending. But money expended for things of permanent value is money well invested and the debt represented by such expenditure is debt well incurred.

It seems to me beneficial to spend money to bring people to this city and wise to spend it in letting people know widely what our advantages are. We built the first subway in the world in the face of determined and bitter opposition and yet it has been a contributory factor of immense value in the growth of the entire metropolitan city.

Not many people know it but recent measures insure for metropolitan Boston the finest water supply for decades to come and provide for a population greatly in excess of five millions. It is not known as generally as it should be that our health administration and our hospitals and health units are a model for the entire country, that our street maintenance is excellent compared with that of any American city. In building regulations, in fire and police service, in public institutions Boston yields to none, and all of our activities are expanding to meet new conditions. We have parks and playgrounds, gymnasias, public baths, municipal observances comparable to the best and withal we have in the Finance Commission a system of organized fault finding that is a cause for amazement to every visitor.

Boston wants a greater Boston, but has no desire to submerge her neighbors by annexation. She wants their moral support to a greater measure than ever before.

We want to be known for what we are—a well governed city.

The needs of the city for machinery, equipment, street surfacing, new thoroughfares, more rapid transit, are being met often in the face of bitter opposition. Yet we shall have them because we must. We need a modern auditorium to accommodate gatherings of many thousands who would gladly come here and we shall have that.

Boston needs more help from the Legislature. Business requires less restriction and a friendlier reception. If people show a desire to spend their money here they deserve to be welcomed. Co-operation, good judgment, and judicious advertising can be blended into the one word "go" and Boston will go as never before.

MAYOR THOMPSON DISCUSSES BOSTON.

Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago recently was asked "What would the boosting spirit of Chicago do if applied to Boston", and made the following answer:

CHICAGO, ILL., October 12.

What would the boosting spirit of Chicago do if applied to Boston?

To answer that question specifically one must be familiar with some of the ills with which Boston might be suffering. I am not seeking the job of civic doctor for Boston just for the privilege of prescribing panaceas for its municipal troubles, for an outsider to volunteer for that job might be offensive to a delicate and just pride of the Boston citizenry in its city. But the question has been put to me and I will give an answer.

We Chicagoans think we have the greatest city in the world. Many things have contributed to its greatness but back of all is the "I Will" spirit of our city, a determination to do big things, and the constant energy of a people who know there is a deep meaning to the trite expression "Throw away your hammer and get a horn."

Boston is a great American city. It can make itself greater by taking an inventory of its faults as well as its advantages and opportunities, by adopting a slogan like ours—"Make Chicago Hum," and by boosting all the time for the things it realizes must be done to make it greater.

Above all it should pay no heed to the calamity howls of a moss-backed, moth-eaten, blue-nosed minority of knockers with which civilization unfortunately is afflicted. Let them stew in their own poison while the boosters go to work. The people as a whole will respond to the boosting spirit.

A few high lights from my personal experience and observations as a public official may serve to illustrate what the boosting spirit has done for Chicago. May I be pardoned for referring to myself but one learns best from experience.

I have been called many things during my career in public life but if my name is written into the history of Chicago with the identification my friends have placed upon it—Big Bill The Builder—I could ask for little more in the realm of memory.

If I won and deserve that title it is because I always boosted for our city, always strived to make it greater by bringing business and prosperity here, by developing its natural resources as a summer resort, by pushing public improvements, by building and boosting to make it a greater city.

Years ago when I began public life as an alderman I boosted and fought for public playgrounds for the children of Chicago. I was criticized and ridiculed but boosting won against criticism. Today our city is dotted with playgrounds.

For many years the advantages of being located on Lake Michigan were unappreciated by many Chicagoans. The lake was blamed for our storms and winds and our lake front was an eyesore. We began boosting for lake front development. Everyone who has visited Chicago knows our wonderful lake front today with its marvelous skyline and with property values multiplied to a point undreamed of less than a generation back.

When I was mayor before I brought down the wrath of the knockers on my head because I was determined to and did push through great public improvement programs. Today the knockers are boosting for more improvements like them. Skyscrapers line the thoroughfares where there were antiquated buildings and vacant lots before.

During the depression that followed the World War, thousands, yes millions, of men were idle in America, many factory wheels were idle and the hum of industry was throttled down. Instead of starting "soup houses" for the hungry, as many suggested, we boosters in Chicago arranged and held a great Pageant of Progress on the Municipal Pier. That pageant stimulated trade, created a demand for manufactured products and so many orders for goods were received by Chicago firms that working men in Chicago had jobs while their brothers in other cities fed at the soup lines.

We brought the Tunney-Dempsey fight to Chicago last month. Aside from the satisfaction it gave the public it brought millions of dollars worth of business to Chicago during the week of the fight.

As chairman of the Illinois Waterway Commission I was instrumental in bringing about passage of federal legislation for a deep waterway from Chicago to the Gulf of Mexico. It will give Chicago direct contact with the seaboard markets of the world, give cheaper transportation to the farmer and marts of commerce, double our domestic and foreign trade, open more factories in Chicago and create more jobs here.

We have demonstrated in Chicago that improvements pay.

WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor of Chicago.

MAYOR THANKED BY JAPAN SOCIETY OF BOSTON FOR NIPPON SQUADRON RECEPTION.

Mayor Nichols announced the receipt on October 19 of a letter from Secretary George W. Tupper of the Japan Society of Boston, extending the thanks of the society for the reception given by the city to the Japanese Naval Squadron on its recent visit.

Boston, October 17, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. NICHOLS,—The Japanese Society of Boston wishes me to express its gratitude to you for your generous reception of the Japanese Training Squadron. From many sources we have heard that the entertainment of the squadron in Boston will long remain in the memory of men, midshipmen, officers and rear admiral, as an outstanding expression of the good will of the City of Boston toward Japan. Such hospitality strengthens the ties of permanent and universal peace between the United States and the Empire of Japan, and between their peoples.

Our society appreciates the efficient co-operation of Mr. George H. Johnson, with all the agencies involved, in expressing their good will toward these influential visitors from the Far East. As we remind ourselves that the 182 visiting midshipmen will become officers in the Imperial Japanese Navy in the near future, and that some of them will direct the naval policy of the Japanese Empire, we realize that Mr. Johnson's program will have very far-reaching effects.

Very sincerely yours,
GEORGE W. TUPPER,
Secretary.

CITY REPRESENTED AT SHIPPING BOARD HEARING ON PORT DIFFERENTIALS.

Mayor Nichols has instructed Assistant Corporation Counsel Samuel Silverman to represent the City of Boston at the hearing which was held on Wednesday, October 19, before the United States Shipping Board in Washington for the purpose of presenting his position in support of the petition of ocean differentials. His letter of instruction read as follows:

BOSTON, October 18, 1927.

SAMUEL SILVERMAN, Esq., Assistant Corporation Counsel, Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Will you please represent the City of Boston on Wednesday, October 19, when the United States Shipping Board at Washington, D. C., will hear the petition of the Maritime Association of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, which petition seeks to secure a differential on ocean on United States lines to make up for higher railroad rates in commodities shipped to European ports through the Port of Boston.

Up to the present time the Interstate Commerce Commission has refused to and the Port of Boston in its attempt to eliminate the freight differential on exports, which now results in a preference in favor of Baltimore and Philadelphia over Boston and which has resulted in large measure in drying up the Port of Boston.

The last resort for relief is now the United States Shipping Board, who are asked to eliminate this injustice by a recognition of the fact that Boston is nearer to European ports than Baltimore and Philadelphia and should be given consideration in fixing ocean rates by the imposition of a differential on water which will equal the differential on rails now enjoyed by Baltimore and Philadelphia. This will result in giving Boston the same through rate to European ports which Philadelphia and Baltimore now enjoy and will bring about that equality of rates which existed prior to the war.

Please emphasize the importance of building up the export trade of the Port of Boston. Say to the United States Shipping Board that the facilities of this port are at the present time unsurpassed by any port on the Atlantic seaport and have the capacity for a much larger amount of exporting tonnage than is now coming through this port. The facilities are such that the Port of Boston can easily compete with the other Atlantic seaports in speed and satisfactory handling of cargoes.

Boston is seventy-two hours nearer European ports than Baltimore and Philadelphia, and over a day nearer than the port of New York. The case of our Board thus presents one undoubtedly entitled to a lower rate, because of the shorter distance. A very strong reason for a lower rate lies in the policy of the United States to encourage the flood of export trade through all Atlantic seaport ports. Recently this has been shown by the allocation of the South American Republic Line Ships here, a matter in which the City of Boston successfully showed its great necessity, which the Shipping Board so properly recognized.

The factor of economy of operation is one upon which we should direct our argument. It is undoubtedly a fact that the adjusted rate which we desire would not only benefit the Port of Boston, but would accomplish great savings to the Shipping Board in obviating the necessity of sending partially loaded vessels from Boston to southern ports, where cargoes are to be completed.

From various conferences which I had while in the Middle West with business men interested in the Atlantic seaboard shipping, I found a strong desire to ship through the Port of Boston, and the wish universally expressed that the splendid equipment of the port should be given proper encouragement by the Shipping Board. My belief is that the West wants to do business through the Port of Boston, because of a crowded condition of the other ports, and because of the shorter distance and splendid treatment which they have always received here.

Shippers need every possible outlet for export trade and are practically barred from the Port of Boston by the unfavorable rail differential, which would be adjusted if the Port of Boston were given an ocean differential to equalize the through rail and ocean rates from the Middle West to the European ports.

Boston desires no favors, but equality. Please express to the members of the Shipping Board my personal appreciation for their many courtesies, particularly the last act of courtesy in giving recognition to the Charlestown Navy Yard in awarding a contract for the reconditioning of the Shipping Board, S. S. "Triumph" which brings $1,300,000 worth of construction work to our Navy Yard at a most opportune moment.

Say to them that I regret very deeply not being able to attend personally this hearing, but that if other hearings are to be held, or if they wish for a personal conference with me, I will gladly go before the Board at their request.

Sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

FORMER GOVERNOR FOSS THANKS MAYOR FOR RETURN OF CHECK.

Mayor Nichols on October 19 received a letter of thanks from former Governor Eugene N. Foss, for returning the check which the Governor had sent the Mayor for clothes from a man who had written to the Mayor asking him to speak to the former Governor on his behalf.

The letter reads as follows:

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I have your letter returning my check and am doubly thankful as I not only retain my old campaign coat but also the money is saved from being spent by an imposter.

The return of my check speaks volumes for your administration, for I cannot recall an instance of a good check ever having been returned from the Mayor's office. This fact would, I am sure, reassure your re-election providing the law would permit it.

The cleverness of this piece of detective work by Judge Riley, in ferreting out this clothing imposter was never surpassed even by the mythical Sherlock Holmes. The judge is certainly a great boy and deserving of credit.

My campaigning with the judge in the past was a source of keen enjoyment as he impressed me as being the uncrowned king of "kidders."

I am taking care of Judge Riley's "claim."

Yours very truly,

EUGENE N. FOSS.

FIRE PREVENTION BUREAU.

great fire loss one fact at least is evident, that is, the Boston Fire Department during the ten years referred to has not had an effective fire prevention division administered by an official qualified by experience, training and education.

It is true there has been a section of the Fire Department of Boston functioning under the name of the Fire Prevention Division for the past few years, but it has been such in name only. The principal operation of this division has been confined to the duties of a license bureau, and the important duty of real fire prevention work has been overlooked or carried on in a poorly organized manner.

To bring this division of the department into shape requires the service of a man particularly trained for the work as well as one who is a recognized executive. Last October it was possible for the Fire Commissioner to arrange for the temporary recall to duty of Ex-Chief of Department, Peter E. Walsh. He was selected for the work because of his recognized ability as a fire fighter backed by over thirty years of experience, a lawyer of recognized standing and particularly because he had been a student of fire prevention practically from the time he entered the department.

As an example of his interest in fire prevention work, I might mention the problem of garage fires which gave the fire departments of the country great concern up to 1912. There was no real garage regulations in existence and there were no standards for fire chiefs to follow when called upon to pass an application for garage licenses. The fire commissioner in 1912 appointed a board of three chiefs to pass on these licenses in Boston, and later the Board was abolished and the work given to Chief Walsh. It was his duty to use his judgment and specify under what conditions a garage could be erected in the city. Chief Walsh adopted a standard, which later became the basis of the garage regulations of today.

The Boston Fire Department today is confronted with the serious problem of reducing the fire loss of this city or allowing it to remain in that classification. The conditions in Boston can be corrected only by properly developing the fire prevention work which has been started. In order that this may be accomplished, Chief Walsh, or a man of his ability, knowledge and experience, should be at the head of the Fire Prevention Division to direct and extend its service. By that I mean we must have a man who is capable of discerning ways and means to reduce our fire loss in ways other than the mere enforcement of present regulations and the issuing of licenses and permits.

It is necessary to have a man whose experience has taught him to recognize easily potential fire hazards either singly or in groups and devise means and methods to protect the city from them. The causes of fires must be studied from the viewpoint of one who is thoroughly familiar with how fires start in order that measures may be adopted to eliminate carelessness and neglect.

The study of fires conducted by the present commissioner warrants the opinion that the crime of arson is too frequently committed in our city, and the stifling of this felony has been unsuccessful because of lack of proper investigation of the causes of fires. This is a most important duty for a proper fire prevention division and must be conducted by an expert.

These are some of the problems that confront the head of a properly organized fire prevention division. There are many competent officers in the Boston Fire Department, able fire-fighting officials, but they have not qualified themselves for the position of administrative head of this division. Chief Walsh did not prepare for this work in a week, or a month or a year. His training represents the study and effort of many years, including the study of law and successful passing of the Massachusetts Bar examinations.

Undoubtedly a knowledge of law is one of the important qualifications for the position. I am well aware that he cannot carry the work on forever, no man can do that. But, I do believe that he is the man best qualified to create and guide this work for the next two or three years, and that he is the type of man who can train others to carry on the work where he leaves off. I firmly believe that if Chief Walsh is allowed to carry on in his present position for two or three years his personal contact with the superior officers of the department will enthuse them with a deep interest in the work, and by establishing certain standards and methods with which these officers will have opportunity to familiarize themselves, at the end of that time there will be several men qualified to take a competitive examination for the position of Superintendent of Fire Prevention.

In closing I would say that it is my belief that the real benefits of civil service in promotions in the Boston Fire Department are now being felt. The system was inaugurated in 1911, and now in 1927, sixteen years later, we are getting young officers in the higher grades, who got the start when they realized that their opportunity for promotion rested solely on their ability in open competition. Today the promotion lists of civil service are headed by young men who have obtained their positions because they have devoted themselves to their duty and have studied to fit themselves for advancement.

If these same young men know that in two or three years they will all have an equal opportunity to take an examination for a vacancy in the position of Superintendent of Fire Prevention Division, it is impossible to estimate the tremendous improvement it will make in the morale of the Fire Department. The method now being pursued will stimulate all the officers of the department to interest themselves in the work. Fire prevention will receive a decided impetus and this community will be the beneficiary, alertness in the service will be encouraged, and effort will be rewarded to the end that losses will be reduced and Boston will take its place as a leader in reducing the great fire waste in American cities.

MAYOR PLEASSED WITH FIRE PREVENTION WEEK RESULTS.

Mayor Nichols stated on October 15 that he was exceedingly gratified with the results to date of Fire Prevention Week which commenced last Sunday.

Records of the Fire Department show that for the previous week from Sunday to Friday night the total number of alarms were seventy-eight.

This included forty-three bell and thirty-five still alarms. There were two three-alarm fires during this period.

The number of alarms in Fire Prevention Week from last Sunday until midnight last night was nine less than the previous week and there were no two or three alarm fires. This week there have been thirty-three bell alarms and thirty-six still alarms.

For a period of twenty-four hours there were no fires in the City of Boston, a record which the oldest employee of the Fire Department cannot recall.

During this twenty-four hour period there was a false alarm which was pulled from Box 2466 in Roxbury.

Mayor Nichols has commended Fire Commissioner Hultman and Fire Prevention Chief Walsh for their splendid co-operation.

The Mayor also called to the attention of the Committee to Study Fire Insurance Rates, which he recently appointed, the reduction in the number of alarms during the past week and the decrease in losses.

FIREMEN'S FUND OPPOSED.

Mayor Nichols learned on October 15 of efforts being made to create a fund for the purpose of securing increases for the members of the Fire Department and issued the following statement thereon:

Information has come to me that a fund is being collected from members of the Fire Department for the purpose of securing salary increases and that a large amount of money is expected.

I can understand the wish of the firemen to receive more pay but I can imagine no method more unfortunate. Collections of this nature not only tend to disorganize a department but they lead to unwholesome and intolerable standards of conduct throughout the whole public service. Salary increases are justifiable only upon recognizable merit which requires no support in the nature of collections.

I advise the prompt abandonment of this ill-directed effort and an immediate return of the money collected.

Cantwell has been allowed to amend the contract for the cooking room, etc., of the Old Gibson School, Dorchester district, by striking out the word and figures, "August 27, 1927," on page 2, and substituting therefor the word and figures, "October 8, 1927," so that the said paragraph on page 2 shall read: "The work is to be completed on or before October 8, 1927."

MAYOR TO AID BOSTON AIRPORT.

Mayor Nichols appeared before the Special State Commission on Aviation in executive session at the State House on October 14.

In calling together this conference the Mayor stated to the commissioner he wanted to learn how much support the business interests of the city would give him. If he was assured of their cooperation he would take steps to obtain the gradual expenditure of necessary funds.

He promised that the city would make an appropriation this coming year and each year to a reasonable degree.

The Mayor asked for legislation which would enable the city to spend this money and also asked that the commission recommend to the incoming Legislature the enactment of a law permitting cities and towns to lease or purchase lands for airports and to spend money on their maintenance. NAVY DAY PROCLAMATION.

TO THE CITIZENS OF BOSTON.

The national observance of Navy Day will be celebrated by appropriate ceremonies throughout the United States on Thursday, October 27.

I heartily commend to the citizens of Boston a suitable recognition of this national event in honor of the United States Navy, representing as it does the finest traditions in the history of our country.

It is highly appropriate that these ceremonies should be observed upon this day, which is the birthday of the late President Theodore Roosevelt, one of the strongest advocates of a policy of upbuilding our navy as a bulwark of our national defence.

In my judgment the upbuilding and maintenance of the United States Navy is, in reality, the true instrument of this country's foreign relations, and it is manifestly the duty of every patriotic citizen to honor, by an unreserved support, the ceremonies in honor of the day.

The history of Massachusetts in its splendid patriotism has always been closely related to all that is best in the development of the American Navy and the record of the United States steamship "Constitution" upon the seas of the world marks one of the most cherished eras in the history of our country.

It was a Massachusetts Secretary of the Navy, George Bancroft, who founded the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, in old Fort Severn, in 1845, providing a course of one year of naval study, three years at sea, and supplemented by a fifth year at the academy.

The welfare of the United States, today, affecting communities in the interior of the country, as well as upon our coastlines, is largely dependent upon the beneficial influence of the sea power and commerce of the nation.

The prosperity of the nation depends to a very large extent upon an American owned and controlled Merchant Marine, and we must provide the facilities for the building of American ships and their subsequent maintenance.

An American Merchant Marine upon the seas of the civilized world for the development, upbuilding, and protection of an American commerce and industry is rapidly becoming as important an adjunct to our country as the maintenance of police and fire departments in well regulated American cities and towns.

Navy Day in Boston will be appropriately observed at the Parkman Memorial Bandstand on Boston Common, and at the Boston Navy Yard in Charlestown, where our citizens, and especially the school children, will be cordially received, with all ships open to the public and with competent and trustworthy guides to explain methods of naval administration.

I sincerely trust that patriotic ceremonies, especially in our public schools, may feature the observance of Navy Day, as a national event of the greatest patriotic significance.

I earnestly request that the national emblem may float upon Navy Day from both public and private buildings in the City of Boston in honor of the glorious heroes of the American Navy, led by John Paul Jones and Commodore John Barry, whose memory will be immortalized by the patriots of this nation until the end of time.

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.*General Order No. 61.I. ANNUAL DRILL.

The annual drill of the department for 1927 will commence on Monday, October 17, 1927, at the drill yard, Bristol street, under the direction of Capt. Daniel W. Baker, drill master.

The new plan of drill adopted last year will be followed out again this year, and every officer below the grade of district chief and every member of the department must attend six sessions.

There will be two sessions held daily, except Sundays and holidays, one at 9 a. m. and the other at 2 p. m.

Deputy chiefs will arrange to detail members to attend the Drill as below:

A. M. Session.—Division 1, seven; Division 2, five; Division 3, six.

P. M. Session.—Division 1, seven; Division 2, five; Division 3, six.

(Officers will be included in above quotas and deputy chiefs will distribute them as evenly as possible over a period of thirty-eight weeks.)

So that members may attend the drill while on duty, officers and members detailed to commence on Monday, October 17, will be selected from those returning from a day off, to be known as Squad 1. Then another group of men will be detailed on Thursday, also returning from a day off, to be known as Squad 2, so that the schedule will work out as follows:

First Week.—Squad 1, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday; Squad 2, Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

Second Week.—Squad 1, Monday, Tuesday, Saturday; Squad 2, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday.

Commencing the third week another group of men will be selected and divided into squads as above, and so on until the drill is completed. It should be understood that members attend only one session daily, one group of men in the morning and another in the afternoon, so that in reality, two groups of men comprise each squad. Deputy chiefs will forward a list of those who are to attend the first two weeks so as to reach department headquarters not later than Saturday, October 15, and thereafter they will forward lists a few days prior to the date a new group of men are to attend the drill.

By order of Fire Commissioner E. C. Hultman.

DANIEL F. SENNOTT,
Chief of Department.

MAYOR WINS FOR CHARLESTOWN.

Mayor Nichols received the following telegram from T. V. O'Connor, chairman of the United States Shipping Board:

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

It gives me pleasure to advise you that the Shipping Board today approved awarding steamer "Triumph" to Boston Navy Yard to be reconditioned and Diselized.

T. V. O'CONNOR.

This telegram is the culmination of weeks of untiring effort of Mayor Nichols to obtain a contract from the United States Shipping Board for the Charlestown Navy Yard. The Mayor received word of the Navy Yard's success in receiving the award of contract for $1,249,000 after weeks of anxiety. He is now assured of continued labor for weeks to come for the men employed in the Navy Yard. The work will take from nine to twelve months.

MAYOR ORDERS IMPROVEMENTS AT L STREET BATHS.

Mayor Nichols has always had a keen interest in the L Street Bath House and on October 19 instructed Park Commissioner Long to make several improvements at these public baths in South Boston. He desires to have a large hot-water tank and boiler installed, thus making it possible for the public to enjoy bathing during the winter months and have hot water showers.

The Mayor also instructed the Park Department to build a glass house replacing the present one installing an up-to-date violet ray glass effect where individuals can sun themselves during the winter months and be protected from the cold. He wants this sunning room made large enough to accommodate at least 250 people.

With these improvements the facilities of the L Street Bath House will be placed at the disposal of the public for the entire twelve months of the year and the Mayor felt that many people would take advantage of these changes and improvements which will fill a long desired need.

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION APPROVING APPOINTMENT OF ADVISERS OF GIRLS.

Mr. Sullivan moved reconsideration of the action of the Board of the previous meeting approving the appointment of eight advisers of girls, in view of the fact that he was unavoidably absent from that meeting, and in connection with his motion made the following statement:

It was and still is my firm conviction that the appointment of so-called advisers of girls constitutes a dangerous precedent and has no place in our school system. The counselling and advising of the youth in the personal and intimate life aspects is primarily a parental prerogative and must depend upon the influence of the church and home.

Although these particular appointments may prove worth while in some aspects, they constitute a transgression in principle and in theory of the parental function. It is true that we are striving for a closer unity of school and home, and for a livelier co-operation between parent and teacher. However, in our pursuit of the ideal relationship between school and home we must ever be alert to hold inviolate the lines of demarcation and the respective jurisdictions of each. The home must respect the function of the school and the school must respect the function of the home. The teacher must respect the function of the parent and the parent must respect the teacher's function. It is just as regrettable and unpardonable for a teacher or so-called adviser to attempt to usurp the parental sphere, as it is for a parent to attempt to usurp the teacher's place in the classroom. Moreover, if the appointment of advisers is predicated on the assumption that parents in instances neglect their obligations to properly counsel and advise their children and that consequently there is an abuse of this parental prerogative, the relief does not lie with the educational authorities. The parent cannot delegate this authority and this duty to the school officials. Nor does any abuse thereof on the part of the parents constitute a delegation of such authority to the School Committee.

These so-called advisers are regarded quite naturally as interlopers and as trespassers upon the domain of the home. Some good may flow from the appointment of so-called advisers, but their presence in our school system is so fraught with peril as to render them undesirable and unwelcome.

The home, fortified in its inspiring influence by the example of devoted teachers, will continue to fulfill its sacred obligations of counsel to the youth.

Mr. Gray: I second Mr. Sullivan's motion, and in that connection I merely wish to say that I opposed the appointment of the eight advisers at the last meeting, at which time I gave my reasons, and having done so, I do not think it is necessary to give them again. I second Mr. Sullivan's motion.

Question came on the passage of the motion for reconsideration.

The motion was lost

Mr. Sullivan asked for a roll call on his motion for reconsideration of the action of the Board of the previous meeting approving the appointment of eight advisers of girls.

A roll call was ordered and in connection therewith, the following statements were made:

Mr. O'Hare: This seems to be the time and place to take a definite stand on the question of Advisers of Girls in our high schools in Boston.

For years the aim-all and end-all of education in public schools of this country and other countries was merely to teach the child facts for the brain to absorb, catalogue, and use later in life, if called upon to the limit of the individual child's ability. In other words, public school education had for its objective merely the dealing with the intellectual or mind side of children's growth.

Later on in Boston there came into being physical education, looking after the child's development physically to parallel his intellectual growth. In this field of endeavor calisthenics in the schoolroom, organized and free play in the schoolyards at recess time, the great work of the playgrounds under trained teachers, the supervised work of the boy, both in the upper grades of the elementary school and the high schools into teams, and still later the work for team play among the girls in the higher grades of the elementary school and in the high school came into being. Then followed the period where the school doctor and the school nurse added their knowledge to safeguarding the growing child—better physical being—a great work with never ending possibilities,—still growing and going ahead.

A few years since, under the leadership of our Superintendent and with the assistance of the Board of Superintendents, head masters, masters, and teachers, we brought into being in the Boston Public Schools a course in citizenship and character training. The aim here has been and is to inculcate into the child's heart and mind not only the ability to differentiate between right and wrong standards but to aid the child in ever standing up for the right.

And so today Boston is endeavoring as best it can to fit the individual child by education for his highest opportunities mentally, to build his body to as high a degree of perfection as may be, and to co-operate with every home in Boston and every religious belief in Boston in turning out into manhood and womanhood well-trained citizenry.

A few years back we placed in our Teachers College in Boston a teacher well-trained and of long experience to act as an Adviser of the student body in that institution. Two weeks ago tonight we went a step ahead in that same direction and appointed in our all-girls high schools and in some of our mixed high schools eight women Advisers—teachers of long and excellent experience in our own high schools here, to act as Advisers of the girls' student body in these schools.

This is not a new idea—every college of young women students and every college on a co-educational basis has its deans looking after the interests of the student bodies of these various colleges. In the high schools of our country these Advisers are striving most earnestly to help the student bodies help themselves—New York City, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, San Francisco, Cincinnati, Denver, Omaha, Portland, Oregon, Newark, N. J., San Jose, Cal., Indianapolis, Rochester, New York and our own city of colleges, Cambridge, Massachusetts—all have Advisers whether they be called Advisers or Deans—looking after their girl student body in high schools.

There is no attempt to replace Motherhood by these experienced teachers acting in advisory capacity. There is no indictment of the Motherhood of Boston. There is no intimation that the mothers of Boston do not know how best to advise their own daughters. The public schools through these wonderfully trained, capable and conscientious women are merely trying to carry out the true function of the schools as we interpret it. The teacher stands in loco parentis—in the place of the parent, according to State law, during the school day. This means that the public school during the time that the child is present is merely trying to co-operate with every home for the best interests of the individual child as far as may be.

One may query "What do these Advisers plan to do in their work?" In the first place, the Advisers will act as co-ordinators, in other words, they will try to see to it that the girl gets a proper balance of school work as related to outside-of-school-activities—the so-called extra curricula activities. In this connection the girl will be advised as to the relative importance of school work as compared with the extra curricula work. In the second place these Advisers will act as co-operators.

In this function they will have charge of school discipline, co-operating between the girl and the room teacher, between the girl and the head master, to the end that the girl may always have a friend to rely upon and one to whom she can tell her school troubles. It often happens in a large school with large classes, that an individual child is apt to be mal-adjusted. Through this co-operative side of the Advisers' work it is hoped that these mal-adjusted cases will be reduced to a minimum and eventually entirely eradicated. In the third place, the Adviser acts as a counsellor. If and when a girl has matters on which she wishes to consult, here is a woman prepared to meet her half way, whole-heartedly and with the girl's best interest at heart, to talk over her problems with her. If the girl feels that her home tasks are too difficult, if the girl feels she should change from one course offered in her school to another, if the girl feels that everything is going wrong with her in school, here is someone with whom she can talk the matter over to a successful conclusion.

Incidentally, the Adviser will talk on subjects to the entire girls' student body on personal deportment, proper dress at school and other matters upon which the entire girls' student body can be advised.

In conclusion, may I state that I am absolutely opposed to Federal control of education because I believe it to be a State and local right, and I have no sympathy with prying into the homes of our great city. Yet every time that I feel that the public schools can aid the development of children I will vote for measures which I believe are helpful. To my mind, the Homes of the Nation, the Churches of the Nation and the Schools of the Nation are the three greatest agencies working co-operatively to turn our boys and girls out into manhood and womanhood best prepared for the battle of life. I feel that the Mothers and Fathers of Boston are being aided greatly by this step forward, and I do hope my own little girl will have the benefits which I believe will accrue from these Advisers when she enters the high school period of her own education.

Some teachers, when I attended school, made a definite imprint on me and some did not. But these advisers are merely trying to aid the child in carrying out what the parent wants, the best that can be accomplished for the individual child. I do hope we will get to the point where we will realize this fact—the aim is solely to help the child help itself. I hope the members of the press will get this story into the papers in the proper manner.

There is one other thought. Mr. Gray voted to ask for reconsideration and seconded Mr. Sullivan's motion. As I understood it at the time of the last meeting, Mr. Gray's objection was not to the appointment of advisers, but to the appointment of such a large number.

Mr. Gray: The reasons are on record.

Mr. Sullivan: Mr. O'Hare has stated that there is a Dean in every college in the various cities. The dean in such colleges functions exclusively or almost exclusively in the matter of discipline. Again, he speaks of the teacher taking the place of the parents and uses the term "in loco parentis." I agree with Mr. O'Hare,—it is the teacher and not the adviser who should stand in place of the parent, and the teacher should teach in loco parentis, not the adviser. Now Mr. O'Hare, from a heart thrilling with convictions, wants the public to know that in his presentation he lays particular stress on the point that the appointment of these advisers does not constitute in any way an attempt on the part of this School Committee to tell the youth of this city just what they shall do and what they shall not do. The fact is, as I see it, that these advisers will act in the capacity of advisers and that is their sole and exclusive function, and that they are bound to transgress the sphere of the home and the prerogative of the parent.

Mr. O'Hare: This is not just a question of feeling. Mr. Sullivan says that these folks are "advisers" and not teachers. I say these eight women have all been teaching for years in Boston public school service,—they are our own experienced teachers. Secondly, each and every one of them is to confer with Miss Mary C. Mellyn, Assistant Superintendent, one of the greatest women I know, who is most devotedly interested in the well-being of the girlhood of our schools. I know that Miss Mellyn, a Boston-born girl, who has come up to her present position through her own capabilities, will see to it that no child is exploited in any way to the contradiction of home training. She is not that type,—she is a fine, excellent type of womanhood, who knows the rights and privileges of the home. Again, why should any parent vote for something that would work to the detriment of any child? Every person on this Board is a parent and we are all blessed with one or more children.

Mr. Sullivan: I think that if this experiment could prove its efficiency and efficacy anywhere, it might well do it here in Boston under the support and guidance of Mr. Burke, Miss Mellyn and others. I say it is wrong in principle and theory. Simply because we happen to be possessed here of high-minded officials, it does not give sanction to its principle and application.

Mrs. Barron: I just want to say a word against Mr. Sullivan's motion for reconsideration for the reasons stated at the previous meeting. I want to speak now, not only as a member of the Boston School Committee but as a parent, as a mother of two daughters. When we place our children in school, we do not simply place them to acquire the rudiments of education. I think it is a foregone conclusion that we place them in school to learn the rudiments, health habits, to be instructed in character training, a splendid course in which is being conducted in our schools, and to be instructed in the codes of morals and ethics. We do not attempt in any way to substitute the school for the home, but to supplement the school to the home.

I think that I have a special prerogative as the only mother on the Board, to say that every mother will look forward, with keen anticipation to the time when her child will be guided in these splendid ways which Dr. Burke so ably put forth at the last meeting. It is needless for me to add anything further. I think Mr. O'Hare has very well put in his splendid analysis the reasons why we need these advisers. I vote against the motion for reconsideration of the action of this Committee approving the appointment of eight advisers of girls with firmest convictions, feeling that it is not an experiment simply because we have not been blessed with advisers up to now, inasmuch as other large cities in the United States have employed them to advantage. It is not an experiment and I think they will prove a tremendous advantage to the Boston schools.

Mr. Sullivan's motion for reconsideration of the action of the Board of the previous meeting approving the appointment of eight advisers of girls, was lost by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Gray and Sullivan—2.

NAYS—Mrs. Barron, Messrs. Bogan and O'Hare—3.

NAMING OF HENRY ABRAHAMS SCHOOL.

Mr. Gray made the following statement:

With regard to naming the new school after Henry Abrahams, I want to say that the School Committee agreed to the name of Henry Abrahams for this school last spring, but owing to the fact that the work on the school was delayed, it was thought best to put over the naming until this time. I think it is also proper to refer to the request of the City Council that we name a school in honor of the late John J. Heffernan. I want to report that his family would much prefer to have a school, which is in Brighton, named after him and I am informed that in the not far distant future, an opportunity to name a school in that section after Mr. Heffernan will arise.

Mr. Gray, for the Committee on Naming of School Buildings, offered the following:

ORDERED, That the new five room building on Mahler Road, Roslindale, in the Francis Parkman District, is hereby named the Henry Abrahams School, in memory of Henry Abrahams. Mr. Abrahams was born in Buffalo, New York, September 23, 1855, and died in Boston January 15, 1923. Practically his entire life was spent in this city where he was known and esteemed as a high-minded citizen, earnest, sincere, and ever-ready to lend a hand for his fellow being. He was always interested in the working man and woman and the problems which confront them, and was closely associated with various community activities and organizations for the betterment of mankind. But his activities and his interests were not confined to welfare work. Any movement which promised civic betterment or educational advancement found in Mr. Abrahams a warm supporter.

He was a member of the Boston City Planning Board, 1914 to 1923; of the Commission on the High Cost of Living, 1910; of the Boston School Committee, 1917-1919. He was President of the Boston Central Labor Union, 1922-1923; and Secretary of the Cigar Makers' Union 1893 to 1923. He was also, at different periods, a member or officer of various welfare organizations. He was a devoted friend of organized labor and a champion of every good and worthy cause.

In connection with the foregoing order, the following statements were made:

Mrs. Barron: I wish to say that I am very happy to vote in favor of this order. In 1926 I recommended to the School Committee in conference, and to Mr. Gray in particular as the Committee on Naming of School Buildings, that a school building be named in memory of Henry Abrahams. I knew Mr. Abrahams personally. He was a citizen of the highest type. He was not only an ideal citizen but a constructive public servant as well.

Dr. Bogan: As the only member of the Committee who had the pleasure of serving with Mr. Abrahams, I want to say that to my mind Mr. Abrahams was a high type citizen, honest, upright and fair-minded, always seeking to give a square deal.

Mr. O'Hare: To my mind a great tribute was paid to the memory of Mr. Abrahams when the Committee waited upon the School Committee last year to ask that a school be named in memory of Mr. Abrahams, for the committee was composed mainly, if not entirely, of people not of his own faith.

On motion, the rules were suspended and the order introduced by Mr. Gray, was passed by a unanimous vote.

The Board adjourned.

Attest:

ELLEN M. CRONIN,
Secretary.

OFFERS TO CONTRIBUTE TOWARD PAYMENT FOR MAYOR'S AUDITORIUM STUDY TRIP.

Mayor Nichols on October 25 received a communication from the West End Business Men's Association. It states that at the last meeting held by that organization a volunteer contribution of $500 was made to help defray the expenses incurred by the Mayor and his party on his recent Western trip, when he made a study of auditoriums in various large municipalities, provided that the Boston City Council refuses to O. K. his expense account. At the same meeting there was a further pledge for the balance necessary to cover the entire amount of the expenses as well.

The letter commends the Mayor for the hard work he has been doing for the welfare of the city and reads as follows:

MAYOR MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Boston, Mass.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—It was voted to indorse your efforts in behalf of the city in bringing new enterprises in the way of an auditorium and civic center. Mr. Frank Deland, Corporation Counsel, gave us a brief résumé of your trip, and it was of such interest that there was a volunteer contribution of $500 at the meeting and with a further pledge of the balance should the Boston City Council refuse to O. K. your expenses.

Instead of criticising you at this time, they should indorse every action, as I am sure that you are working hard for the welfare of the whole community.

It was further voted that we have a special committee to wait on you to offer you plans and specifications for the location of the new auditorium in the heart of the city, on the Broadway of Boston, namely, Cambridge street, which you already know is an avenue of egress and ingress to the great Northern and Southern Arteries of the City of Boston.

With kind personal regards, and assuring you of our support,

Sincerely yours,

WEST END BUSINESS MEN'S ASS'N,
by NICHOLAS DUVALLY, President.

ORDERS OF ADDITIONS.

The Mayor has approved the following:

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $13,053, to the contract of Thomas O'Connor Company for the erection and completion of the Roxbury High School for Boys.

This amount is required to cover the cost of substituting "Duriron" acid-proof drain pipe, fittings, etc., for the troughs, demonstration sinks, hoods, sinks, etc., in the chemical laboratories and work-rooms, in place of cast-iron pipe as specified; also for substituting galvanized wrought-iron pipes and fittings for the fire line piping in place of black iron pipe.

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $7,422.99, to the contract of Joseph Rugo for erection and completion of the Continuation School, Boys' Unit.

This amount is required to cover the cost of installing one No. 327 Heggie-Simplex boiler for heating the future unit, and two No. 140 Buckeye thermovent blowers for each side of the stage, with a galvanized-iron fresh air intake.

The reason for installing these at the present time is that by doing this work now the city will save a considerable sum of money, as the building is now open. If they are not installed now, it will be necessary to tear down walls to put them in, which will cause greater expense and also inconvenience to the school.

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $2,200, to the contract of P. F. Russo & Co. for the installation of new sanitation at the Franklin School, Waltham street, Boston.

This amount is required to cover the cost of removing brick yard wall and substituting therefor concrete curb, with chain link fence erected thereon, which is necessary because of the fact that when the sanitariums located in the school-yard were removed, the brick wall, 12 feet in height, was so weakened as to be in a dangerous condition. The weakened condition of this wall could not have been foreseen prior to the demolition of the sanitary building.

SUPPORT MAYOR IN MOVE FOR AUDITORIUM.

Mayor Nichols on October 26 received a communication from the Eastern Soda Water Bottlers' Association which stated that for the past nine years they have held a million dollar exhibition in conjunction with their annual convention, but that they have refrained from asking the convention to come to Boston due to the fact that there is no suitable exhibition hall here.

The Mayor also received a set of resolutions, which were passed at their last meeting, indorsing the request and position of the Mayor in the erection of a suitable auditorium. The resolutions read as follows:

Resolved, That the Eastern Soda Water Bottlers' Association indorse the request and position of the Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols for the erection in Boston of a suitable auditorium or convention hall; and be it further

Resolved, That on the strength of the above our association work to bring our million dollar annual exhibit to Boston in 1930, in conjunction with the annual convention of the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages; and be it further

Resolved, That the legislative committee of the Eastern Soda Water Bottlers' Association be requested to appear before the Legislature on behalf of the proposed bill.

EASTERN SODA WATER BOTTLERS' ASSOCIATION,
HUGH J. McMACKIN, Secretary.

THE UNITED BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL SUPPORTS MAYOR IN DURANT, INCORPORATED, CASE.

Mayor Nichols received on October 25 a letter from the United Building Trades Council supporting the Mayor in the position he has taken relative to the proposed height of the building which the Durant Club, Incorporated, desire to build on Huntington avenue. The Mayor is willing to grant them permission to erect a building to a height of 155 feet, while the Board of Zoning Adjustment has refused to grant an excess over the 100 feet which is required by law. The letter is as follows:

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—The United Building Trades Council of Boston are interested in the efforts of the Durant Club, Incorporated, to erect a building to a height of 155 feet on Huntington avenue, and are in sympathy with the Durant Club, Incorporated, and are in agreement with your Honor's efforts to have the Board of Appeal and the Zoning Board of Adjustment recognize the argument that by granting the petition of the Durant Club, Incorporated, to allow them to erect a building to a height of 155 feet will not impose a hardship on abutters nor seriously affect zoning restrictions and the intent of the zoning law if the petition of the Durant Club, Incorporated, is allowed.

We have appointed a committee to work with your Honor in this matter, and we desire it to be known that we indorse your stand.

Yours very truly,

E. A. JOHNSON,
Secretary Treasurer.

MEDWAY AND DEDHAM BUS LINES — VETO.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, October 11, 1927.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my approval, the petition of the Medway and Dedham Bus Lines, Inc., to operate buses from the Dedham-Boston line to Park square.

The streets in this line of route are already badly congested, and it seems to me for this reason, bad policy to grant the franchise sought.

Respectfully yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Placed on file.

BOSTON MOTOR TOURS, INC.—VETO.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, October 11, 1927.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my approval, the petition of the Boston Motor Tours, Inc., for a license to operate buses from Fall River to Forest Hills Elevated Station. Under date of December 8, 1926, April 13 and August 10, 1927, I vetoed similar petitions, and it does not seem to me that there has been sufficient change in the situation to sustain a different course of action.

Respectfully yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Placed on file.

ROUTING OF CEMETERY EMPLOYEES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, October 4, 1927.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Park Department in reply to your order of September 26, relative to whether or not on August 25 employees of the Cemetery Division of the Park Department not attending the outing of the department at Castle Island, were docked a day's pay as distinguished from men who attended the outing or bought tickets to the outing and did not attend, but were given the day off.

Respectfully yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,

Park Department, October 3, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Replying to the following order passed by the City Council on September 26, 1927,
"That the Park Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, advise the City Council forthwith whether on August 25, employees of the Cemetery Division of the Park Department not attending the outing of the department at Castle Island, were docked a day's pay as distinguished from men who attended the outing or bought tickets to the outing
and did not attend but were given the day off"—

I beg to state that in accordance with a custom that has been in existence over twenty-five years the Board of Park Commissioners on July 28, 1927, voted:

"That all employees of the Park Department whose services can be spared may attend the annual picnic of the Park employees held on August 25, 1927, and he allowed the day off with pay. This applies only to those employees who attend the picnic and whose services may be dispensed with."

Instructions were given to all foremen in charge to notify the men to this effect and to allow on their time sheets a day's time for the men who went to the picnic and had the time off.

Fourteen employees of the Cemetery Division took the day off and did not attend the picnic after they were told by the Superintendent of Cemeteries that permission was granted only to those who intended to go to the picnic.

It would be an act of injustice to the men who did not go to the picnic and who worked their full day to pay men who took the time off in defiance of orders and did not go to the picnic.

Very respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

Placed on file.

Later in the session Coun. WILSON said:

Mr. President, with reference to the Park Commissioner's reply to the order of September 26, 1927, there are a few pertinent inquiries I would like to make. Accordingly, I request that we ask
Mr. Long to be our guest at the executive meeting.

Chairman DOWLING—The Chair will note the request and invite Mr. Long to the meeting of the Executive Committee.

ingly recommend the passage of the accompanying order.

Yours respectfully,

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is authorized in the name and behalf of the dred forty-four and 76-100 (144.76) feet; and southeasterly by land supposed to belong to W. F. Schrafft & Sons Corporation, one hundred forty-four and 76-100 (144.76) feet; containing 2,367 square feet of land, more or less.

City of Boston,

Park Department, August 23, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—At a meeting of the Board of Park Commissioners held on Thursday, August 18, 1927, it was:

Voted, That a wedge-shaped piece of land, part of the Charlestown Playground, Charlestown, which contains 2,367 square feet, adjoining the property of the W. F. Schrafft & Sons Corporation, is no longer needed for public purposes, and recommends that same be sold.

It is more definitely described as *meas ring 148.39 feet on the playground side; 144.76 feet on the Schrafft land side; and 32.71 feet on Main street, as indicated on the plans submitted herewith by shaded lines.

APPROPRIATION FOR MOVING PRINTING PLANT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 17, 1927.

Gentlemen,—The owners of the property at 270 Congress street, in which the Printing Plant of the city is located, are at the present time making extensive alterations and improvements in this building. When this work has been completed it will be possible for the Printing Department to be located on one floor, whereas at the present time the offices are located on one floor and the press rooms on another. To accomplish this result certain expenses must be incurred for the moving of presses, installation of partitions, rearrangement of electrical facilities, etc. It is impossible at this time to specifically allocate the exact amount of expense under each item, hence I am submitting an order providing for the appropriation of $10,000 from the income of the Printing Department to cover all of the expense which may arise in connection with the moving and rearrangement of the department quarters. I respectfully recommend adoption of the accompanying order by your honorable body.

Respectfully,

Coun. WILSON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Transit Commission and the Public Works Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be and they hereby are respectfully requested properly to repair and resurface forthwith each section of any Dorchester street excavated incident to the construction of the new Dorchester Tunnel, and particularly Park street.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, just a word in reference to that order. It has naturally been necessary in connection with the Dorchester Tunnel work to dig up certain streets in that section. The work has long since been completed on Park street, Melville avenue, and other streets in that district, but Park street particularly has been left in an unsafe condition. It is high time that that through route to Fields Corner was repaired and resurfaced.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK ON EVANS STREET.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Evans street, from Nos. 36 to 60, inclusive, Ward 17, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ASSEMBLY ROOM IN BOSTON SANATORIUM.

Coun. KEENE offered the following:
Ordered, That the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide an assembly room in the Boston Sanatorium and make such arrangements as may be necessary to meet the expense by a budget item or otherwise.

Coun. KEENE—Mr. President, I was prompted to introduce that order through a talk with Mr. English, the reporter on the Boston American. He has been around with some other employees of the various papers who show moving pictures in various institutions throughout the city, and there has been more or less adverse comment because of the fact that the only place where they can show such pictures in the Boston Sanatorium is in the dining room. Of course, that sort of thing upsets the arrangement there and does not leave the inmates of the institution in the mental condition which is desirable for such patients. It is very important that such sufferers should enjoy as bright surroundings and atmosphere as possible. There should be some such place installed in that institution; consequently, I have introduced the order.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I simply want to say in connection with the order that I happened to be talking with the chaplain of the hospital there, and he told me of the very great necessity for something of the sort. Therefore I simply wish to add my word in support of the order, in addition to what has been said by the very able councilor from West Roxbury.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK ON BELLEVUE STREET.

Coun. McMAHON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Bellevue street, east side, between Cornell and Quincy streets, Ward 15, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK ON SYDNEY STREET.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Sydney street, Nos. 163-167 and 171-173, edgestone only, Ward 13, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of gravel, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the special acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK ON BROOKLINE AVENUE.

Coun. PARKMAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Brookline avenue, at No. 61, Ward 21; Brookline avenue, from Newbury street about 150 feet northerly, Ward 5, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK ON PARK STREET.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Park street, Nos. 331-339 inclusive, Ward 17, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ADDITIONAL PAY FOR ELECTION OFFICERS.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Election Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to pay the election officers at the municipal election on November 8, 1927, as follows: Wardens, $17; inspectors and clerks, $15.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, the regular amount paid to the wardens and other precinct officers and clerks on election day, I understand, was originally made on the basis of their working from six o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon, and I understand that the clerks and inspectors get $11 a day and the wardens $13. Because of our vote in the Council at the last meeting, carrying a wider spread of hours between the opening and closing of the polls, under which the polls will be kept open until eight o'clock at night, of necessity the precinct officers and those attached to the polling booths will be compelled to work at least four hours longer than they would otherwise have had to work. That, coupled with the additional vote that will come out between the hours of four and eight p. m. which might not come out if the polls were closed at four p. m., will of necessity compel the men and women working in those booths to also work an hour to an hour and a half on top of that. I believe that giving the officers an additional $4, above the amount established by the Election Commissioners, will probably represent a fair adjustment, and I ask for a suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, I would like to inquire through you of the previous speaker whether or not he has made an inquiry of the Election Commissioners which satisfies him that they can find the money somewhere to pay all these extra dollars that his order provides for. At the hearing before the Budget Committee last spring it appeared to me that the Election Department had pared down just about to the bone all of the expenditures it contemplated making, and I have serious doubt whether the money is there to pay the extra $4 per person that the order provides for. I had in mind two weeks ago, when the Council voted to extend the hours during which the polls would be open, that those officers would be compelled to work the extra four hours during which the polls were open, and probably extra time beyond which they usually have to work after the closing of the polls, on top of that. It was for that reason, as well as the reason that I felt that the Election Department had no money with which to pay these extra amounts, that I voted against the extra hours at that time.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, in answer to the councilor from Ward 19 I would say that surely there must be some way that the Election Commissioners and the Budget Commissioner can find of paying this money, especially in view of the fact that the chairman of the Election Commissioners informed us at the executive session of our last meeting that there would not be any extras put on, such as were put on either a year or two ago, and therefore there would seem to be no doubt that money can be found somewhere to pay the officers for the extra work and the extra time they must put in after the closing of the polls, until the count is made. Surely, if they could find extra money at that time that I refer to for extra expenditure, there must be some way in which the Election Department, with the Budget Commissioner, can find money to pay the men the $4 extra for the extra hours they will have to work under this new arrangement.

Coun. GUILD—Of course, Mr. President, the short answer to that is that the amount paid at that time was based on the budget of two years ago. This year, under this year's budget, the money is not there.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman if he thinks that because of the increased pay proposed the men and women will feel more inclined to stand for the sweat shop hours than they would if they didn't have the extra money?

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I will say in answer to the councilor from Dorchester that I feel that conditions with respect to the polls being kept open are the same in my ward as in his. I know that in my ward I want every person who desires to do so to be given an opportunity to cast his or her vote on November 8. Therefore, I voted for the eight o'clock closing, to give to the people who could not vote between six o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon an opportunity to vote later. Now, having so hurried the precinct officers in my ward—and I feel that the conditions are the same there as in other wards of the city—I wanted to give them, if it could possibly be done, extra compensation for the additional work they will have to do. I think the fact that I voted for those sweat shop hours, as my brother refers to them, is no reason why those men and women should not be paid for the extra hours that they will have to work. Conditions being as they are, and it being to my mind important that the voters should have an opportunity to register their votes, I feel that the election officers are entitled to additional compensation. The mere fact that I voted for the eight o'clock closing—and for that vote I have no apologies to make to the gentleman—has nothing to do with the extra work that will be involved, even if the gentleman, so far as his personal vote is concerned, had nothing to do with it. I feel that we should pay the additional money to the election officers, and I shall so vote. Of course, he has the same privilege that I have of voting for or against the order.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I think the officers ought to receive extra compensation, and there certainly must be some way to provide it. There will be the additional four hours during which the polls are open, and it will perhaps mean an additional hour and a half in connection with the counting of the ballots, so that the result will be that it will carry them well into the morning. Many people do not understand that under the law the polls cannot be opened until six o'clock in the morning, and that they must be opened at that time. We are the only city in the country that resorts to this practise, keeping the polls open so long as is now provided. In New York, Chicago, and every other large city in the country, the polls close at four o'clock in the afternoon. If the polls were kept open until twelve o'clock midnight, there would still be some who would want to vote then, or who would not vote at all no matter how long the polls were kept open. The election officers are up against the proposition of having to serve there this additional time, and no extra compensation has yet been provided for it. This is a new proposition, and those who have not worked at the polls or who have not stood at the polls election days do not understand the thing. I stood at the polls before I was able to vote, and I have known a great deal about the work that the election officers have to do. I have myself worked as an election officer, and never left the polls until the morning, and I know something about it. People who wish to vote can come out and vote between the hours of six in the morning and four in the afternoon. There is plenty of opportunity for them to do so. It takes them only a few minutes at the most. Even if they do have to make a slight sacrifice of time, that is something to be expected of them as citizens of this country. When we think how people in foreign countries suffer, how they shed blood to get their rights, and when we think of the opportunities offered to people here under popular government, in this city and elsewhere, it is certainly surprising that with the opportunities afforded to people here they do not take advantage of them to a greater extent than they do. There is no question but what people who wish to do so can come out and vote between six o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon, and it is outrageous to think that all of them do not do so. Of course, the order we have passed imposes this additional burden on the election officers, and to my mind they should be paid $25 a day for their services, and the citizens of this city would gladly consent to it. It is outrageous that they should be expected to work this additional time and should not be paid for it. Their work requires the greatest care and caution in counting and tabulating. A single hallot may decide an election. That has frequently happened in this state and city, and all over the country. A governor of the Commonwealth was elected by one vote. Mayors, members of the City Council, and members of the Legislature have been elected by one vote. It is extremely important that we obtain the services of able and careful men and women behind the rail, and every man and woman who knows anything about politics knows that this late voting opens the door to corruption, to fraud and disturbance. It is easy to perpetrate fraud at late hours of the night, when darkness has come on. I believe we will soon wake up to the fact that people will be dissatisfied with this proposed system. The sanctity of the hallot is an important thing. But now that we have voted to make these extra requirements of the election officers, certainly we should find some way to give them proper compensation for the work they do. I say that $25 a day would be nothing but proper compensation for the service they render. I hope the order will pass, and that some way will be found to give them proper compensation. From eight o'clock in the morning until three or four o'clock in the afternoon there is nothing doing, but they have to hang around. When there are these lulls, they are obliged to sit there all the time. And they can't go to their meals, without there being extra men there. And now it is going to be worse. They can't leave and will have these additional duties placed upon them. I tell you, there is going to be a reaction. The people of this city are fairminded, and they can be educated to go to the polls and vote between six o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon. As a rule, there is no reason why they should not vote before they go to work. If these men are not to be paid an extra amount, certainly you will have to pay extra clerks so that there will be a chance for them to go to their supper. It is certainly unfair not to give them the compensation that rightly and justly belongs to them.

Coun. KEENE—Mr. President, I feel that a man or woman designated as an election officer should receive proper compensation. Certainly, if they are at all worthy of their hire they are worthy of an amount of pay commensurate with that received by men and women engaged in other activities. The law of the state is such at the present time, as I understand it, that they must finish with the officials they started with. In other words, there is no provision whereby certain election officials might work from six o'clock in the morning until four in the afternoon, and other officials work from four in the afternoon until such time as the tabulations are completed. In the ward in which I live, in the last election, two years ago, they had an eight o'clock closing, and I was at one precinct until quarter past four in the morning. There were men and women there who had been there since six o'clock the prior morning. I am in favor of paying them at least the amount suggested by Coun. Ruby.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, in order that my attitude may not be misunderstood by other councilors, as well as the one from the adjoining ward, let me say that I don't want to keep these men and women working extra hours. I simply want to make the point at this time, having myself voted in favor of the earlier closing, that I don't feel that this proposed extra amount for the longer hours is making good to these people for the work we put upon them.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, if there is no objection I would make an amendment so that the amounts will read respectively $19 and $21. I suggest that amendment if there is no objection.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, the only reason why I made the amounts $15 and $17 is that I believe if a clerk is getting $11, and the hours of the opening of the polls are from six in the morning until four in the afternoon, he should get four dollars extra, we will say, for the additional five hours. I feel on the basis of the present pay that it might figure out that way, that that might make a proper proportionate sum in addition to what they were originally going to get. But if the amount was increased more than that, it might be claimed that it was out of proportion to what they were originally going to get. I believe it should not be put at a figure which might result in their losing a chance to get an increase to which no objection could be made, based on the time suggested. Other than that I have no objection.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, it strikes me that the City Council as a body is placing itself in a ridiculous light before the general public. We have imposed upon the election officials at the next election hours that have been designated here as sweat shop hours. Now, I stand up here and say that I hope, as we all hope, that they will get adequate compensation for the hours we have imposed upon them. But before the hours were so fixed, it seems to me, was the time when we should have found out whether they could be adequately compensated or not, and it seems to me the height of ridiculousness for us to come in here now and say that this additional amount can be very readily found somewhere, through the Mayor or someone else, without consulting those who have responsibility for providing the compensation. It seems to me that to do a thing of that kind is simply to throw a sop to these people on whom we have inflicted the sweat shop hours, with the hope that somebody will take care of them. It seems to me the Council of the City of Boston, in placing itself in that position, is putting itself in a light before the general public that may fairly be styled ridiculous.

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, I did not at the start have any idea of making any remarks on the subject, but I do think the point made by both gentlemen on my right to sweat shop hours is not well taken. I am sorry that politics have been injected into this, which I consider a nonpartisan proposition. I feel that it certainly cannot be claimed that this is not a democratic measure. It was so characterized in this state not very long ago by Senator David I. Walsh. I know that when I presented the order for eight o'clock closing two years ago, at the instance of David I. Walsh, he himself afterward said that he got 80,000 more votes than he would have received with four o'clock closing, defeating the candidate of the previous speaker who referred to sweat shop hours, the Hon. William M. Butler. This is not a question of sweat shop hours. It is a question of giving to all, regardless of who they are, an opportunity to vote. At the executive meeting two weeks ago, when the matter came up, Coun. Green brought out the argument that in his ward in Charlestown, teamsters and truck drivers had to get to work early in the morning, not being able to vote even at six o'clock; that they had to work all day long, not being able to vote before four o'clock; that they, in many instances, didn't have a chance to vote at all, and that the eight o'clock closing would mean perhaps 400 or 500 additional votes from that class of people. I call that to the attention of some of the members of the Council here, who are patriotic gentlemen, and who, of course, believe that the ballot is the American citizen's greatest weapon; and when this is referred to by my Republican brother as a sweat shop proposition, I think that is a mighty mean thing to say. I think the suggested opposition to these longer hours on the part of the public is merely a bugaboo. The Election Commissioners were peeved last year when the Council voted for eight o'clock closing, and a bill was introduced in the Legislature to take that power away from this Board, leaving the decision with the Election Commissioners. But when the matter came before the able Governor of the Commonwealth, using his judgment he vetoed it and left the power where it rightly belongs, with the City Council of Boston.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I wish to correct one erroneous statement by the gentleman from the other side of Neponset river. I was not elected here by Republicans, but am a nonpartisan councilor from Ward 17. I understand from the Board of Election Commissioners that the City of Boston is the only large city in the United States that has the late closing hour, and I would ask my brother, since he brings up the question of Republicans and Democrats, if he is under the impression that I labor under that New York and Chicago are both overwhelmingly Democratic, but have the four o'clock closing hour?

Coun. GILBODY—Mr. President, at the start I referred particularly to the fact that it was a nonpartisan measure in this Council, before I made any extended remarks; and, in regard to New York and Chicago, let me simply say that Boston has led the way in every intelligent movement in this country, leaving it for New York, Chicago and every other large city to follow. That has been the case in educational and other matters. We are now leading the way here, and after a while the other cities will get on the hand wagon. We are simply endeavoring to give every American man and woman a chance to vote, regardless of the hours during which the polls are open in other places.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, I have been very deeply touched by the spectacle presented to us by one of the Council of the tremendous burden in the way of labor attached to these election officers, who have to work so late. We have had conjured up before us a picture of such abject, deep humiliation, such terrible labor, that it must indeed have touched all our hearts. There have been, however, a few inconsistencies in those same statements. In one breath one councilor tells us how long the hours are and how terrible the labor is during those long hours, how hard they have to work, and in the next breath he tells us that during the period between eight in the morning and four in the afternoon there is absolutely nothing to do, that they are just sitting there and waiting for voters to come in. It is indeed unfortunate that the Legislature has fixed the hour of opening the polls at six o'clock in the morning, and that the City Council has no way of changing that hour. It is unfortunate, because I think if it were possible for us to do so we might change the opening hour, and perhaps have the hours for the opening of the polls between 12 noon and eight in the evening, in which case the election officers would have to work only eight hours at the open polls. But the Legislature has fixed that opening hour, and we cannot tamper with it. The only thing we can do is perhaps bring the matter before the Legislature again for repeal of or a change in the law which fixes that as the opening hour. The only other thing we can do is to give the voters a chance to cast their votes, those who have not had an opportunity at the other hours, between six and eight o'clock, say, in the evening. Referring to the compensation, there is no doubt that with the increase of hours the election officers are entitled to additional compensation, and I would be thoroughly willing that they should get it, as I believe all of us are. They certainly are entitled to it. But to say that it is a sweat shop method of making them work the extra four hours is the most amusing and most ridiculous thing I have heard. In the first place, it is only one day out of a year. There are not many of us here who have not stayed out all night the night before the Fourth or the Seventeenth of June, and stood on our feet, watching bonfires and that sort of thing. And how many of us have done that at other times, when there was not even occasion to display the interest that might be expected on those occasions. Yet here we hear this complaint and have a touching picture drawn of what a thousand election officers have to endure in these four hours, which, of course, they must put in if the polls are closed at eight o'clock instead of at four o'clock. I wonder if some of the councilors who want the polls closed at four o'clock are taking that position because of their deep interest in these men and women, on the human side, whether they are looking at it purely from that point of view, or whether they are looking at it from another point of view. As I have said, the state has fixed the opening hour at six o'clock in the morning, and that we cannot help. As far as extra compensation is concerned, I again repeat that I think they deserve extra compensation for the extra hours they have to put in.

Coun. GUILD—In answer to the doubts of the last speaker, Mr. President, I will say, on the question of closing the polls, that I voted the same way last year, when I was not a candidate, as this year, when I am.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

VALUE OF WELLINGTON HILL LAND.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:
Ordered, That the chairman of the Board of Assessors be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to forward to the City Council at its next meeting the answers to the following two questions:

1. Who was the assessor who appraised at 4 cents a foot the property on Wellington Hill, recently purchased by the city for school purposes at 40 cents a foot?

2. In the opinion of the chairman of the Board of Assessors, what is a fair estimate of the present value of the property?

The question came on suspension of the rule for passage of the order.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, in introducing this order I have asked two questions. Question No. 1 is, Who was the member of our Assessing Department who assessed the property on Wellington Hill, recently purchased by the city for school purposes, at 4 cents a foot? And the second question is, What in the opinion of the chairman of the Board of Assessors, Mr. Edward T. Kelly, is a fair estimate of the present value of the property? When assessors go into a district of the City of Boston they are supposed to assess at a fair valuation whatever tangible property there is, and I assume that the Board of Assessors of the City of Boston have done so in the case of the Wellington Hill land. There is not a board of assessors in Massachusetts—and when I say Massachusetts that means New England—that can compare with the Board of Assessors of the City of Boston. I have been all over this Commonwealth in connection with assessments, in my business, and you cannot go into another city in the State of Massachusetts and get the assessed value of a piece of property right offhand as you can here in Boston. You can walk down now to the assessors' office and ask for the valuation of any property in the City of Boston, and get it immediately. I could take you, Mr. President, or any other member down there, and in five minutes locate the street, the owner, the assessed valuation, divided as to land and building, on any property in the city, and Mr. Kelly stands at the head of assessors in this section of our country. Some twelve years ago an organization of real estate men in the City of New York sent over here to learn about our system here in connection with our assessing, which operated so successfully. Now, here is a situation in Dorchester, near the place where I live, where a man owns property assessed for 4 cents a foot. The Assessing Department says that that is the value. The time comes when Mr. Holbrook wants to dispose of the property, and under an administration of this kind, if you have anything you cannot sell otherwise, you sell it to the city. That is the story. They have three appraisers—Mr. Warren Freeman, the City of Boston's real estate expert, who will be remembered in connection with the Revere House site, that they tried to put over here a short time ago, and that we cut $100,000 from—the city auctioneer, Mr. Robert T. Fowler, and Mr. Richard F. Andrews, former street commissioner. Those three supposedly unbiased appraisers looked at this land in Dorchester and said it was worth 40 cents a foot, ten times what Mr. Kelly, who knows the real value of the property, says it is worth. Since we cut the Revere House site $100,000 the boys have kept quiet, but they are now again at it. They feel that, as perhaps some of us are in political contests, we will not look after the citizens of our city as we might at some other time, and so they go into the Dorchester section and appraise property for ten times its value, and the city is going to take it at that price. Now, sir, something is wrong, and under my order I have asked the chairman of the Board of Assessors to tell us, first, who appraised the property at 4 cents a foot, and also, after his twenty years of service down there, what he thinks the true value of this property is. When we get that information, sir, when we have this Board of Assessors—this Board that is held up as a criterion for other boards to go by—tell us the facts, that when they assessed that for 4 cents a foot they were honest and sincere and assessed it fairly, as they will tell you, then I am going to ask that our city auctioneer, our city appraiser and the former member of the Board of Street Commissioners come here and tell us why they are making our city and our citizens pay for land ten times its assessed value. I feel that the chairman of our Board of Assessors can answer these questions satisfactorily, because he stands in the minds of the people of the City of Boston, as he stood twenty years ago, sincere, honest, and right in 99 per cent of his valuations.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I have no objection to the order presented by the councilor on my left. It so happens that the land in question is located in my ward, and if I have any knowledge of my ward I ought to know just where the land is. It may be possible that the land was underassessed or overvalued. I do not know. It may be possible that the land in question is particularly suitable, as I believe is the case, for the purpose for which it has been purchased. In my opinion, in no section of Boston is there a more urgent necessity for the erection of a schoolhouse than there is in the Wellington Hill section of Dorchester, where thousands of homes have been built within the last four or five years, and where they contemplate, I am informed, erecting an $800,000 40-room schoolhouse which will be a credit to the City of Boston. Personally, there is no question in my mind that a satisfactory answer will come back. I don't know from my personal knowledge that 4 cents per foot for land in that section is an absolute undervaluation, but there might have been a reason which can be explained for what has taken place. I believe, so far as the location is concerned, that no more ideal place could be found for this purpose; and, of course, we as members of the City Council have no authority with reference to the taking of land for schoolhouse purposes, that being left to another department. I do feel, however, this being a matter in which, as a representative of that district, I am personally concerned, that I should make this statement to this body at this time.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

MAYOR THANKED FOR RECEPTION TO RETURNING LEGIONNAIRES.

Mayor Nichols, on October 25, received a letter from Edward E. Spafford, National Commander of the American Legion, thanking him for the fine reception which was accorded the legionnaires upon their return to Boston on the "Carmania." The letter reads as follows:

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MAYOR,—Please accept the sincere thanks of the National Commander and of the legionnaires who were privileged to enter Boston on the "Carmania," for the fine reception which we received.

In the early morning hours rainbows built themselves around the fire tugs. If you could have been present you would appreciate how great an appeal this had.

We had been entertained lavishly by the people of France and it was good for us all to realize that in Boston, the Mayor of that great city was anxious to do what he could to make our return pleasant.

Very sincerely yours,

EDWARD E. SPAFFORD.

MAYOR NICHOLS COMMENTS ON GOVERNOR FULLER'S PROPOSAL FOR BARRING AUTOMOBILES FROM THE DOWNTOWN DISTRICT.

Mayor Nichols made the following comment on statement of Governor Fuller excluding automobiles from the downtown district:

I cannot agree with Governor Fuller that the present traffic problem will be unravelled if all pleasure cars are barred from the business section of the city between the hours of 10 and 3.

The business of our great downtown stores and shops would be substantially injured and very little would be accomplished for the pedestrian. This suggestion of the Governor is undoubtedly his best snap judgment, but the present traffic problem cannot be solved by any single striking suggestion which probably does more harm than good to the city.

With regard to the second suggestion, that the present parking privileges be eliminated, these privileges were eliminated by the Street Commissioners at my direction about a year ago. No parking permits have been issued by the Street Commissioners since January 1, 1927. The Police Commissioner was notified at that time that all permits had been revoked.

The same statute which imposes upon the Street Commissioners the duty of making traffic regulations provides that the Police Department shall enforce them. The Street Commissioners fix restricted areas, parking places and time limits for parking, and notice of every amendment to the regulations is sent forthwith to the Police Department. The duty of enforcing parking regulations belongs solely to the Police Department.

The only suggestion made by the Governor with which I can agree is that the police need a new viewpoint regarding the comparative importance of pedestrian and automobile traffic.

Well, the Governor reappointed the present Police Commissioner this year. If the Police Commissioner were my appointee, I would have seen to it that he had a new viewpoint long ago, if I thought he needed one.

It is also true that the present situation needs careful thought. Early this year I appointed an able traffic commission which secured the services of the greatest traffic expert in the United States, Dr. Miller McClintock, director of the Erskine Bureau of Research of Harvard University. They have conducted studies of the most painstaking character, and their report is now being prepared and will be ready the first of the year.

This report will supply intelligent suggestions for the improvement of present conditions.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

MAYOR NICHOLS COMMENTS ON COUNCIL CHOICES BY GOOD GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION.

Mayor Nichols made the following comment upon the recommendations of the Good Government Association for the City Council.

While the Sacco-Vanzetti cases were pending before his Excellency the Governor only a few weeks ago, Communists flocked to Boston from every Red corner in the world. They came with thoughts of force and violence in their hearts to defeat the orderly process of Massachusetts laws.

Their impudence landed them in the police court, where their champion appeared. His devotion to his Red clients is promptly followed by a coveted recognition, given at the first opportunity presented, through the favor of the Good Government Association which recommends that he now represent the people of Boston in their City Council.

In the Red press he is hailed as "Comrade." His election would delight every hater of American institutions. In the name of Good Government what is it that Boston voters are being asked to do?

BRICKLAYERS' UNION THANKS MAYOR FOR EFFORTS FOR DURANT, INCORPORATED.

Mayor Nichols received a letter of thanks from the Bricklayers' Benevolent and Protective Union No. 3, of Massachusetts, extending thanks for his untiring and expert effort in attempting to bring to a successful conclusion the question of the proposed height of the building which the Durant, Incorporated, desire to erect.

The letter reads as follows:

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I feel highly honored in being requested by the officers and members of my organization to communicate with you for the purpose of extending thanks for the untiring and expert effort you exercised in trying to devise ways and means to bring to a successful conclusion the plans set forth by the Durant, Incorporated, who endeavored to have a restriction, which is in operation in our city and controlled by our zoning laws, which prohibits the construction of buildings beyond a certain height, removed, but was unsuccessful.

Durant, Incorporated, although sincere in their undertakings, has been deprived of this request, if granted, would serve as a betterment to the general public in these times of depressions by affording at least employment for those connected with the building industry and thereby release the care and worry an executive is bound to experience who is interested in his flock.

While every reasonable prudent person realizes that restrictions levied upon certain territories have a purpose to accomplish, yet, opportunities often arise wherein the removal of such would create a feeling of enjoyment and contentment and meet with the approval of all, who by their untiring efforts, are the agencies through which much good would be accomplished and in this way fully compensate us for looking after the affairs of our people.

You are a marked man as far as our members are concerned in so far as they are everlastingly interested in the ability you have exemplified in all matters concerning our city; they rest at ease, fully relieved of all anxiety for they know that Boston has an executive amply endowed with ability to handle the affairs of our people and willing at all times to extend time and intelligence towards placing Boston upon a pedestal to the envy of other city executives.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

PAUL A. MEANEY,
Corresponding Secretary.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Water Service).

Upon October 27 the Mayor approved a contract with John Williams for laying and relaying water pipes in Grayson street, Humes road, Whitten street, Francis park, Charlemont street, Westmoreland street extension, Dorchester; and Wesley street, South Boston. Bids, opened October 24, were as follows:

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with the department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Upon October 29 the Mayor approved a contract with companies as indicated for furnishing fuel oil to the various city departments. A communication from Herbert S. Frost of the Supply Department was as follows:

BOSTON, October 27, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Under date of September 21, 1927, bids were publicly opened on our requirements for heavy and light fuel oil for the period from October 1, 1927, to September 30, 1928, and bids were obtained as indicated on the attached sheet. On examination of these bids, the Supply Department was of the opinion that lower prices could be secured through the medium of readvertisement and new bids were opened under date of October 11, 1927, as per attached sheet and these prices showed a saving over the original prices of approximately $12,487.75.

On the item of the heavy fuel oil, in the readvertisement, the Cities Service Refining Company was the lowest bidder for furnishing heavy fuel oil to the Hospital Department, pumping station, Calf Pasture, Public Works Garage, City Hall Annex, Dorchester Courthouse, and Fire Department repair shop, and the Supply Department has had the award of this contract under investigation since the opening of the bids owing to the fact that on the last year's contract which was awarded to the Cities Service Refining Company, we had considerable trouble on a delivery made to the Boston City Hospital and the Calf Pasture pumping station. This trouble was occasioned by the fact that the oil delivered was from the Mid-Continent oil fields and was unsuited for use in our type of oil burners. After this experience they changed the type of oil and their deliveries have been satisfactory since that time. The specifications for the heavy fuel oil which were formerly in use in this department have been changed under the direction of Mr. Perry Barker, our chemist, with a view of eliminating any such troubles as occurred last winter, and as a further safeguard the Cities Service Refining Company in conference with this office have assured us that they will not use Mid-Continent type of oil again under this contract but give us their Venezuelan or California crude which is perfectly satisfactory for our use.

While this department had the fuel bids under investigation, namely on October 26, 1927, this office received information that there had been a 10 cent per barrel drop in the price of crude oil, and we immediately took steps to secure the benefit of this reduction. As a result, the Cities Service Refining Company have agreed to reduce the price of heavy fuel oil $0.001 per gallon on all deliveries made to the Hospital Department, pumping station, Calf Pasture, Public Works Garage, City Hall Annex and Fire Department repair shop; and the Petroleum Heat and Power Company, the lowest bidder, in the readvertisement, for furnishing heavy fuel oil to the Health Units, and the Overseeing of the Public Welfare Department, have also agreed to reduce the price of heavy fuel oil delivered to these two department $0.001 per gallon.

In view of the information contained above, I would respectfully request that the bids on heavy fuel oil received under public advertisement of October 11, 1927, be rejected, and that permission be granted me to award a contract, without publicly advertising for same, to the Cities Service Refining Company for furnishing heavy fuel oil to the Hospital Department, pumping station, Calf Pasture, Public Works Garage, City Hall Annex and Fire Department at a price of $0.041 per gallon, and to the Dorchester Courthouse at a price of $0.044 per gallon; and contract for furnishing heavy fuel oil to the Health Units and Overseeing of the Public Welfare Department be awarded to the Petroleum Heat and Power Company, the lowest bidder on the readvertisement, at a price of $0.044 per gallon.

Regarding the light fuel oil, would state that the recent drop of 10 cents per barrel on crude oil in no way effects the price of the light fuel oil, and I would therefore respectfully recommend that this contract be awarded to the New England Oil Refining Company, the lowest bidder under the quotations received October 11, 1927, at a price of $0.0625 per gallon.

Respectfully yours,

HERBERT S. FROST,
Superintendent of Supplies.

ORDERS OF ADDITIONS.

SCHOOLHOUSE DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor has approved the issuance of the following orders of addition:

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $11,404.34, to the contract of Joseph Rugo for erection and completion of the Continuation School, boys' unit.

This amount is required to cover the cost of shoring and building new foundation walls at the rear of the present school building on Common street, in order that the foundations for the new building might be laid. The rear wall of the new building at one corner is 2 feet from the old building, and at the other corner 7 feet. While excavating for the new foundations, which had to go deeper than the foundations of the old building, it was discovered that the foundation of the present building was built of rubble stone laid up dry. Conditions were dangerous, and it was decided to shore the rear wall of the present building and replace the rubble stone foundation with a concrete foundation, as a matter of safety, as the building is in use every day for school purposes.

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly West Roxbury and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Brook road, bounded:

Northerly by easement taken by the City of Boston for sewerage purposes in Brook road, six feet; easterly by another part of Brook road, six hundred and twenty feet; southerly by the same, six feet; and westerly by the same, six hundred and twenty feet, containing thirty-seven hundred and twenty square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 600 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Brook road, from Forest Hills street to Plainfield street, excluding the lot at the southwesterly corner of Plainfield street and Brook road, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered, each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 803, Sewerage Works, Brook Road, West Roxbury, October 3, 1927, William J. PUBLIC SCHOOL MEMBERSHIP, SEPT. 30, 1927.

A communication was received from the Superintendent, under date of Oct. 17, 1927, submitting a statement of the number of pupils belonging to the Boston public day schools, exclusive of the Continuation School, on September 30, 1927, together with a comparative statement of the number belonging on September 30, 1926, as follows:

The total number belonging in the Boston public day schools on September 30, 1927, was 130,020 which is 1,548 more pupils than were enrolled in the schools on September 30, 1926. The Teachers College of the City of Boston shows an increase of 51 pupils; high and Latin, an increase of 958 pupils; in the ninth grade intermediate schools, there is an increase of 452 pupils, in grades one to eight there is a decrease of 123 pupils; in the kindergartens there is an increase of 179 pupils; and in the special schools an increase of 31 pupils. Were the figures for the ninth grade intermediate schools included in the membership of the day high schools, the high schools would show an increase of 1410 pupils.

In the Continuation School the membership on September 30, 1927, was 39 more than on September 30, 1926. On September 30, 1927, it was 3,637 as against 3,598 on September 30, 1926.

In the Training School for Teachers of Mechanic Arts there was a membership of 22 pupils on September 30, 1927, which was 4 more than on September 30, 1926.

APPOINTMENT OF ADVISERS OF GIRLS.

At Dr. Bogan's request, the following statement prepared by Assistant Superintendent Mary C. Mellyn for publication in the press setting forth the history and the duties of advisers of girls in the high schools, was ordered spread upon the records of the meeting:

In view of the apparent misconception entertained by some persons in the community concerning the position of Advisers of Girls in the Boston High Schools, I have felt it incumbent upon me, as Assistant Superintendent in charge of the newly appointed advisers, to issue the following statement:

The School Committee is charged with the education of the children in the public schools. They provide the school buildings, employ the teachers and furnish a rich equipment, to the end that the children of this city may receive in abundance all that public school education can give. Schools exist for this purpose, and the education which is given must help the child not only to a training in subject matter but to right ideals of conduct. In the last analysis, this work is accomplished by the teacher. She is the educational guide who is to clear away the academic difficulties and help the pupil to right adjustments within the school.

Today the teacher knows that her problem is the problem of the individual child, and, as she deals with him, she helps him to master his difficulties so that he may succeed in his school work. She does this through personal advice in every case and the best teachers have always been advisers.

As the school population increases, the teacher's burden of preparation and teaching increases proportionately, and her opportunity to advise individual pupils is limited by her leisure, and surplus strength. She can touch but few pupils in this helpful way, and so there has developed within the high schools and colleges of this country the office of adviser held by a teacher who is freed from class room work in order that she may give all of her time to all pupils who are finding difficulties in their school problems.

This position became a reality in 1912 when advisers were placed in the high schools of Chicago. In these 15 years they have been appointed in all the large cities of our country where they are known variously as deans, advisers or counselors, and at their meeting in 1925 almost five hundred were present for the conference from all parts of the country.

In 1924 in response to a request from the school for this type of service, an adviser was appointed to the faculty of Teachers College. Her work was so successful, that in the Spring of 1926, the Board of Superintendents made a study of the work of advisers in the high schools of the country. In June, 1926, with the unanimous approval of the Board of Superintendents, it was agreed that an adviser in the high schools should be added to our staff of teachers by the School Committee and the salary for the office was contained in the budget of that year.

In September, 1926, more than a year ago, notices were sent out to all high schools in Boston informing the women teachers that a rated list for promotion to the position of adviser would be made during the year. Standards known to all were set up, and a large measure of credit was given to those who had served in this capacity voluntarily or on assignment by the Headmaster in the various high schools.

In June, 1927, the budget again contained provision for this rank, and in September, 1927, after almost a year and a half of study on this problem, eight advisers were appointed from the rated list—five to the girls' high schools and three to the large mixed high schools.

The duties of advisers of girls have been clearly defined. The new appointees will work in harmony with college advisers and the vocational counsellors. They are not intended to supplant, but to supplement parental control. They are not to function as a substitute for father or mother but always as sympathetic aids to the home, in securing the best school adjustment for the child.

The duties follow in detail:

1. The adviser is a teacher—at the option of the principal she may be called upon to teach in the subject for which she has been prepared.

2. She shall have general supervision over extra curricular activities. Today, we have in our high schools various lines of work, carried on in the afternoons, which touch the girl's life interests and build those interests into her academic studies. The Dramatic Club, the Debating Club, the orchestra, the Glee Club, the Athletic Association—all these the Adviser supervises, and directs the girl student into the wise use of her time and talents.

3. She shall supervise all social activities carried on in the name of the school. Careful chaperonage of social activities, is the function of the adviser. She will see that these affairs are carried on in such a way that parents will approve of their children's attendance. Evening dances carried on in the name of the school are forbidden by the Regulations of the School Committee, but social affairs of the afternoon, will be most carefully supervised by the Adviser as a member of the High School Faculty.

4.—She shall serve as Adviser of Girls for all colleges and higher institutions of learning. No one can advise a student concerning college requirements and college admissions as well as the adviser who must make herself familiar with all the machinery of college admissions. She is thus equipped to advise the girl so that she takes no false steps and wastes no time as she follows a definite course toward her objective.

5. She may give advice on dress and manners to girl students. Surely, in these matters the word of suggestion and direction is needed today.

6. She shall serve as a consultant to the Headmaster on all matters relating to the discipline of girls. In every case of school discipline referred to the Adviser she shall act as counsel for the defendant. She is the friend of the girl, to plead for her, to advise with her. She will cooperate with room teacher, with parent and with Headmaster in doing everything that will make the girl the right type of student in the school.

7. She will advise the girls concerning their home lessons, teaching them how to study in order that their home study may be successful. She will find the reasons for students' failures in academic studies, and with the cooperation of the class room and subject teacher, the Adviser will try to help these students to successful achievement and to better school records.

The Adviser's concern is with the problem of the girl in school. She will help the girl to the wisest and best use of her time, to the cultivation of her talents, and to fine achievement in her high school record.

MARY C. MELLYN,

Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Advisers of Girls.

At the request of Mr. Sullivan, who was absent from the meeting, the following statement prepared by him was read by the Secretary:

There is but one comment on the inspired dissertation of Assistant Superintendent Mary C. Mellyn in regard to the so-called Advisers of Girls which is worthy of answer.

Miss Mellyn says: "As the school population increases, the teacher's burden of preparation and teaching increases proportionately." The fact is otherwise. The School Committee recently legislated a reduction of the quota of pupils from forty to thirty-five, which provision means an additional expenditure of $26,736.00 for additional teachers for the four-month period, September 1 to December 31. Such legislation is clearly indicative of the School Committee's intent to effect a closer cooperation between the teacher and the individual child. If the purpose of the Advisers is to supplement the parent, why was not the Parent-Teachers' Association invited to advise?

The appointment of the so-called Advisers is the most pernicious paternalism yet practised in our community.

Dr. Bogan: I do not know where Mr. Sullivan gets his figures. These Advisers are in high schools, and I do not think the figures quoted by Mr. Sullivan carry very much weight. Have you, Mr. Superintendent, anything to say on that subject?

Superintendent: No, I do not know just what the cost is. Perhaps the Business Manager could give us an estimate. I do not know just how many teachers have been appointed under the order reducing the quota in intermediate schools only—seventh, eighth, and ninth grades—from forty to thirty-five. Not a very large number have been appointed.

Business Manager: I think Mr. Sullivan refers to the item in the budget to cover the appointment of additional teachers on account of the reduction in quota for intermediate school teachers.

Dr. Bogan: But that is in the intermediate schools, and these Advisers are in high schools.

Mrs. Barron: Mr. Chairman, I think Mr. Sullivan would probably admit that he was mistaken. He evidently assumed that this reduction in quota applies to high schools, but inasmuch as it applies to the intermediate schools and not to the high schools where the Advisers are appointed, I do not see the relation. I think it is only fair to state that Miss Mellyn has been in our service practically all her life. She has risen from teacher, gone on and taken her place in practically every rank in the system. She is respected and admired; she has keen, mature judgment; she has practical experience; and she has made a thorough study of this question. It is not haphazard decision on her part, and I, for one, have the utmost respect for and confidence in Miss Mellyn's judgment, because I feel that it is based on practical realities. I understand that Miss Mellyn states emphatically that this is not an experiment that at the last conference of deans in 1925, there were at least five hundred deans present. The rest of the statement speaks for itself and I think we ought to have implicit confidence and faith in a woman who has studied the subject as thoroughly as Miss Mellyn has, and who speaks from first-hand knowledge.

Mr. O'Hare: I just want this statement incorporated in the records. I agree with Mrs. Barron's statement, of course, as regards Miss Mellyn's ability. I know her both as a woman and a teacher because when I was in the Normal School Miss Mellyn was the one who advised the beginning teacher on proper classroom carriage deportment, and teaching procedure. No one who knows anything about education or anything about the individuals in our school system can well criticize a woman who has given her life to the advancement of education in our schools.

Miss Mary C. Mellyn, who has charge of the recently appointed Advisers in high schools, issued a statement to the press of Boston as to the history leading up to the creation of the position of Adviser and also a statement of their duties.

This was done with the sole intent of giving Boston's citizenry a clear conception of the reasons for and the duties of Advisers.

In some of the newspaper articles, it has been stated that there was no clear-cut conception of what these people were to do, and Miss Mellyn's letter to the press was merely to give a reaction to that point and show what their duties were to be.

May I add also that the position of Adviser was not the creation of the School Committee, but rather it came to the Committee with the unanimous recommendation of the Board of Superintendents.

I make this statement in clarification, just to substantiate my belief in the action that I have taken. There is not much else to be said about it. People disagree on matters of policy,—that is human nature perfectly legitimate and allowable but this statement of Miss Mellyn's was made to show why the establishment of the position of Adviser was recommended to the School Committee for adoption.

Dr. Bogan: I can merely second what Mrs. Barron and Mr. O'Hare have said. My confidence and faith and trust in Miss Mellyn are stronger than ever. I have been on this Board for many years and have many times profited by her trust in and knowledge of the school system. I want to quote right here from a report of a statement made by the Field Secretary of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, at a session held recently in this city under the auspices of the Massachusetts Parent-Teachers Association, Inc., the following:

"... For that reason the association is doing all it can to obtain the appointment of a dean of boys in every boys' high school and a dean of girls in every girls' high school, and both in mixed high schools, whether junior or senior. . . ."

That appears to be the attitude of the Parent-Teachers Association on Advisers.

Mr. Gray: Mr. Chairman, I am already twice on record as opposed to the appointment of these Advisers. I have great respect for Miss Mellyn, but notwithstanding her statement, I am still opposed to Advisers.

Dr. Bogan: But as I understand it, you were opposed to appointing eight Advisers but were willing to appoint five. You would not starve with the Committee for the appointment of eight. I take it that way.

Mr. Gray: Mr. Chairman, you know I have been opposed to the appointment of Advisers since last February or March.

Dr. Bogan: I think there are some records that show that you were willing to stand for the appointment of four or five.

Mr. Gray: It is true and it is a matter of record that I said that it is an experiment and should not be done on such a large scale. It is equally true that an experiment to be successful must be both workable and desired by the people. There are a great many people with whom I have talked on this subject and the vast majority are opposed to this experiment, and I shall continue to oppose it.

AMENDMENTS TO RULES.

Mr. O'Hare: I am re-introducing for discussion at the next meeting, the order introduced by me at the meeting of Jan. 3, 1927 (see p. 5), as follows:

ORDERED, That the rules be amended as follows:

Section 16, paragraph 1. Strike out the words "by a majority vote" in the third line, and substitute in place thereof the words—by a four-fifths vote—so that the paragraph will read as follows:

SECT. 16. 1. The sessions of the School Committee shall be open, but the School Committee may, at any time, by a four-fifths vote, go into executive session. It shall, however, pass no votes in executive session.

Laid over for action at the next meeting.

The Board adjourned.
Attest:

ELLEN M. CRONIN,
Secretary.

PETITIONS ALLOWED.

The Mayor has approved the following petitions received from the Board of Street Commissioners:

Everett C. Forsyth, 12-16 Market street, Ward 22, 2,000 gallons of gasoline Bay State Auto Repair Company, Incorporated, 983-995 Massachusetts avenue, Ward 8, 5,000 gallons of gasoline (additional).

COLUMBUS PARK CHOSEN AS SITE FOR AUDITORIUM AND STADIUM—TENTATIVE PLANS SUBMITTED.

Mayor Nichols, on November 10, gave out some tentative drawings of an auditorium and stadium located on Columbus Park adjacent to Columbus Circle.

The Mayor, in making public this plan, which was drawn under his direction by the Park Department, said that his indication of this site did not exclude several other important sites, but the Mayor indicated the Columbus Park site as a highly desirable location for the accommodation of both auditorium and stadium.

The desirability of this place, the Mayor pointed out, was due to a number of important factors.

First, the location of any structure seating many thousands of people makes necessary the preparation of suitable approaches on account of both pedestrian and automobile congestion. Other sites mentioned do not in any way, as they stand, present so complete a system of approaching avenues as the location at Columbus Park. There would be little, if any, expense for new thoroughfares or street widenings. Columbus Park is served by Columbia road on the Strandway running easterly toward Marine Park and Castle Island.

Into Columbia road is L street, leading into Summer street toward the South Station and Dewey square. Westerly is Dorchester avenue running through Andrew square, and immediately adjacent is Old Colony avenue which is now being extended into Old Colony boulevard, across Dorchester bay into Neponset, thereby connecting with the South Shore. Branching out of Old Colony avenue is Columbia Road boulevard, making a convenient approach through Franklin Park to the westerly districts of the city.

The situation is adjacent to the new rapid transit line which has just opened to Fields Corner, and will be served by the Columbia Station, only one minute's walk away.

In fact, it would be hard to find any location in the city which is served by so many avenues running to all points of the compass and by such a convenient system of rapid transit. Moreover, the tracks of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad adjoin the park, so that necessary freight service for big expositions and big industrial shows could be easily arranged.

There are seventy-seven acres of land owned by the city in Columbus Park. An auditorium seating 20,000 people would occupy about twenty-five acres, and a stadium seating 100,000 people would occupy thirty acres. The balance of twenty-two acres could be used for children's activities, such as baseball, football, skating, hockey, etc.

PLAN FOR HEALTH UNIT IN CHARLESTOWN OUT OF WHITE FUND.

Mayor Nichols announced that at a meeting of the George Robert White Fund held on the afternoon of November 10, Thomas W. Proctor attended as the member chosen by the Bar Association of the City of Boston to succeed George R. Nutter.

It was voted to place additions, including shower baths and iron fences, at the South Boston Health Unit.

It was voted to install radiator shields at the South Boston Health Unit.

It was also voted to construct a roof-house at the North End Health Unit similar to those at the East Boston and South Boston Health Units. This roof-house is to be constructed of Vita Glass, specially constructed for the diffusion of sunlight.

A vote was taken that the City Planning Board be requested to confer with the medical and other organizations interested in health work, with a view to determining the central point in Charlestown for the erection of the fourth health unit, the other three being at the North End, at East Boston, and at South Boston.

The following vote was taken in respect to the memory of the late President John J. Heffernan of the Boston City Council, who was a member of the Board of Trustees under the will of the late George Robert White:

Voted, The trustees record with profound regret the passing on August 25 of John J. Heffernan who by virtue of his office as President of the City Council became a member of this Board on January 10 of this year, bringing to its problems marked ability, a most pleasing and agreeable personality and an earnest desire to render a service consistent with his high character and for the best interests of the fund.

The trustees approve the action of the manager in sending a floral tribute to the funeral in their behalf and instruct him to send a copy of this vote to Mrs. Heffernan as a further expression of their sincere sympathy.

PROPOSALS ADVERTISED.

FRENCH VISITORS THANK MAYOR FOR RECEPTION.

Mayor Nichols, on November 2, received a communication from the French Maritime and Colonial League of Paris, relative to their recent visit to Boston and City Hall. The league is composed of college students from various colleges in France who are selected each year to come to the United States and visit the larger cities, studying industrial, civic and educational institutions.

The letter is as follows:

MR. MAYOR OF BOSTON, MASS., U. S. A.

MR. MAYOR,—We make it a duty to thank you for the charming treatment we received during our visit to Boston.

We were particularly happy to have been presented to you.

We pray you to accept, Mr. Mayor, the assurance of our high and very distinguished consideration.

THE DIRECTOR,
E. RONDESSAINT.

AUDITORIUM AND STADIUM.

The parking facilities are unsurpassed. They can be provided for near by the new Old Colony boulevard, on the Strandway, and the other vacant land adjoining—all city-owned land.

Andrew square is one of the most commodious transit points in the entire city, capable of handling thousands of people safely and conveniently. It is about five minutes' walk from Columbus Park, and is less than ten minutes from the heart of the city. Automobile routes would bring people from almost every portion of the city in about fifteen minutes.

Unrivalled opportunity is presented to lay out Columbus Park, with an auditorium and a stadium in such a manner that it would attract nation-wide attention as one of the most commodious in the entire world.

As a summer resort and as a winter resort the shore at Columbus Park presents opportunities for development hardly equal anywhere.

The Mayor stated that he believed the study of a combined stadium and auditorium is deserving of careful thought.

The Mayor has received many suggestions as to other locations, but feels at this time that none have presented more superior advantages than the Columbus Park location. It is his intention to present a bill in the next legislature authorizing the issue of about five million dollars for the building of an auditorium and stadium and the necessary improvements. He feels that the matter can best be presented to the Legislature if talk can be directed more particularly toward a site as desirable as the Columbus Park site.

CONGRATULATES MAYOR ON STREET DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM AS CARRIED OUT.

Mayor Nichols on November 10 received a letter from Ellerton J. Brehaut, Manager of the Civic Bureau of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, congratulating him on the accomplishments of the year in the street development program. The letter reads as follows:

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—We appreciate your kindness in inviting Mr. F. I. Cooper, a representative of the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs, to tour the city last week on an inspection of paved streets. He has reported to us that he was pleasantly surprised at the magnitude of the work and, so far as he could gather, how well it was done. He believes that the administration should be congratulated on the accomplishments for the year.

The improvement of city streets is a matter of considerable interest to us. Of particular importance at the present moment is the projected widening of Nashua street, which we understand is before your Honor or will soon be presented. The Chamber supported the legislative bill which would authorize the city to proceed on this project and it was represented before the Board of Street Commissioners at the official hearing. We believe that there is an immediate necessity for the construction of this street in order to relieve traffic conditions and to develop the district. We sincerely hope that our position on the matter will commend itself to you.

Yours very truly,

ELLERTON J. BREHAUT,
Manager, Civic Bureau.

7. Commanding officers are to take notice that it is of the greatest importance, also, that the patrolmen herein detailed report at the polling places in the various precincts promptly according to schedule.

Failure for any reason of an officer to be on hand at a polling place at the appointed time delays the sergeant in the motor vehicle in his delivery of the ballot boxes, ballots, etc., and interferes, as is plainly seen, with the balance of the delivery schedule.

8. This detail of patrolmen at the various precincts will continue until the ballots are counted and the results declared. The officers are then to bring the ballots and returns to the Election Commissioners' office.

9. Cards with the ward and precinct number and location of voting booth printed thereon have been forwarded to the several police divisions, on which the division commander will write the name, the division number, and the number of the officer detailed at the time stated on the morning of November 8, at the voting booth of each respective precinct on his division. This card, to be given to the officer so detailed at the voting booth, will be retained in his possession until delivered by him to an employee of the Board of Election Commissioners, who will arrive accompanying a sergeant on motor vehicle from the Election Commissioners' office on the morning of November 8, with ballot boxes, ballots, etc., as hereinbefore stated. This card, when returned by such employee to the office of the Election Commissioners, will be its receipt that the ballot boxes, ballots, etc., have arrived at their proper destination.

10. On receipt by the patrolman from the sergeant, detailed on motor vehicle, as herein provided, of registering ballot box, ballots, voting lists and such other documents as may have been received from the Election Commissioners, the patrolman detailed at polling place will deliver same to the warden or clerk of the precinct, allowing no person to take or handle them before such delivery, and hand the key of the registering ballot box to the warden. On delivery of the ballots to the warden, the patrolman will take from him a receipt for the same, which receipt will be returned to the Election Commissioners.

11. After the warden has opened the box and allowed the election officers and the public to see that it is empty, the box is to be again locked and the key given to the patrolman who is to retain it until after the polls have closed, except that, at the request of the warden, the patrolman may allow him to open the box for the purpose of pressing down the ballots, in order to make room for more ballots, after which the patrolman will see that the box is again locked, and the key returned to the police officer.

12. The patrolman will obtain from the warden copies of poster, which will be sent to the latter, in relation to smoking and the use of liquor in polling places, and post same in conspicuous places where they may be easily read. Tacks will be sent for the purpose.

13. The warden will deliver to the patrolman detailed at the polling place for his use at that place a copy of the descriptive voting list, which must be returned to the warden at the close of the polls.

14. When the polls are opened, the patrolman will mark in the place indicated on the tag attached to the key the figures which the register shows before any ballots are cast.

15. At 8 p. m. Tuesday, November 8, when the polls close, one sergeant will report in each of the 22 wards (excepting Ward 1, East Boston, for which two sergeants and two motor trucks are provided), to meet motor vehicle at last point of morning distribution; thence to proceed to each of the several precincts in his respective ward, and receive registering ballot box (which must be locked) and key thereof, voting lists envelope, signed by the warden and other election officers, receipts for ballots, unused ballot envelope (containing unused and spoiled ballots), stamps for marking spoiled ballots, receipts for ballots and check lists, carry them to the Election Commissioners' office and deliver same to some member of the Board of Election Commissioners.

16. When the polls are closed, the patrolman will mark on the same tag the figures which the register shows after all ballots have been cast. He will then hand the key to the warden, who will open the box and take out all the ballots to be sorted and counted. The warden will then cause the voting lists, including the list used by the police officer, to be sealed up in an envelope and the envelope certified by the signatures of himself and the other election officers and the same returned to the Election Commissioners, as described in section 15 of this order. The patrolman will not allow this envelope to be put into the ballot box. The sergeant who will report on motor vehicle, will keep it about his person until delivery at the office of the Election Commissioners. The unused and spoiled ballots are then to be put in the envelope for unused ballots, and the envelope sealed and certified.

17. When returning from polls, all motor vehicles must drive to the easterly side of City Hall Annex, Court square, where ballot boxes will be conveyed by chute to the basement.

18. It is important that the patrolman sees that the voting lists envelope is signed by the warden, clerk and all the inspectors. The patrolman will also see that the special book for signatures of voters is returned in the registering ballot box.

19. In case a patrolman is detailed to relieve another after the close of the polls the commanding officer will see that he is properly instructed as to the duty of bringing the official returns, the box of ballots cast, and the press return to the Election Commissioners' office as soon as they are delivered to him by the election officers.

20. When the ballots have all been counted, the ballots thus counted, tally sheets and nothing else, shall be placed by the warden in the leatheroid box for that purpose, which must be sealed up and signed by all the election officers. The patrolman will particularly see that this box is properly sealed up and that all the election officers have signed their names to the certificate on the box. The patrolman will then bring the box, official return, record book, press return, and stamps for marking defective ballots to the City Hall Annex, Court square, and deliver same to the Election Commissioners. The patrolman is directed not to allow the official return or record book to be placed in the leatheroid box.

21. While the polls remain open, an officer of rank will visit the polling places in each division at stated intervals, to be designated by the Captain, and in case of any disturbance will report the fact to the commanding officer of the station house without delay. If additional men are needed beyond the number available in that division, the officer in charge will communicate immediately with headquarters.

22. Attention is called to the fact that the polls at the city election on Tuesday, November 8, shall open at 6 o'clock a. m., and close at 8 o'clock p. m.

23. Commanding officers of divisions will see that the officers detailed for duty on City Election Day are furnished with a copy of the circular issued by the Board of Election Commissioners, entitled: "Instructions to Police Officers on Election Days."

24. The counting of ballots will be done on one table only, with two inspectors counting and two inspectors watching the count.

NOTES.

1. Attention is again called to the last paragraph of the circular "Instructions to Police Officers on Election Days," which reads: "The police officer is directed not to allow the official return or record book to be placed in the leatheroid box."

At the state election held in this city on November 2, 1926, notwithstanding instructions on this point, the Board of Election Commissioners report that in six or seven instances, at least, the official return and record book were placed in with the ballots.

That there may be no further repetition of this occurrence in any of the precincts of this city at the coming election, it is thought advisable that the officer of rank who will visit the polling places in each division (provided for in section 21 of this order), shall at an appropriate time, call to the attention of the police officer and of the warden on duty at the polls, that the official return and record book are not to be placed in the leatheroid box.

The officer going to the office of the Board of Election Commissioners with the leatheroid box, after the counting of the ballots, will take with him, in a separate package, the official return and record book, which he will safely deliver to the Election Commissioners with the leatheroid box, as provided in Section 20 of this order.

2. Refreshments consisting of coffee and sandwiches will be provided by the Board of Election Commissioners at its office, for the officers detailed to report at that place on the morning of November 8.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

MAYOR OFFERS BOSTON'S ASSISTANCE TO FLOOD SUFFERERS.

Mayor Nichols, on November 5, made the following announcement regarding the flood sufferers in New England:

I have been in close touch with the Executive Committee of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter of the American Red Cross, whose chairman is Mr. A. C. Ratskesky, and have notified the committee that the City of Boston stands ready in every way to be of assistance to the flood sufferers in Massachusetts and throughout New England.

I am informed by Mr. Ratskesky that the committee has been in conference with John Barton Payne, chairman of the Central Committee at Washington, who states that the National Organization is prepared from its sustaining fund to meet the need growing out of the floods.

I have been requested to say, however, that the Red Cross or any of its chapters would be glad to receive such contributions as are tendered by those who may desire to have direct participation in the New England relief work, and have such contributions added to present available funds.

This great disaster emphasizes the importance of the Red Cross work and the opportunity to enroll in its membership when the annual roll call begins on November 11.

CITY CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chapter 448, Statute 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chapter 266, Statute 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chapter 486, Statute 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayors power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission, and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chapter 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in section 26. (2) Chapter 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in section 32; changing the requirement as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in section 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to section 54. (3) Chapter 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chapter 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor, and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chapter 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chapter 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chapter 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from November 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from January 1 to December 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years. (8) Chapter 136, Acts of 1925, increasing the number of signatures of registered voters required to nominate a candidate for election to the City Council. (9) Chapter 105, Acts of 1926, relative to nominations for municipal elective offices.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on November 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

The first chartered colony in New England, charter granted by Charles I on March 4, 1629. About a year before, a patent had been granted to six prominent men of Dorchester, west of England, among whom was Capt. John Endicott. He sailed in June, 1628, with a party of 50 or 60 persons, arriving in September and settling at Naumkeag, afterward named Salem. In the spring of 1629, the Bay Company fitted out three ships conveying about 400 persons and arriving at Salem in June. Endicott sent a small party to effect a settlement on the Bay in Mishawum, afterward named by the settlers Charlestown, the first town in New England to assume the town policy, Plymouth and Salem being governed by a Governor and Council. Endicott was appointed in London as the first resident Governor on April 20, 1629. The Massachusetts Bay Company was reorganized in London on October 20, 1629, when John Winthrop was chosen as Governor. He arrived at Salem on June 12, 1630, soon proceeded to Charlestown with a large following and finding that place unsuitable, finally settled in Boston. Winthrop served 13 years as Governor in four different periods ending in 1649 and Endicott 15 years at various times ending in 1665. Other governors were Thomas Dudley, Richard Bellingham, John Haynes, Henry Vane, John Leverett and Simon Bradstreet, the latter serving 12 years until 1692 when the Bay Colony and the Plymouth Colony were merged, becoming the Royal Province of Massachusetts Bay, which existed 82 years to 1774, the governors being appointed by the King.

The name, Massachusetts, is Indian and signifies "near the big hills."

MUNICIPAL YEAR.

From 1926 the municipal year begins on the first Monday in January. This change is in accordance with the City Charter amendments of 1924.

BOSTON YEAR BOOK, 1924-25 (2nd YEAR).

This is the most comprehensive book thus far issued relating to the public interests and activities of today in New England's metropolis. Special articles and statistics on metropolitan Boston follow the extensive and varied output devoted to municipal Boston, illustrations and diagrams being an attractive feature. Compiled and edited by Statistics Department, 73-76 City Hall.

AREA TO WARD LINES.

Total, 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,436 acres flats. Land area only, 28,019 acres (i. e., 43.78 square miles). Included in the latter are 160 acres of filled flats recently added to the land area of South Boston and 175 acres to that of East Boston.

Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (364 square miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 square miles).

If Boston should expand by annexation as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the 39 cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would exceed the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

PROPOSED RIVERWAY IMPROVEMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 31, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under date of September 26, 1927, I submitted to your honorable body an order providing among other things for the appropriation of $7,500 from the income of the Parkman Fund for Riverway Improvements. This order was subsequently approved by your body and the money is now available for the desired improvements. It develops, however, after the opening of the bids for the proposed work, that the sum available is insufficient and that an additional sum of $4,000 is required in order to award the necessary contract. I submit herewith an order providing for this additional amount and in view of the urgency of completing the work before the cold weather sets in, I respectfully recommend its immediate consideration by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $1,000 be and the same hereby is appropriated from the income of the Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commission, for the maintenance and improvement of the Common and parks in existence, on January 12, 1887, as follows:
Riverway Improvements, $4,000.

City of Boston,
Park Department, October 25, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—You are respectfully asked to make a request upon the City Council for the transfer of the sum of $4,000 from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund to the special appropriation, "Riverway Improvements."

The reason for this request is that advertised proposals were publicly opened and read at this office on October 21, 1927, for widening Riverway road, between Fenway and Longwood avenue, and the lowest bid submitted for this work was the estimated sum of $10,572. As the total appropriation for Riverway Improvements is only $7,500, it is necessary that the additional sum of $4,000 be appropriated to make the necessary improvements in the Riverway in order that this work may be completed before the cold weather.

I would respectfully ask that this appropriation be made as soon as possible.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

Referred, on motion of Coun. GUILD, to the Executive Committee.

RUBBISH IN WARDS 8 AND 10.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 21, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner of Public Works, in answer to your orders of October 3, 1927, relative to the removal of all rubbish and debris from the streets of Ward 10, and the removal of all garbage and ashes from the streets of Ward 8.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.
Placed on file.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
October 17, 1927.

To the Honorable the Mayor.

I return herewith attached two orders of the City Council relative to the removal of all rubbish and debris from the streets of Ward 10, and the removal of all garbage and ashes from the streets of Ward 8.

Replying to the order relative to Ward 8, would say that the garbage and ashes are collected regularly in this district, and I cannot find any reason for the passage of any such order.

As to the removal of all rubbish and debris from Ward 10, would state that all the smooth and granite block pavements in this ward are cleaned twice a week and the most of the dirt streets at least once a week. I believe that this section is taken care of in a proper and efficient manner.

Respectfully,
J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

ADJUSTMENT OF SANATORIUM BUDGET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 24, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the president of the City Hospital Trustees relative to an adjustment which is necessary within the personal service item of the budget of the Sanatorium Division of the hospital. The facts in the matter are clearly stated in the accompanying letter, hence, I recommend adoption of the accompanying transfer order.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893, the City Auditor be and hereby is authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Health Department, A-1, Permanent Employees, Laryngologist, 1 at $1,200 per year, $900, to the appropriation for Hospital Department, Sanatorium Division, A-1, Permanent Employees, Laryngologist, Visiting, 1 at $1,200 per year, $900.

City of Boston,
Hospital Department (Sanatorium Division),
October 14, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.
Dear Sir,—On October 1, 1926, Dr. Charles Shay, visiting laryngologist of the Boston Sanatorium Department, was granted a leave of absence with pay, on account of illness. While serving the Boston Sanatorium Department, Doctor Shay gave one day at the Sanatorium and one day at its Out-Patient Department. As his name had always appeared on the Out-Patient Department roll, his salary appropriation from April 1, 1927, through December 31, 1927, was transferred to the Health Department.

The matter of an extension of time for Doctor Shay was brought to the attention of the Boston City Hospital Trustees, and this extension was approved by you through September 30, 1927, with salary. While Doctor Shay's position was placed under the jurisdiction of the Health Department, we now find that his services will be rendered at the Sanatorium Division. In view of the fact that Doctor Shay was informed by the Board that his leave of absence was with salary through September 30, 1927, the Board feels morally bound to adjust this matter in Doctor Shay's behalf.

It was voted at the Board meeting held on October 7, 1927, that after January 1, 1928, the position of assistant laryngologist at the Sanatorium Division, carrying a salary of $600 per year, be abolished, and that Doctor Shay, as visiting laryngologist, would serve two days at the sanatorium for his present salary.

The appropriation allotted to the Sanatorium Division will be adequate enough, through savings on salaries to date, to meet this $900 expenditure necessary to cover Doctor Shay's salary, and following the instructions of the Board, I respectfully request your approval to the re-establishment of the position of visiting laryngologist at the sanatorium for the year 1927, with a salary of $1,200, present incumbent Dr. Charles E. Shay.

Very respectfully yours,
JOSEPH P. MANNING,
President Boston City Hospital Trustees.
Referred to the Executive Committee.

PARK LAND, ROXBURY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 25, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the chairman of the Park Department, in answer to your order of October 17, 1927, relative to the purchase of a piece of land at the junction of Fairland, Moreland and Winthrop streets, Roxbury, to be used for park purposes.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, October 24, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of October 20, with inclosure, order from the City Council that the Park Department be requested to make provisions in the budget for the purchase of a piece of land at the junction of Fairland, Moreland and Winthrop streets, Roxbury, to be used for park purposes.

In reply I desire to say that this money cannot be provided for in the budget—it only provides for expenditures for maintenance. This being a purchase of land, will necessarily have to be provided for in a loan order.

The question of this purchase of land has been considered by the Board a number of times, but no action has been taken as the Board believes it is more advisable to expend such money as may be available for the improvement of the playgrounds now in existence.

At a later date, when the purchase of playgrounds in various sections of the city is to be considered, this piece of land might be included in the list, as the City Planning Board has stated that this particular parcel of land offers unusual opportunity to secure for the children of the district a little park of rare natural beauty in a location where it would meet a distinct need.

Very respectfully yours,
W. P. LONG, Chairman.

RESURFACING RIVER STREET.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner of Public Works, in answer to your order of September 26, 1927, relative to the resurfacing of River street, Ward 17.

Respectfully yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, October 17, 1927.
To the Honorable the Mayor.

I return herewith order of City Council requesting the Commissioner of Public Works to resurface River street, Ward 17.

River street, between Mattapan square and Dorchester Lower Mills, is approximately 7,015 feet long, traversed by a double track which is in a very unsatisfactory condition.

Discussing this condition with the Boston Elevated Railway officials, stating our desire to improve the roadway and asking their co-operation on the track repairs, we are met with a request for delay inasmuch as the Railway Company, has in mind the discontinuing of the track location in River street.

As it is not possible to resurface the roadway with the tracks in their present condition the department forces will make the necessary repairs and keep the roadway in as satisfactory a condition as possible.

Respectfully,

J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

COST OF CONNECTING ST. ANN STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, October 25, 1927.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner of Public Works, in reply to your order of September 26, 1927, relative to the cost of connecting St. Ann street with Washington street under the West Roxbury branch of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad in Ward 19.

Respectfully yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,

Public Works Department,
October 19, 1927.

To the Honorable the Mayor.

Relative to an order of the City Council dated September 26, 1927 requesting the cost of connecting St. Ann street with Washington street, under the West Roxbury Branch of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad in Ward 19.

The estimated cost of this project is $475,000. It calls for a very extensive and difficult construction and will, in all probability, meet with opposition from the railroad company.

The proposed construction requires the building of heavy retaining walls to support the railroad embankment. Furthermore, we are given to understand that this section is underlaid with a stratum of quicksand which might prove disastrous to the tracks as excavation for the walls proceeded.

It does not appear that the benefit to be gained would warrant so difficult and expensive a proposition.

Respectfully,

J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

The proposed plan of this extension under the Providence Railroad, while it shows only twelve feet headroom to roadway, is three feet below flood line in Stony Brook conduit which means that, in flood times, the proposed street would be three feet under water.

A QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

Chairman DOWLING—The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President and members of the Council, about a year and ten months ago we were elected members of the Boston City Council to serve our city and our respective districts. I think, when I say that I have no apologies to make for the service I have rendered, not only to my city and my district but to my colleagues, I am voicing the same sentiment that I would if I were asked to express my views as to each and every man with whom I have come in contact here during my term of office as a city councilor. When I was elected from my district I had clearly in mind the purpose of serving my city and of interesting myself in my district. As a result of my desire to serve my district as well as my city, I have had presented to me, as it has been presented to my fellow members, for two years, the annual budget as submitted through his Honor the Mayor by the heads of our city departments, and I, sitting here as one of the twenty-two members of the City Council, was compelled, as a part of the duties of this body, to help in fixing the amount of expenditures that might be made by his Honor the Mayor through the heads of the city departments annually. Forgetting for the moment the budget of 1926, which did not cause, in my opinion, any particular furore or dissatisfaction, we come to the budget of 1927, which was admirably handled and considered by the Appropriations Committee, of which our good colleague Henry Parkman is the chairman. For a number of weeks he and his committee sat in this very chamber with the representatives of the Finance Commission, consulting the heads of the different departments, with the suggestions of the Finance Commission, in order to be able to make for the committee a fair, honest and reasonable report. Although I was not a member of the Committee on Appropriations, Mr. Parkman will bear me out when I say that I was as diligent in attending the meetings of the committee during its sessions as was any member of the Boston City Council, and I tried to familiarize myself with the matters that came up so that when I was obliged to vote on the budget I could do so with the proper amount of intelligence. When the budget was first submitted by his Honor the Mayor over two and one half million dollars of the sum originally under consideration was cut by the Mayor from the department head estimates. When the tax limit was fixed at the State House, because of the 50-cent reduction, 50-cent reduction there from the amount advocated by his Honor the Mayor, the Mayor was compelled to reduce his estimate by $685,000. In spite of those reductions from the original estimate of over $3,000,000, the Finance Commission spent hundreds of dollars in elaborating upon the situation from their point of view, in a book of probably one hundred fifty to two hundred pages, in which they advocated a further reduction of several million dollars. The Appropriations Committee sat and did not accept—with very little exception—a single item of the cuts advocated by the Finance Commission of Boston; and after our Appropriations Committee sat they brought in a report suggesting a further cut of $232,000 in a budget estimate of $44,000,000. That would have meant, if the entire amount of $232,000 was saved, a saving to the taxpayers of Boston of 13 cents on a thousand dollars, and might have necessitated the bringing back later of that $232,000 in the form of a supplementary budget or loan order to take care of some of the amounts advised to be cut. The proposed cuts ran from five dollars to several hundred dollars, and there was an amount of $5,000, if I remember correctly, in the Health Department, although Doctor Mahoney, the Health Commissioner, for whom I have the highest respect and regard, said, "Gentlemen, if you take this $5,000 now, you will have to give it back to me in November in the form of a supplementary budget, because we will need it." Then, there was $5,000 cut from emergency snow removal, the committee imagining that we could anticipate in March the fact that there would not be a snowfall in the following December. That was the kind of cut that was asked to be made. I made a speech at that time, which I am not going to stop to read here, but which can be found in the Council records of May 16, 1927, on page 195, in which I called attention to the fact that the budget, as sent to us by his Honor the Mayor, was planned with a view to giving the city departments a proper amount of money to expend for the carrying out of their work. Therefore, I voted for that budget as submitted, and I here and now make no apology to anybody, be it the Good Government Association, the Finance Commission or any organization in Boston, for my vote on the budget of 1927. But, behold, some of us, seeking a reelection to this Council because of our desire to serve our district again, are summoned to appear before the Good Government Association of Boston, at 44 School street. I appeared at the office of that association and was met at the door by a man who introduced himself to me as a Mr. Oliver, coming from parts unknown into the City of Boston to study the capabilities and qualifications of candidates for office in Boston, he not even being a resident. Still, he passes holy, saintly judgment on the question of who is best qualified to sit in the City Council of Boston. I was asked to present my case to him. Then I was called in before a committee of nine, I think, who sat around in that sanctum sanctorum, a gentleman whom I did not know acting as chairman, and I was asked why I voted against the budget as reported by the committee, and not against the budget as submitted by the Mayor. I told them that I voted for the budget as submitted by the Mayor because I had given the matter as much attention as any man in Boston and because I felt that the budget was a just one. Then the question was asked of me by one of the lady members of that body, "Why did you vote in favor of the $750,000 central fire station in Bowdoin square?" I smiled and said, "Who gave you the information that I did so?" The reply was, "One of your opponents was just here and said he could prove that you voted for the $750,000 for a central fire station." That was the man whom they now indorse, because they told me that he preceded me. Then I said to Mr. Oliver, the secretary of the Good Government Association, "If you will refer to the records of the Boston City Council you will find that I voted not only against that measure, but I spoke against it, saying that I would never vote for it until the owners of the property accepted $100,000 less." Then everybody got busy and brought out the records. I simply bring that up to show the caliber of the men there and the methods that are used today in indorsements of candidates. Simply because someone was fortunate enough there to get ahead of the next fellow, he could fill them up with all kinds of falsehoods and they would fall for it. Those are the people who are going through the districts of Boston today and trying to tell intelligent constituencies who should and who should not represent them in the City Council. I am now going to read, with your permission, Mr. President, an article in the Boston Review of Saturday, October 15, 1927. This is the article that appears:

"I am told that at least one of the candidates for the City Council in Dorchester is a violent Red and that, if elected, he will take measures to do something for the cause he represents. I don't know what he will do, but it may be that he knows. Sometimes the Reds are not quite certain what they want, but they are certain that they want something different from what other people want and are satisfied with. So far as I can recall it, there has never been an Anarchist in the City Council, and perhaps the election of one might furnish an interesting object lesson. Now and then a City Hall reporter has used an expression like this:

"Councilman Blank threw a bombshell into the session by offering an order that hereafter all heads of departments walk or run to and from their places of employment."

"With an Anarchist in the membership, the word 'bomb' would not be lightly used. Throwing a bomb would mean something more than offering a joke order. However, they tell me that the voters in the ward where this Anarchist lives are not at all inclined to anarchy. It happens that they own their own homes to a large extent, and as soon as a man begins to own real estate he ceases to preach fire and brimstone as a remedy for political wrong."

That is a paper that was sent to me in October. The editor of the Boston Review may be able to throw some light, for the benefit of the Good Government Association, on the question of who was the author of that article. I do not know. After I had appeared before the Good Government Association I was told informally later that I had made a favorable impression in the matter of my position on the budget; and I now want to read to you, with your permission, Mr. President, what the Good Government Association says today in regard to the man it has indorsed in Ward 14:

"In our opinion he stands out among the candidates in this ward for force"—I agree with them in that—"independence and ability. We believe he would be a valuable member of the Council."

I have been told, Mr. President, that they were sitting in conference behind closed doors deciding whether to indorse one of two men, so that there might be some force in this Council. They were thinking of another gentleman in another ward in Boston, and they were deciding whether to indorse one or the other, and they picked the man from Ward 14. I want to say that the Good Government Association might now be called "Government Gone Anarchistic," because they had the opportunity to investigate my record in this body and failed to do so. Because I had the courage to vote for the budget is the excuse that is given why Ruby has not been a fit councilor, has not represented his district properly, has not done what they would like to have had him do. I might say that I could have had the Good Government indorsement if I wanted to make certain promises that went against my grain, but I had the courage of my convictions and felt that I was chosen by the people of my district to represent them here, and not by a private group of interested people. And I now, Mr. President, ask Ahigail Homans, I ask Eliot N. Jones, I ask William Minot, I ask Charles J. Nichols, I ask George R. Nutter, I ask Abraham E. Pinanski, I ask Hilda H. Quirk, I ask Robert B. Stone, the members of the Executive Committee of the Good Government Association, and I ask little insignificant Peter Oliver, the man from parts unknown, to whom I had to show certain pages in the City Record because he could not find them, what relationship, what acquaintanceship or what personal affection there is between them and Mrs. Glendower Evans? And let them dare answer that question as openly as they have given to the press of Boston these so-called indorsements, in this case indorsing a man because of his "force." I wonder what kind of force they mean! Do they mean the true American democratic force, or do they mean the force that this country for hundreds of years has tried to forestall and throw down? Do they mean the kind of force that is anarchistic and communistic in its character, or the force that will best serve the citizenry of Boston? I ask them through the press to answer that question. While I feel that I have already taken more of your time than I should, there are some things that I want to get off my chest, and I am going to quote the statement which is being given out to the press by his Honor Mayor Nichols of Boston:

"While the Sacco-Vanzetti case was before his Excellency the Governor, only a few weeks ago, Communists flocked to Boston from every Red corner in the world. They came with thoughts of force and violence in their hearts to defeat the orderly process of Massachusetts laws. Their impudence landed them in the police court, where their champion appeared." And this champion is the man who has been indorsed as the best man to serve the citizens of Ward 14 in the Boston City Council. "His devotion to his Red clients is promptly followed by a coveted recognition given at the first opportunity presented through the favor of the Good Government Association, which recommends that he now represent the people of Boston in their City Council. In the Red press he is hailed as a comrade. His election would delight every hater of American institutions. In the name of Good Government, what is it that Boston voters are being asked to do?"

That will appear, if I am correctly informed, in every newspaper in Boston. It comes from his Honor the Mayor, in a statement he has given out. If they had accused Ruby of graft, if they had accused me of being a misrepresentative of my district in the City Council, and stopped there, they would have stepped on no one's toes; but they say distinctly that they indorse my opponent because I voted against the budget, and they say nothing else against me. For that reason, Mr. President, I feel that a statement should be made. I make no apologies for what I have done for my district. I believe my district has received in the last two years its proportionate share of improvement. Prior to my election here I made certain statements as to plans I hoped to carry out. Every promise I made to the people of my district has been carried out, and I feel that next Tuesday they will indorse what I have done, in spite of the Good Government Association's indorsement of the other man, because undue attention is not paid by the people of my district to indorsements of candidates by organizations who know nothing of Dorchester men or of Dorchester conditions. In conclusion, I want to apologize for having taken all this time but I extend an invitation to that Mr. Oliver from parts unknown to visit Ward 14, and if he does not know where it is my car is at his disposal and I will take him through the ward and show him the improvements that have been received there. (Applause.)

Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman DOWLING—If there is no objection, the councilor will proceed.

Coun. DONOVAN—I want to thank the Good Government Association for not indorsing me, and thereby securing my election. (Laughter.) During my six years of public life I have never visited the Good Government Association for anything, and I am surprised that my colleague from Dorchester ever honored that organization by calling upon them. The seven men who are attempting to arouse this defunct organization, under the guise of good government, are interested in every land graft, rent gouging and street widening scheme in the City of Boston. What their opinion is is not important to the voters of this city. I say this—and it is not an idle boast, and I say it to the Good Government Association, and without any egotism—that I have procured more for my district than has been procured by any other member of the Council. And yet, they do not indorse me. I don't want their indorsement, I do not seek it, because in the last fifty years in East Boston, ever since the inception of the Good Government Association, its opinions have never had any material effect on the voters of my district. It has been a known fact for years that that association does not indorse you on account of your accomplishments, but rather on account of your supposedly social standing. And so I say to my colleague from Dorchester that he should allay his fears because of what they may think of him. Their idea of him has no bearing whatever on the opinion of the voters of the district.

LOAN FOR MUNICIPAL STADIUM.

Coun. GREEN, for the Committee on Finance, submitted the following:

Report on order (submitted by the Mayor and referred October 17— that the sum of $250,000 be appropriated, to be expended under the direction of Park Commission for the erection of a municipal stadium,—that the same ought to pass.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, on the last occasion when an order was presented for the erection of a stadium I opposed it, and I believe the same reasons that underlie the present order actuated the order which was presented at that time. Although the order in terms does not specifically so provide, it seems upon investigation that the idea behind it is to have a place for spectacles, schoolboy contests. No one understands better than I do the place that athletics have in the curricula of the schools of this country. They are justified by reason of the mental and moral training that they give to the participants in athletics, over and above the physical benefits. That is what justifies athletics in the schools and colleges. It seems to me that if they are justified in that way, the cost of maintaining athletics in the schools of this city should be met in the same way that the cost of any other part of the school curricula is met. It is suggested that the fees charged for admission to a schoolboy stadium would not only pay for the stadium but would pay for the maintenance of athletics in the schools. In my opinion that is wrong. Athletics in the schools are justified and thoroughly so, and being justified and thoroughly so the expense should be met in the same way that the expense of teaching French, geography, arithmetic or any other branch of study taught in the schools is met, out of the public tax levy. There is no justification whatever in the public schools of the city for putting it on the basis of a Shubert enterprise, in competition with other professional amusements, the American or National Leagues, Tex Rickard's activities, or those of "Cold Cash Pyle," in competition with public sports of that nature, to enjoy which the public expects to pay and must pay. That is not a function of the schools. The function of the schools is to educate, and if athletics play a proper part in that education, as I am convinced they do, I believe they should be a part of the curricula, and paid for out of the tax levy as such. But entertainment and excitement of a large body of spectators, sitting in the stands, people who have paid an admission fee for the purpose of being entertained and excited, is to my mind no proper part of a school system. And so an order of this sort, it seems to me, should originate with those who control the policies of the public schools, with the School Committee, instead of with the Mayor and City Council. Since the order has been presented to this body, however, I feel constrained to express my opinion upon the subject, and my opinion, in brief and boiled right down to lowest terms, is this: that it is the height of folly in the schools to depend upon admission fees for maintaining a branch of the educational system which ought to be maintained, like any other branch, out of the tax levy. It will be said in reply to me, I have no doubt, that the order does not specify in terms that the purpose of the municipal stadium is altogether to provide a place for schoolboy athletic sports. That is quite true, but if the order is analyzed carefully and the source from which it has come scrutinized, it will be seen quite clearly that that is what underlies it. If it be suggested that this is to afford a place for congregating people together for other purposes, it would be a much better proposition, it seems to me, to congregate them under a roof in a large auditorium, where they can hear what is being said by speakers and have shelter from the elements, than to expect them to congregate for any such purpose in a stadium. A close scrutiny of the order reveals clearly what underlies the proposition, and my own attitude is that it is folly for the City of Boston to go into a thing of this sort, because it leaves out of sight entirely the one reason that justifies athletic sports in the schools. I am a graduate of Harvard College, and I have not the least hesitation in saying to you, Mr. President and members of the body, that I consider the Harvard Stadium a piece of folly. That was the start of the over-emphasis of athletics, with its business side, that we see in the colleges today. If there were a charge of 25 cents for admission to a football game, how many people would go out there of a Saturday afternoon to see a 25-cent game? And yet the only thing that justifies Harvard College in athletics is the effect that they have on the students. Ostensibly Harvard College is not catering to a vast public which wishes to be entertained and excited. Presumably it is educating the youth of the land, and the only educational value which athletics afford to the youth of the land is to those who participate in them. They are utterly without value to those who go and look on, from the standpoint of the real purpose of the college. No provision whatever should be made by educational institutions for spectators. If they desire to go and look on, as they would go to an astronomical observatory for purposes of observation, well and good. But athletics in the colleges should be maintained in the same way that an astronomical observatory is maintained. Out of the same moneys should come the cost of each. If one is defrayed through tuition fees, let the other be so defrayed; if one is defrayed from the tax levy, let the other be so defrayed. Athletics in the Boston schools should not be dependent upon the admission fees that are charged at the gate, and Boston should not cater to entertaining and exciting vast multitudes of people in any such way.

Coun. McMAHON—Mr. President, I move you, sir, that this order be referred to the Executive Committee.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

MAYOR SIGNS ORDER FOR WIDENING NASHUA AND CAUSEWAY STREETS.

Upon signing the order for widening Nashua and Causeway streets the Mayor issued the following statement:

The order voted by the Street Commissioners for the widening of Causeway and Nashua streets and the continuation of Nashua street to the Charles River Dam, which I have approved, means much to the West End, North End and market districts of Boston. It will cost the city about $953,000 and will be a continuation of the recently completed Northern Boulevard which the state constructed from the Charles River Dam to the Wellington Bridge over the Mystic river. The new roadway will be about 3,600 feet long. In front of the North Station it will be 95 feet wide excluding the arcade which the Boston & Maine will establish at its own expense on its side of the street at a width of at least 15 feet. The Nashua street widening will make a roadway 92 feet wide and the cost of the entire street will be a great deal less per linear foot than any of the boulevards ever laid out by the city. It will be possible to connect the new roadway with an overhead street upon the Elevated structure, a bill to authorize which I shall present in the Legislature this year. It will also be possible to extend this overhead street at Albany street and Broadway over the tracks of the Boston & Albany Railroad, making a complete loop from the North Station to Cottage Farm Bridge. A bill to provide for this will also be presented to the Legislature this year with my approval.

It will relieve the terrible congestion that exists between the Charles River Dam and Causeway street and make traffic flow with greater facility from the entire downtown district to points north and west.

This improvement was proposed by Hon. Martin M. Lomasney, to whom I presented the quill with which I approved this order.

The value of this improvement has been recognized by business and trade organizations, and for many months has been subjected to careful study by the Board of Street Commissioners of the city. Its value is well recognized for the aid it will give not only in the reclamation of the business district in the vicinity of the North Station, but for the broad possibility of future development.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 45.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

BOSTON, November 11, 1927.

To Heads of All Departments.

The American Red Cross presents its roll call for 1927. It begins on Armistice Day and will extend until Thanksgiving Day.

In the recognized service rendered to humanity by this great organization it receives no financial support from the Government, but depends upon membership dues.

The Red Cross has been appointed as the recognized agency to do the relief work for the Vermont sufferers, and I know of no more effective way to support their endeavors than to enroll as a member.

I have designated Mr. James A. Parsons of this office to take charge of the roll call among the city employees. He will be prepared, upon request, to supply you with membership blanks, buttons, flags and posters.

I should appreciate it if you would distribute these cards among the employees of your department and when prepared to make a report, submit it to Mr. Parsons.

Very truly yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Dorchester and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Humes road, bounded:

Southerly by Newhall avenue, six and 4-100 feet; westerly by another part of Humes road, two hundred forty-nine and 29-100 feet; northerly by the same, six feet; and easterly by the same, two hundred and fifty feet; containing fourteen hundred and ninety-eight square feet more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 236 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above described premises, being part of the private way known as Humes road, leading northerly from Newhall avenue for a distance of approximately 250 feet.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Humes road, from Ashmont street to Newhall avenue, excluding the lots at the corners of Ashmont street and Humes road and Newhall avenue and Humes road, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered; each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 806, Sewerage Works, Humes Road, Dorchester, October 24, 1927, William J. LAND-TAKING IN WEST ROXBURY.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly West Roxbury and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Winchester road, bounded: Southeast-erly by Centre street, six and 1-100 feet; southwesterly by another part of Winchester road, seven hundred fifty-six and 53-100 feet; northwesterly by the same, six feet; and northeasterly by the same, seven hundred fifty-six and 92-100 feet, containing forty-five hundred and forty square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 750 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above described premises, being part of the private way known as Winchester road, leading northwesterly from Centre street for a distance of approximately 756 feet.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Winchester road, excluding the lot at the northerly corner of Winchester road and Centre street, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered; each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 808, Sewerage Works, Winchester Road, West Roxbury, October 24, 1927, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 1167.

A trial board consisting of Captains Driscoll, Fitzgerald and Kneeland, having heard by reference a complaint against Patrolman Thomas J. Newcomb of Division 12, charging him with conduct unbecoming an officer, reported to the commissioner a finding of guilty as charged. In accordance with which, the said Patrolman Thomas J. Newcomb was on October 29, 1927, dismissed from the Police Department.

Due written notice of such dismissal with the reasons therefor was duly and specifically given in hand on October 29, 1927, to the said Thomas J. Newcomb.

On the thirty-first day of October, 1927, the said Thomas J. Newcomb.

The said Thomas J. Newcomb was present at said time and place with counsel and was heard with his witnesses. Whereupon, after hearing the case, the Police Commissioner finds the said Thomas J. Newcomb guilty as charged, and further finds that the said Thomas J. Newcomb shall stand dismissed from the Police Department.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,

General Order No. 1168.

The resignation of Patrolman Michael F. Cronin of Division 6 having been presented, it is hereby accepted, to take effect Monday, November 14, 1927, at 5.45 o'clock p. m., seven days' notice waived.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 1169.

Whereas, it appears that Patrolman John F. Farrell of Division 1 has performed faithful service in the Police Department for six and six-twelfths years; and that the physician to the Health Department has certified that the said Patrolman Farrell is physically incapacitated—it is the judgment of the Police Commissioner that the said Patrolman Farrell is permanently physically incapacitated for useful service in the Police Department on account of injuries received in the actual performance of duty as a police officer; therefore, it is Ordered, That with the approval of his Honor the Mayor, the said Patrolman Farrell be retired from active service in the Police Department, under the provisions of chapter 353, Acts of the year 1892, as amended by chapter 6 of the Acts of 1920, and that his name be placed upon the department pension roll with pay at the rate of one thousand (1,000) dollars per annum, said sum being one half of the amount of compensation received by him in the office from which he is retired; to take effect at 7.45 o'clock a. m. Wednesday, November 16, 1927.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

RESOLUTION ON DEATH OF WILLIAM F. MERRITT.

Mr. O'Hare offered the following.

RESOLVED, That the School Committee has learned with sincere regret of the death on October 12, 1927 of William F. Merritt a former member of the School Committee and for many years Associate Justice of the Municipal Court. Born in Belfast, Maine, January 10, 1853, the eldest son of the ninth generation of Merritts descending from Henry Merritt, one of the original settlers in Scituate in 1626, Justice Merritt was graduated from the University of Vermont in 1881. He studied law under Horace G. Hutchins, a well-known legal authority of this city, and was admitted to practice in 1874. In 1881 the law firm of Merritt and Merritt was established and of this firm, William F. Merritt was the senior member. For fifteen years prior to his death, he was Associate Justice of the Dechester Municipal Court.

Justice Merritt was for many years interested in municipal politics and twice was vice-president of the Democratic City Committee. But it was his service as a member of the Boston School Committee that gave him greatest satisfaction. He served continuously on the old Board of twenty-four from 1899 to 1905. He was a member of several of the more important committees of the Board and was chairman of the Committee on New Buildings during the years 1900 and 1901. He believed in the public schools, and he had full appreciation of the Boston teachers. Consequently he was ever ready to lend his support to any measure that promised to be for the good of the schools.

A modest, scholarly gentleman, extremely sympathetic, of kindly manner and gracious personality, he was beloved by the many who were privileged to know him. In his work in the Court, he lent a kindly ear to the poor and the erring. He was keenly interested in the local community where he had made his home for some fifty years.

The School Committee of Boston regrets his death and extends to the brother and sister who survive him its sincere sympathy in the loss of a devoted brother.

Accepted, and ordered spread upon the records of this body, and the Secretary directed to transmit a copy of the resolution to the family of the deceased.

At the Superintendent's request, the Superintendent was included in this public expression of appreciation of Justice Merritt, whom he knew and esteemed for many years.

SUGGESTED NAMES FOR SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Mr. O'Hare asked that at the first opportunity, school-houses be named in memory of William S. Kenny, member of the old Committee of twenty-four in 1905 and of the Committee of five, 1906 and 1907, and of Andrew A. Badinacco, member of the old Committee of twenty-four in 1904 and 1905.

Referred to the Committee on Naming of School Buildings.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The two orders laid over at the meeting of Oct. 3, 1927 (see p. 251), establishing the weekly compensation of three employees in the administrative offices of the Board, were taken up and passed.

On motion of Mr. O'Hare, the Board took up for consideration the following order introduced by him and laid over at the meeting of October 17, 1927, (see p. 267):

ORDERED, That the rules be amended as follows:

Section 16, paragraph 1. Strike out the words "by a majority vote" in the third line, and substitute in place thereof the words—by a four-fifths vote—so that the paragraph will read as follows:

Sect. 16. 1. The sessions of the School Committee shall be open, but the School Committee may at any time, by a four-fifths vote, go into executive session. It shall, however, pass no votes in executive session.

Mr. O'HARE: Mr. Chairman, with regard to the proposition that the time of meeting be 4:30 P. M. instead of 6:30 P. M.—when the Boston public are generally at their evening meal—and the order of business coming before the committee be stated regularly, in accordance with parliamentary procedure, I want to stress the fact that when the order was introduced back in January, I said that the public would probably want to know what we were doing, not only when things were formulated, but also when they were in process of formulation. I am not worried about so-called star chamber proceedings. That does not trouble me a bit. I do, however, want our public to know the way in which we are getting ahead in our meetings, and want to get them interested. All the school committee can do is to react the taxpayers', the public's, the parents' viewpoint, for the best interests of the individual child, studying problems as presented from all possible angles and then reacting as best one can.

In a public body like this, necessarily there are matters brought up which because of lack of time at the public meetings, are not gone into at length when the members assemble in meeting. Sometimes they might be considered of minor, sometimes of major importance. During the five years that I have been on the Board, recalling some things I and others have said and some of the things that have been done, probably not always known to the general public, I have wondered if the public might not be interested to know how zealously some of us have tried, for instance, to see that our Normal School product is assimilated into our own system, and what the result has been in connection with our graduate teacher training schools.

I have also wondered if they would not like to know about the work being done to provide for the reentrance of teachers to the service,—the women who after an experience in teaching in our schools marry, are widowed, and seek then, with their experience as teachers and as mothers, in their widowhood, opportunity to come back. Often they are a distinct and valuable addition to our teaching force because of their all-around experience.

I wonder if the public would not like to know of the intensive work being done in order that the children may get into the courses best fitting them for life's battle?

I wonder if they would not like to know that we are still insisting on intensive English programming from grades one to twelve, and that we do not leave out the three R's, so-called—the fundamental things, reading, writing, oral English, and arithmetic?

I wonder if they would not like to know how the problems of handling the truant and the low grade moron who cannot go even to our special classes, are being cared for?

I wonder if they would not like to know about a matter in which I am especially interested, speaking as an individual,—what is being done and what can be done to meet the need of more protected play space for the children, with the ever-increasing danger from automobiles?

I wonder if they would like to know what we are trying to do along the line of physical training for girls and organized play after school, both in the intermediate and high schools?

I wonder if they would like to know what we are trying to do in the interest of the taxpayers, observing absolute economy but not skimping? As an example of this, I might say that a year ago in this board I asked for the building of high schools out of bond issues, in order that the taxes for those large buildings might be spread over the years of usefulness, rather than taken from the taxpayers' pockets in one grand sweep.

I wonder if they would not like to know that we are reducing the number of children to a class as far as possible, especially in the lower grades, in order to give the children better individual attention and instruction?

I wonder if they would not like to know that in co-operation with our medical department, along the line of mental hygiene, we are taking every precaution in the health program in the way of health safeguards and care of teeth?

I wonder if they know of the city's wide attempt by news items and otherwise, to keep the schools as near abreast of the demands of the population as may be?

This is not an explosion. It is merely a statement of fact. All that an individual member can do is to give his most conscientious reactions to the problem of the greatest good for the individual child. When he has done this, I ask what more is possible?

The open meeting will show how we study individual problems, and before taking a definite stand on some questions, enable us to find out what Boston parents and Boston taxpayers want.

It might interest the public and press to know that at present we have a man who is an expert in education going through our city to try to see how he can help us, looking in from the outside, to keep Boston where she is, in the first place in public school education. This is a preliminary investigation to see what the schools are doing, what we lack, what we may overdo.

We want this sort of thing; we want the public to know what is going on, how their money is being spent and to what purpose. That is why I want public meetings, at a time when the public can be here, with a definite form of procedure, so that they may get the true picture of each member's work and worth, and not a counterfeit picture.

During a time of political agitation, a pre-election period, there are certain things for us to bear in mind that are much more important than elections. I regard the schools of America—parochial, public and private—as one of the greatest securities we have, an absolute guaranty that the citizenship of tomorrow is progressing along right lines. With that in mind, before a vote is taken, I am going to ask certain questions through the chair and through the superintendent and assistant superintendents who are here, merely to have sanity prevail and not have certain statements that have been made publicly in regard to what is going on in our schools, remain unchallenged.

Mr. Burke, I will ask you, through the chair, do you know of any organized attempt being made through the educational authorities here, to federalize the schools?

Superintendent: I do not.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Sullivan, I will ask you, through the chair, as the financial man of our committee, do you know of any place in the funds especially delegated to us by the Legislature, where money can be spent to feed children milk?

Business Manager: No, it is contrary to law.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Burke, I want to ask you, through the chair, are we still teaching the fundamentals in our schools?

Superintendent: We are.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Burke, I want to ask you, through the chair, under the State law, who has the nominating and appointment of teachers in our schools?

Superintendent: The Superintendent.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Burke, I want to ask you, and also the assistant superintendent in charge, do you know of any complaint, or if any complaints have been filed with you or with the secretary of the school committee and the board of superintendents concerning the conduct of the much talked about advisers?

Superintendent: Only reports that are very favorable.

Mr. O'Hare: Miss Mellyn, I want to ask you, the assistant superintendent in charge of advisers during the month or more that these persons have been in our employ, have you heard any complaints—that these women are bringing into our school curricula anything concerning sex questions or birth control, or are attempting replacement of motherhood duty?

Miss Mellyn: I have not.

Mr. O'Hare: There has been criticism that we have instruction in harmonica playing in our schools. I will ask you, Mr. Burke, through the chair, if there is harmonica instruction that is paid for by the Board, in any of our schools?

Mr. Burke: There is not.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Downey, as assistant superintendent in charge, can you tell us whether there is such a paid position as that of instructor in harmonica playing in our schools?

Mr. Downey: I think there is a club in the Dorchester Evening Center organized for harmonica playing, a group of adult men.

Mr. O'Hare: One school.

Chairman: The payment of the instructor, the necessary expenditure, is met by the club? The individuals contribute to pay the instructor's compensation?

Mr. Downey: So I understand it.

Mr. Sullivan: Mr. Downey, are you sure of that?

Mr. Downey: Mr. Mulroy is my authority for saying that they will pay his compensation.

Mr. Sullivan: Do you know, Mr. Downey, how the club is getting along?

Mr. Downey: No, I haven't seen it.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Chairman, through you, I will ask the Superintendent of the Boston public schools and each one of the Assistant Superintendents severally, if any organization or organizations pointing towards so-called federalization of education or foisting on the schools the work that belongs to parent-hood, has any influence on their decisions in the matter of school policies? Dr. Burke, has any organization or organizations come to you with anything pointing towards federal control of education, or the carrying out of any propaganda or movement against the rights of parents in our great city?

Superintendent: They would not come to me, Mr. O'Hare, because they know my attitude on those problems. I am absolutely opposed to any attempt at federal control of our popular education, and I believe in the rights of parents of individual children. I should repudiate any attempt of that character, to introduce anything of that kind into the public schools.

Mr. O'Hare: Miss Mellyn?

Miss Mellyn: I make up my own judgment on any school policy that comes before me. I know of no organization that has ever appealed to me in any such way, and there is no such organization to which I would listen.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Brodhead?

Mr. Brodhead: My answer would be the same as Miss Mellyn's.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Gould?

Mr. Gould: My answer is the same.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Snow?

Mr. Snow: I agree with what the others have said.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Downey?

Mr. Downey: I agree with the others.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Chairman, I bring the thing up at this time because this is one of the largest gatherings we have had at a meeting, to show that, despite hostility, despite the political talk of candidates to the contrary, the schools of Boston are in sane hands, moving ahead always, with but one thought in view—to give your children and my children the best education possible, not trying in any way to infringe on the right of the child or the right of the parent. I want to say here publicly that I agree with the statements made recently by Professor Bagley, that Massachusetts is still first in public school education, and further, that Boston is part of Massachusetts and the leader of the cities of Massachusetts in public school education.

It matters not to me, and on those questions I will accept the will of the board here, at what hour we say public meetings shall be held, whether 4.30 P. M. shall be the time to have those meetings, or whether the order of business I have submitted is the proper order. But the fundamental thought I want to make clear in connection with these three orders is this. We are not trying to keep the public uninformed in regard to our policy. But when an issue arises upon which was simply a disagreement among the four members present as to the policy to be pursued, and then the whole educational system is vitally attacked, that is something that is more important than the mere matter of election of candidates. It is the assailing of a great national institution, our public schools, and that is why I bring this matter up tonight,—not as an eleventh hour political challenge, but merely to try to get the public to understand that the education of their children is in sane hands.

It matters little to me, Mr. Chairman, whether these questions are taken up for discussion and action tonight, or whether the members want to think them over more thoroughly before taking their stand. But remember this, that in January I said that the thing that I wanted to get was the public reaction to matters in process of formulation. If we had adopted that policy, and if later Dr. Burke had presented a formula for advisers, we could have got the public reactions before the introduction to the schools of such a wonderful thing as I believe this to be. Others disagree with me. What I want to get at is this: If we take action which will allow the public to know more of what we are trying to do, we will get better co-operation, better understanding, and much less misunderstanding and garbling.

Chairman: What is the pleasure of the Board in regard to this item of unfinished business? Shall we take it up tonight?

Mr. O'Hare: If the members want to take more time on it, all right.

Mr. Sullivan: Mr. Chairman, I would like to see the order in regard to public meetings voted on tonight.

I think each one knows his particular attitude on that matter.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Chairman, the question there is this, and I have talked with several members in regard to it. The old procedure provides for majority vote. I ask for a four-fifths vote, for this reason. On matters of budget, for instance, two members at the present time are helpless if the others desire to hold an executive meeting. I ask a four-fifths vote, simply so that a minority of two, in the full board meeting, may prevent the meeting from going into executive session.

I don't want the public to have any suspicious ideas of us. Remember, I am accusing no one. I am not saying that any member here would wish star chamber proceedings. That is not the point in which I am interested, and I said that before, in January. What I am interested in, for instance, take a policy that may be suggested by our superintendent—is that the public may know what we are doing. It isn't that I am accusing anybody of sleight of hand work here, of carrying a dark lantern. That is not the point. But if we get the public in here, and they find out what we are going to do and have an opportunity to express their opinion in regard to it, we can get a better reaction.

Mrs. Barron: Mr. Chairman, I stand unequivocally in favor of open meetings, but I would also call the attention of the board to the fact that Section 16, paragraph one of the rules provides that we shall have open meetings:

"The sessions of the Board as a rule shall be open, but the Board may, at any time, by a majority vote go into executive session. It shall, however, pass no vote in executive session."

I am going to vote "No" on Mr. O'Hare's motion requiring a four-fifths vote, and I am making this statement because I do not want anybody to go away with the misunderstanding that I do not believe in open meetings. I stand absolutely, unequivocally, for open meetings. I do not believe in secrecy. I think the public ought to know what is going on in the school committee, but I realize that many times we go into conference to protect the individual.

No votes can be passed except in open session. Inasmuch as all votes must be passed in open session. I see no reason for making the change suggested by Mr. O'Hare. I see no reason why we should not be able to go into executive session by majority vote. In order to stimulate public interest in our meetings I have suggested, and I think other members of the board have suggested, that we send out letters to all organizations interested, women's clubs, men's clubs, parents and teachers' associations. I have interviewed personally a score of presidents of different organizations and asked what time would be more convenient for them to come to our meetings. I stated nearly a year ago, I think January 10, 1927, that I stood ready to change the time of meeting, if it seemed proper or expedient, so that we might meet at four o'clock or eight o'clock in the evening, or at any other time that might be thought desirable. I think the other members of the Board are ready to do the same if it shall seem advisable. But so far we have had no protest from the people interviewed that the hour at which we meet is not satisfactory.

However, I still feel that there are many parents who would come if the hour were changed, if we had evening meetings. I merely wish to have my attitude understood. As I have said, I do believe in throwing our meetings open to the public. I vote "No," not because I do not believe in open meetings, but because I think the majority vote should prevail and not a four-fifths' vote.

Mr. O'Hare: Mr. Chairman, as I understand the returns we have received on the question of preference in the matter of the hour for our meetings, the decision was about half for meetings between three and five thirty, and about half for seven thirty. I don't think we got one who favored six thirty. But I do want to repeat that the orders I have introduced are for this purpose, and this purpose only.

I want the committee to come down here, when it comes to meet, and meet in the open. That is the idea behind this. Then the Superintendent, for instance, will come before us and say that he would like to nominate this person or that to a position, or that he thinks this or that should be done, talking to us and showing us what he is doing and what he hopes to do in regard to different matters. Such things would be in open session. Of course on matters of a delicate or private nature, we would go into conference. I would not dispute that for a minute. But these three orders are put in with the idea that we get the public interested. We come here and have our conference, get the ideas, the suggested appointments, and so on. I have stated the reason why the four-fifths provision is suggested. It is simply to protect a minority, who might have very good reason for feeling that a matter should be discussed in open meeting. Therefore, the four-fifths vote would be required to go into executive session. I am not questioning the attitude that has been taken by anybody. I am simply stating my position, as other members have stated their positions. I am not accusing anybody of adopting a pernicious attitude.

Mr. Sullivan: Mr. Chairman, I introduced a similar order four years ago, and it was defeated, as I recall, by a four to one vote. I reintroduced a similar order two years ago, and I think it was defeated by a three to two vote.

Mr. O'Hare: That is right.

Mr. Sullivan: I am now very happy to second Mr. O'Hare's motion for the passage of this order. I think it is fundamental that we proceed in public. Mrs. Barron refers to the regulation which calls for public meetings, but as a matter of fact, practice and procedure, we never meet in public until everything has been gone over first in conference, privately. Mr. O'Hare's order seeks to eliminate that procedure, and I agree with Mr. O'Hare that the predicament in regard to the so-called adviser problem would not have been precipitated if the procedure had been as Mr. O'Hare desires by his order. So of course I will go on record in favor of the order.

Mr. Gray: Mr. Chairman, I simply wish to say that I agree with Mrs. Barron on the matter. I would like to point out two things. I am absolutely in favor of having as many meetings as may be desirable, and having them at whatever hour is convenient. I believe in having as many public meetings as we ought to have. There is no question about that. As the situation now is, of course any member of the Board can bring up at a public meeting anything that he wishes to bring up, and any citizen can come here and ask any question that he wants to ask. So it seems to me that we do have ample safeguards, as far as having things considered in public. I agree with the position stated by Mrs. Barron. My position is as stated in the meeting of January 10, 1927:

"Many questions, such as salaries, major appointments, creation of new positions or departments, or new projects of one sort or another, etc., etc., require in their preliminary phases the most careful and prolonged discussion and study. If Mr. O'Hare's order prevails, however, those affected by such matters, as well as the public, will be in possession of this preliminary data before the committee itself has had time to consider it, much less to study it."

I am perfectly willing to have everything in public, just as long as we safeguard that sort of thing. But my stand as stated in January, remains unchanged for the reasons I then gave and which Mrs. Barron tonight has so ably given.

Mr. O'Hare: I think, Mrs. Barron and Mr. Gray, you will agree in this, that the public should have known, in the case of such an important matter as the Superintendent's recommendations in regard to advisers, what was being contemplated.

Question came on the passage of the order as introduced and laid over at the meeting of Oct. 17, 1927.

A roll call being ordered, the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS: Messrs. Bogan, O'Hare and Sullivan—3.

NAYS: Mrs. Barron and Mr. Gray—2.

Mr. Sullivan: It seems to me Mr. Chairman, that I would be remiss in my duty if I did not state publicly that I admire and congratulate Mr. O'Hare upon the consistency and sincerity of his attitude, although I do not happen to be with him in the matter of efficacy of the advisers. I repeat, I certainly admire his consistent and sincere attitude, although I do not agree with him.

Mr. Gray: And I admire Mr. O'Hare's consistent and sincere attitude, although I do not agree with him, Mr. Chairman.

The Board adjourned.

Attest:

ELLEN M. CRONIN,
Secretary.

MAYOR DISCUSSES LAND DAMAGES WITH FINANCE COMMISSION.

The Mayor has addressed the following communication to the Finance Commission:

TO THE FINANCE COMMISSION OF BOSTON.

DEAR SIRS,—The last letter of the Finance Commission to the Mayor relative to land damages stated that if the Mayor would establish and maintain the policy, recommended by the Commission, of trying the cases of all dissatisfied claimants of damages, the Finance Commission would not be disturbed if at times large verdicts were found against the city. The commission, however, hastens to disclaim any responsibility for whatever disastrous results may flow from the adoption of the policy which it recommends.

The fact is that no intelligent person anywhere follows the favored policy of the commission. The defendant who is being sued naturally attempts to settle such cases as appear advantageous for him to settle and goes to trial with the others.

The commission's policy proposes to have all litigation possible; the policy of the city is and always has been to have as little litigation as possible.

I believe the first way is utterly unsound; I believe the second way is sound and presents an opportunity to treat with fairness all of our citizens whose property may be taken for public purposes but who ought not to be forced into court to obtain justice.

A harsh policy inevitably leads to excessive jury verdicts and would be followed by mounting loss in money and worse by loss in public reputation for fair dealing.

The policy of the Finance Commission relates to the meaning of the word "finance." The subject of finance is not to be confined to dollars and cents. It concerns a decent view of human life, courteous treatment for all, and respect for everybody's rights. The Finance Commission ought, therefore, to carry old and well-tested precepts into the transaction of municipal business. The commission should avoid the appearance of city standards that no self-respecting citizen could possibly maintain in his relations with his neighbors.

The Finance Commission letter deals with two cases in particular about which it sets up a theory unheard of, untenable and unbelievable, compulsory litigation, a theory in sharp collision with common law and common sense.

One of these cases was submitted to a jury verdict and the city was fortunate in securing results not very much in excess of the amended award of the Street Commissioners. The city would have been willing to pay the amount of this verdict as a settlement out of court although it involved a very large apparent profit to the owner. The case was a proper one for trial because a settlement could not be had on what the city regarded as reasonable terms. This was the so-called Barry case referred to in the Finance Commission's letter and discussed by the commission as providing that all cases should be subject to trial. It merely proves the Law Department was right, and suggests what everybody ought to know, that some cases should be tried and some should be settled.

LAND DAMAGES.

The second case is that of Joseph Paul, standing in the name of Moses Shapiro, for damages to two parcels of real estate in Dock square and Faneuil Hall square.

Last January you received due notice that upon the recommendation of the Law Department the Street Commissioners proposed to increase the awards to Shapiro from $188,000 to $236,000. The award of $188,000 had been reduced from $200,000 because the appropriation had not been sufficient to make awards to all the owners affected, and Paul had brought suit for land damages in the sum of $300,000.

The Finance Commission objected to a settlement of the case for $236,000 and said that Paul would make a profit of $111,000. An interesting disclosure, if true, but important only to the federal income tax collector. You also thought the appraisal wrong, and I have had it thoroughly reviewed.

I am now in receipt of a communication from the Law Department under date of November 10, a copy of which I inclose. This communication recommends that the case be settled in the sum of $236,000, without interest. The study conducted by the Law Department contains the estimates of a number of well-known experts, who state that the amount of damages sustained by the owner are as follows:

R. H. Choate, $241,548; D. Bradley Rich, $237,255; Frederick L. McGowan, $236,835; C. A. Hall, $234,665. The opinion as to the amount of damage given by Warren E. Freeman, municipal real estate expert, is $236,310.

There is no substantial difference of opinion upon the value on the land damages which constitute the greater part of the award, the estimates on land running from $176,865 to $187,833.

The Street Commissioners award gave $175,500 as the estimate for the land damages.

The damages to buildings, as stated by the experts above named, and also by William F. Kearns, six experts in all, run from $49,000 to $58,289. Five other experts employed by the petitioners place the building damage at a much higher figure. There is one low estimate on buildings, that of John F. Graham, who valued them at $12,500 at the time of the original award.

The Corporation Counsel of the city has carefully analyzed these estimates and states to me that Mr. Graham must have made a serious error when he advised the Street Commissioners that building damage amounted only to $12,500.

I have before me the correspondence of the Finance Commission containing no information that will support its recommendations and dealing largely with the profit to the owner, which the commission knows cannot be considered as a factor in the trial of the case. Nevertheless, the Finance Commission says go to trial.

I have also before me an exhaustive report from the Law Department of the city, in which a close analysis is given by the best men obtainable of the value of the property taken and the opinion of legal advisers of the city applied thereto.

The Law Department opinion states that trial would be a deliberate waste of the city's money and unwarranted conduct on the part of the Law Department.

Under the circumstances, I have a choice between the irresponsible judgment of the Finance Commission, which the commission itself pronounces irresponsible, and the recommendations carefully made by the City of Boston Law Department.

Of course, I choose the latter and I have therefore approved the settlement.

Respectfully yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Boston, November 21, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I am inclosing for your Honor's attention a report by Mr. Samuel Silverman of this department in the cases of Moses Shapiro v. City of Boston, Nos. 182366 and 182367, now pending in the Superior Court for the County of Suffolk.

These cases represent petitions by the owner for the assessment of damages arising from the taking by the city for the widening of Dock square of the petitioner's property. Endeavoring to prepare for trial, Mr. Silverman has made an exhaustive study of the case and consulted many experts, whose opinions are attached to his report, and he has come to the conclusion that the city would not be warranted nor justified in proceeding to trial on these petitions. He has come to this conclusion in view of the testimony adduced by his experts. I, too, have given this case careful attention and have discussed at length with Mr. Silverman his report, and I have concluded that his judgment is sound in the matter, and therefore recommend that your Honor assent to the settlement previously made.

Very truly yours,

FRANK S. DELAND,
Corporation Counsel.

CITY OF BOSTON,

LAW DEPARTMENT, November 10, 1927.

FRANK S. DELAND, Esq., Corporation Counsel.

Report re Cases of Moses Shapiro v. City of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In compliance with your request I have taken charge of the cases of Moses Shapiro v. City of Boston, Nos. 182,366 and 182,367, now pending in the Superior Court for the County of Suffolk. These cases involve the taking by the city for the widening of Dock square of the petitioner's property at 10-11 Faneuil Hall square in one suit and 17 Dock square and 30½ and 31 Faneuil Hall square in the other suit. The Street Commissioners made the following awards in these cases:

In case No. 182,366 for the taking of 561 square feet of land and for damage to a four story brick building thereon at Nos. 10 and 11 Faneuil Hall square, the sum of $65,800 was awarded, which was accepted pro tanto by the petitioner.

In case No. 182,367 the sum of $122,200 was awarded and accepted pro tanto by the petitioner for the taking of 1,097 square feet of land and the taking of a five story brick building at Nos. 17 Dock square and 30½ and 31 Faneuil Hall square.

Upon the advice of the municipal expert, Mr. Warren F. Freeman, this department recommended to the Board of Street Commissioners and to his Honor the Mayor that these cases be settled by increasing the award of $65,800 to 91,300, or an increase of $25,500, and by increasing the $122,200 award to $144,700, or an increase of $22,500, making a total increase in the case of both awards of $48,000. Upon the making of these recommendations by this department the Finance Commission in writing objected to his Honor, advising him not to approve these settlements, which up to the present time has not been done.

These cases you have asked me to prepare with a view to trial and I have accordingly made preparations for trial, which I understand is to be held some time in the month of November.

When the papers in these cases were submitted to me for examination, I found contained therein the report of the municipal expert, Mr. Freeman. He estimated the damages as follows:

17 Dock Square, 30½ and 31 Faneuil Hall Square.—1,097 square feet at $100, $109,700; five-story brick building, total loss, $35,000; total damage, $144,700.

10 and 11 Faneuil Hall Square.—581 square feet at $85, $49,385; 889 square feet remaining, damaged, at $25, $22,225; four-story brick building, total loss, $20,000; total damage, $91,610.

Mr. Freeman's estimate for the damage to both those buildings is $236,310.

I immediately sought to secure appraisals of these properties by other well-known real estate experts who might assist me at the trial:

Frederick L. McGowan, 10 State street; Charles A. Hall, 73 Tremont street; R. H. Choate, 85 Devonshire street; D. Bradley Rich, 24 Milk street; John C. Kiley, 18 Tremont street; Gerald G. E. Street, 185 Devonshire street; Charles W. Whittier, 82 Devonshire street; William Pease O'Brien, 209 Washington street; A. N. Maddison, 11 Pemberton square; William J. Keville, 10 State street.

I also sought to secure Mr. Joseph C. Dillworth of 60 State street and Mr. Daniel J. Cronin of 10 State street, but was informed that they were engaged by the petitioner.

All the above real estate men, except Messrs. McGowan, Hall, Rich and Choate, either could not or would not serve as experts in these cases. I am annexing hereto copies of their replies to me. I am annexing hereto also copies of the reports submitted to me by Messrs. Choate, Hall, Rich and McGowan. The following is a summary of their appraisals, together with the appraisal made by the city's municipal expert, Mr. Freeman:

10 and 11 Faneuil Hall Square.—R. H. Choate, $91,848; D. Bradley Rich, $92,070; Fred L. McGowan, $91,165; C. A. Hall, $89,965; Warren F. Freeman, $91,610. Recommended by the Law Department for settlement, $91,300.

17 Dock Square, 30½ and 31 Faneuil Hall Square.—R. H. Choate, $149,700; D. Bradley Rich, $145,185; Frederick L. McGowan, $145,670; C. A. Hall, $144,700; Warren F. Freeman, $144,700. Recommended by the Law Department for settlement, $144,700.

These total for both takings as follows:

R. H. Choate, $91,848 plus $149,700, $241,548.

D. Bradley Rich, $92,070 plus $145,185, $237,255.

Fred L. McGowan, $91,165 plus $145,670, $236,835.

C. A. Hall, $89,964 plus $144,700, $234,665.

Warren F. Freeman, $91,610 plus $144,700, $236,310.

Recommended by the Law Department, $91,300 plus $144,700, $236,000.

A comparison of these appraisals indicates that three of the four appraisers were higher than the municipal expert, Mr. Freeman, whose judgment was adopted by this department in its recommendation of settlement, while the fourth appraiser, Mr. Hall, who was lower than Mr. Freeman, differed by only $2,200. If interest of 4 per cent for two years be added to the appraisals we must add approximately $3,700 to them all, which would indicate that the city's recommendation of settlement is lower than all of the experts, as the city recommended settlement without the payment of interest.

I engaged Mr. William F. Kearns, a retired building contractor, to make an appraisal for me of the damage to the buildings alone. Mr. Kearns served as the city's expert in the recent telephone case and qualified before the Public Utilities Department as an expert on buildings of all types and used for all purposes. He has built in this city buildings valued in the total at over forty millions of dollars. He built the Army Base at South Boston for the United States Government at an expense of over twenty-five millions of dollars. He reported to me that the building at 17 Dock square, 30½ and 31 Faneuil Hall square was damaged to the extent of $29,619. The other experts appraised the damage to this building as follows:

R. H. Choate, $40,000; C. A. Hall, $35,000; Fred L. McGowan, $25,000; D. Bradlee Rich, $30,000; Warren F. Freeman, $35,000.

Mr. Kearns appraised the damage to the building at 10 and 11 Faneuil Hall square as $28,670. The other experts appraised the damage to this building as follows:

R. H. Choate, $20,000; C. A. Hall, $22,800; Fred L. McGowan, $24,000; D. Bradlee Rich, $22,000; Warren F. Freeman, $20,000.

The totals of the damages estimated to both buildings by all the experts is as follows:

William F. Kearns, $29,619 plus $28,670 equals $58,289.

R. H. Choate, $40,000 plus $20,000 equals $60,000.

C. A. Hall, $35,000 plus $22,800 equals $57,800.

Fred L. McGowan, $25,000 plus $24,000 equals $49,000.

D. Bradlee Rich, $30,000 plus $22,000 equals $52,000.

Warren P. Freeman, $35,000 plus $20,000 equals $55,000.

These figures are submitted at this time because of the fact that Mr. John F. Graham, appraiser for the Board of Street Commissioners, at the time of the original award made by them valued these buildings as follows:

17 Dock square, 30½ and 31 Faneuil Hall square, $7,000; 10 and 11 Faneuil Hall square, $5,500; total for both buildings, $12,500.

When compared with the estimate of Mr. Kearns, Mr. Graham's estimate of the damage to the buildings is approximately $45,000 lower, and when compared with the lowest of the experts submitted above, Mr. McGowan, Mr. Graham's estimate is $36,500 lower.

I am satisfied that all these experts cannot be mistaken and Mr. Graham correct in view of the wide differences between Mr. Graham's estimate of the damages and the damages submitted by the other experts. I believe that Mr. Graham must have made a serious error when he advised the Street Commissioners that these buildings were damaged only $12,500.

If we assume that Mr. Graham's figures as to the damage to the buildings influenced the Street Commissioners in making their awards, and if we deduct Mr. Graham's estimate of the damages to the buildings of $12,500 from the Street Commissioners' award of $188,000 for both land and buildings, we find that the Street Commissioners awarded $175,500 for the two takings of land without buildings. For the sake of comparison if we add the estimates of the damage to the buildings of the experts to the figure of the Board of Street Commissioners of $175,500, we get the following result:

AWARD OF BOARD OF STREET COMMISSIONERS FOR LAND ONLY.

$175,500 plus $58,289 (Kearns' estimate of building damage equals $233,789.

$175,500 plus $60,000 (Choate's estimate of building damage) equals $235,500.

$175,500 plus $57,800 (Hall's estimate of building damage) equals $233,300.

$175,500 plus $49,000 (McGowan's estimate of building damage) equals $224,500.

$175,500 plus $52,000 (Rich's estimate of building damage) equals $227,500.

$175,500 plus $55,000 (Freeman's estimate of building damage) equals $230,500.

Law Department's recommendation, $236,000.

From all the foregoing it can readily be seen just what difficulties confront me in preparing my case for trial. My experts give me little if any comfort. A comparison of estimates indicates to me that the original recommendation of this department was just and sound and for the city's best interests. If I try this case it will be only with the feeling that I am fighting against my own better judgment. I cannot put my own experts on the witness stand. Their appraisals would all result in giving the petitioner not only what this department previously recommended but interest for two years at 4 per cent in addition thereto. This is not taking into consideration the fact that the jury would not necessarily take their estimates as the basis of their judgment but would probably get in between the appraisals of our experts and the experts of the petitioner. I am advised that the petitioner has engaged the services of five experts, all of whom have advised him that the damage to the petitioner is far in excess of that reported to me by my experts. In cases of this kind that is to be expected and is inevitable. It seems to me that to proceed to trial in these cases in view of the existing situation would be a deliberate waste of the city's money and would be unwarranted conduct on my part. I have no faith in my ability to secure a verdict lower than the amount already recommended by this department in view of the evidence available and at my disposal. I believe trial would be useless and almost scandalous. If I did proceed to trial the only witnesses available to me would be Mr. John Beck and Mr. Richard F. Andrews, who made the appraisals for the Board of Street Commissioners before the Board made its awards. I have asked Mr. Beck to prepare himself for the trial of these cases. He has informed me that because of his physical condition he is unable and unwilling to testify in this case. I cannot compel him to testify against his desire not to do so. I am inclosing herewith copy of a letter received from Mr. Beck. This would leave me with but one expert, Mr. Andrews, with whom I have been in consultation. He advises me that it would be almost hopeless for the city to expect to prevail with his testimony alone as against the testimony of five experts employed by the petitioner and I quite agree with his judgment. In fact Mr. Andrews' appraisals in these cases were so low, as compared with the appraisals submitted to me by the experts recently employed, that I doubt very much whether it would be advisable for me to even put him on the witness stand.

I accordingly recommend that the Mayor give his approval to the settlement recommended by this department of $236,000, which I understand has already been agreed to by the Board of Street Commissioners, and that I be authorized by you and his Honor to close this case at this figure if I am able so to do at this time.

Yours very truly,

SAMUEL SILVERMAN,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

FINANCE COMMISSION REPORT.

The Finance Commission has sent the following report to Mayor Nichols:

Boston, November 18, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

SIR,—Mr. L. O. Cummings, Assistant Professor of the Graduate School of Education of Harvard College, was employed by the Finance Commission to make a preliminary study to determine the objectives of a survey of the educational system of the City of Boston and the probable cost thereof. He has filed his report, together with data in support of his conclusions.

He does not recommend a complete survey of the entire school system, but is of the opinion that the studies recommended by him will "do more at this time to increase the effectiveness of the schools and insure wise economy of funds than any other type of study."

At the request of the commission he has made a summary of his report, setting forth the studies recommended and the results which such studies should accomplish. A copy of this summary is transmitted herewith.

Mr. Cummings estimates that to make all the studies recommended would cost approximately $60,000.

Respectfully submitted,

THE FINANCE COMMISSION,
by CHARLES L. CARR,
Chairman.

STUDIES OF THE BOSTON PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM RECOMMENDED TO BE CONDUCTED UNDER THE FINANCE COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

The recommendations which follow propose three types of studies of the Boston school situation as follows:

1. Studies conducted by a disinterested professional agency utilizing the assistance as far as possible of the staff of the department under consideration.

2. Studies under the direction of a disinterested professional agency in which the members of the staff make studies under the administrative direction of the agency.

3. Studies to be made with the assistance of specialists in particular fields by committees of the professional staff appointed by the Superintendent of Schools in consultation with the director of the survey.

Summary of Studies Recommended.

To be conducted by a disinterested professional agency:

1. School building program.

To be made under the direction of a disinterested professional agency:

2. Building costs.

3. Standards of different types of rooms.

4. Co-ordination of the staff of the School Committee.

5. Entire school health program.

To be made with the assistance of a disinterested professional agency:

6. Classification of children.

7. Organization of the supervisory staff.

8. Organization of the high schools.

9. School costs.

10. Vocational and prevocational shop work.

11. Functioning of the School Committee.

12. Commercial education.

DETAILS AND POSSIBLE OUTCOMES OF STUDIES RECOMMENDED.

1. A thorough study of the school building, situation to arrive at a school building program for a period of years to include:

a. An evaluation of the existing school plant to determine the units to be retained and those to be gradually eliminated.

b. Population forecasts on which to plan for future building.

c. A building program with definite steps to provide for realizing as rapidly as possible satisfactory buildings adapted to the educational needs in all sections of the city.

This study would make available to the School Committee and the Schoolhouse Commission procedures of recent development not to be expected of their regular staff in planning school building programs. It would make for economy of funds and effectiveness of instruction to have the older buildings and the smaller units which are expensive in upkeep replaced according to a carefully developed plan. Such a plan would be based on adequate population forecasts, an economical organization for supervision as well as for the classification of children, proper relation of school buildings to existing and prospective play areas, with due provisions for the effect of replacement of old plants and erection of new buildings on the tax rate. Without such careful planning completion of the intermediate school plan entered upon is likely to be delayed and the expense in the long run greater than need be.

2. A study of building costs to establish standards and units of comparison within the building operations of the Schoolhouse Commission.

This study would afford results for planning the school building program. Unless accurate comparisons of costs of different types of construction are available to the School Committee as well as valid arguments for replacement of older buildings to be derived from studies of cost of necessary alteration, it will be impossible to plan wisely a building program.

3. A study of standards for different types of rooms by a specialist in schoolhouse planning in co-operation with representatives of the educational staff and representatives of the Schoolhouse Commission.

This study is also related to the building program. Reduction of costs as well as better adaptation of buildings for teaching purposes will be secured by the development of standards for different types of instruction, such as instruction in shops, laboratories, gymnasiums, based on careful study of educational needs as well as building costs.

4. A study of the co-ordination of the activities of the various members of the immediate staff of the School Committee, namely, Superintendent, Business Manager, Secretary, Custodian, Board of Superintendents, by the persons involved.

This study should result in a closer co-ordination of the business and educational aspects of the school system. To check educational practice by constant reference to costs should result in keeping the continually increasing curve of educational expenditures at a lower level than if improvements are made with present conditions continuing.

5. A study of the entire health program with special reference to its relation to instruction and to the correlation of the activities of all concerned in any way with the health problems by a representative committee of those most concerned.

The health features of a school system are fundamental and more widely spread than is usually recognized. Co-ordination of health as represented not only in the control of communicable disease but in the hygiene of the classroom in the arrangement and spirit of the instruction, physical and mental upbuilding by recess activities, after school plays and games as well as teaching health habits, should result in better use of school facilities. Well children progress more rapidly through schools than do sickly ones. Economy results not only in the money costs through reduction of failures but the happiness and well-being of the children develop a better type of citizen.

6. A study of the classification of children for instruction to be made by selected representatives of the teaching staff and the staff of the Department of Educational Investigation and Measurement.

This study will include giving of standard tests for purposes of illustration only in selected schools where use has not been made of tests, but does not contemplate a complete testing program. The ratings of pupils already available will be used as far as possible.

This study should affect in a tangible way as no other single study the great bulk of school costs (approximately 70 per cent of current expenditure is for instruction). The grading of children so that teachers are placed in charge of groups with which they can work to best advantage and children will be in the most favorable conditions for learning is economy. Failures cost money and are expensive as well, because a child trained in failure is not an asset to a community; a child who has succeeded in tasks graded to his needs and capacity is. Increased attention to a wise use of modern standards of measurement of children's ability and achievement will affect favorably school costs and the general effectiveness of the school system in the long run more directly than any other single measure.

7. A study of the organization of the entire supervisory staff by representatives of the staff to include a study of the organization for supervisory purposes of the membership of the Board of Superintendents, the various departments now under directors, the activities of the principals of all schools, the function of the department heads in high schools.

The supervisory staff provides the leadership of the teachers. The increasing complexity and specialization of education require leadership of persons specially trained in different aspects of school work. Co-ordination of the efforts of specialized workers is essential to avoid duplication of effort and consequently unnecessary expense, as well as to make effective the work of individual teachers. A study of the organization and spirit of the leadership may do more to affect immediately the quality of performance of the great body of teachers than any other single study. Moreover, the salaries of these teachers constitute approximately 70 per cent of the total current expenditure for schools.

8. A study of the organization of high schools with special reference to size of classes, of distribution of types of instruction throughout the city and standards of promotion, by selected members of the high school staffs.

This study involves the co-ordination of the most expensive parts of the school system. Opportunity ought to be denied no child to develop according to his needs and capacity in the specialized forms of training offered in the Boston public high schools. Increased attention to the placement in the city of these opportunities as well as the establishment of more critical measurements of fitness for and achievement in such fields will be economical of funds and, what is more essential, of human energy.

9. A study of school costs to present an adequate statement of the financial situation of the schools according to standard terminology especially with reference to municipal finances by the business staff of the School Committee.

A study which establishes the facts with respect to school costs in relation to municipal costs should get the public to face the truth about rising school costs. More intelligent use of school facilities by parents and children should result. The increased use of budget procedure which checks educational practices by actual costs should be a wise check on expenditures. Moreover the greater use of standard terminology in school accounting will permit more frequent and valuable comparison than is at present possible.

10. A study of vocational and pre-vocational shop work to include its relation to the Mechanic Arts High School by selected members of the staff.

Such a study would deal with a phase of school work which has frequently been questioned by the public and press and about which there are differences of opinion among educators. The equipment is expensive and its placement affects not only the individual building plan but also the building program in determining the number of points in the city at which training involving shop equipment shall be given. A study of the situation should result in unifying the work, thereby avoiding unnecessary duplication of equipment. The establishment of continuing measurement of the effectiveness of such training in meeting the requirements of industry and the needs of the pupils should prevent waste of school funds upon training which has no demonstrable value.

11. A study of the functioning of the School Committee by the members of the committee.

Such a study will put at the disposal of the School Committee, the composition of which will be changed by the recent elections, the assistance of disinterested professional workers in a critical study of the best use of the time of laymen in the control of an expenditure of approximately twenty million dollars. Periodical consideration of means of realizing the values both of laymen and professional workers in carrying on such an important enterprise is essential. Undesirable pressure by an uninformed public upon the members of the School Committee may in part be avoided by such a study. The study, moreover, should result in greater economy in the use of funds through wise use of the staff. Particularly in determining upon the size and organization of their professional staff must the committee consider its own functions.

12. A study of commercial education by selected members of the staff.

This study deals with an aspect of vocational work in schools which involves more pupils and teachers than any other single phase of high school education. Experience in other cities with this type of vocational work demonstrates that there is an opportunity, by a wise selection of students, choice of materials, and co-ordination of the work in different schools,—evening, continuation, intermediate, as well as high school commercial departments, for reducing unwise expenditure as well as for increasing the effectiveness of instruction.

It is evident that the studies of the aspects of the school system which I have recommended do not constitute a complete survey of a fact finding character of the entire public school system. I do not recommend that type of study at the present time. The studies recommended are those which in my opinion will do more at this time to increase the effectiveness of the schools and insure wise economy of funds than any other type of study. Moreover, the results of such studies and procedure as have been recommended would continue over a longer period of time than if a fact finding investigation of a detailed character were carried on by an outside agency.

The type of studies which I have recommended involves the co-operation of all concerned. It has been shown throughout this preliminary study that the co-operation of the various groups can be counted on. I have arrived at the results of this study with the hearty co-operation of all whom I have approached and I take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation of their co-operation.

Hereafter deputy chiefs shall closely examine fire reports (Form 16) before signing and forwarding and make sure that district chiefs or acting district chiefs have stated clearly the cause and conditions leading to every fire.

The mere statement that the cause of a fire was "careless use of cigarette" is not sufficient. There must be some explanation of some other contributing conditions, i. e., what did the lighted cigarette come in contact with?

In the future fire reports that do not contain more complete information as to the cause of fire will be returned to the deputy chief for correction.

Three copies are being furnished for each company in the department; one copy will be posted in the recreation room and one copy will be posted on the bulletin board on the main floor. The other copy will be placed on file for reference.

These instructions will be thoroughly memorized by all members of the department and strictly adhered to when gas masks are being used at fires. Deputy chiefs when visiting company houses will examine the members in regard to their knowledge of these instructions.

V. CLASSES IN INSTRUCTION.

The classes in instruction conducted by deputy chiefs in accordance with General Orders No. 10 c. s., which were suspended during the vacation period, will be resumed on December 1, 1927.

City of Boston,
Hospital Department, November 8, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held on November 4 I presented the order of the City Council "That the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide an assembly room in the Boston Sanatorium and make such arrangements as may be necessary to meet the expense by a budget item or otherwise."

At the present time one of the dining rooms is used as an assembly room. The trustees realize that this is not a suitable room for such a purpose, but they are preparing a program for the further expansion of the hospital at Mattapan, and have in mind to provide a proper assembly room.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN J. DOWLING,
Superintendent.

RESCINDING AUTHORIZATION TO BORROW MONEY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, November 14, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith six orders providing for the rescinding of authorization to borrow money under four distinct loan items.
These items are as follows:

Fire Station, Shawmut avenue and Tremont street.

Charities Administration Building and Temporary Home, furnishing and Equipping.
Hospital, Parker Hill, Buildings, etc.
Maternity Building (City Hospital).

The amounts of money which are to be rescinded under these orders are no longer required for the reasons that either the work contemplated when the original authorization was made has been completed or else owing to contingencies which were not foreseen at the time of the original authorization it has been necessary to abandon the original work contemplated. Since there is no further need for the particular borrowing power now remaining unused in the various items, it is desirable that these accounts be closed on the financial records of the city. The accompanying orders will accomplish this purpose and I respectfully recommend their adoption by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

TRANSFER—PUBLIC WELFARE DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, November 14, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am advised by the chairman of the Overseers of the Public Welfare that the records of this department at the present moment indicate the possibility of a deficit at the close of the year of over $200,000, under Item F-9, Care of Dependents. Since it may be possible before the close of the year to reduce this figure, I do not feel it desirable at the present time to provide the full estimate of the department. I accordingly submit herewith two orders providing for the transfer from available sources of $100,000 to the item in question. This transfer will permit the department to administer this item until some time in December when it will be possible to approximate a good deal closer than it is at the present time the actual deficit which will be present in this item. I respectfully recommend adoption of the accompanying orders by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor be and hereby is authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Reserve Fund,
$50,000, to the appropriation for Public Welfare Department, Central Office, F-9, Care of Dependents, $50,000.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261
of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor be and hereby is authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for City Debt Requirements, Special Items, F-5, Interest, $50,000, to the appropriation for Public Welfare Department, Central Office, F-9, Care of Dependents, $50,000.

City of Boston,
Overseers of the Public Welfare,
November 9, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In accordance with your Circular Letter No. 3, the Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare respectfully submits the following information.

We estimate that we will have a deficit of approximately $233,759.44 under F-9, Dependent Aid, to December 31, 1927. We will have a balance, however, of approximately $60,200.82 under F-10, Mothers Aid, to December 31, 1927. We also estimate unexpended balances in other items of our budget amounting to approximately $10,000, leaving a balance to be provided from other sources of approximately $163,558.62.

Will you kindly make provision to supply the funds necessary to cover our estimated deficit for this year?

Very truly yours,
NATHAN A. HELLER, Chairman.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

INCREASED FERRY TOLLS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, November 12, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit to you herewith an order for the increase of tolls on the East Boston ferries accompanied by a report from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to ferry service and toll charges.

The total loss on the ferries since the beginning of public operation has now reached a total of about thirteen millions. The annual deficit is increasing and at the present time amounts to about three-quarters of a million dollars a year. This great annual charge upon the public revenues bears upon every home owner in the city and upon every business. It means that all our taxpayers contribute to the support of an undertaking which ought better to sustain itself.

The new schedule of ferry tolls will not extinguish the annual deficit. They will but lift the present revenue of the ferries from $80,000 a year to $240,000 a year upon the basis of present travel. The annual deficit will still be in excess of one-half million dollars a year if the schedule proposed is adopted.

The maintenance of our ferries entails a burden of expense incomparably greater than the expense of maintaining a public highway. The service at present is as good as can be provided, unless a very large sum of money is expended for new equipment. The heaviest traffic is taken care of by the South Ferry, as facilities at the North Ferry are inadequate for the heaviest loads. The fact is that ferry service together with the mainland connections are inadequate for the tremendous transportation that may be expected in time to attend the growth of the city and either a tunnel or a bridge must ultimately be provided.

At the present time rates sufficient to pay for the cost of the ferries could not be charged, because they would prove far in excess of the new schedule herein proposed. While it would be inexpedient to fix a rate high enough to pay cost of upkeep, nevertheless, I am confident that the public will be willing to pay for ferry service something beyond the present charge.

The proposed schedule of tolls is moderate in comparison with toll schedules in other large cities, and it gives recognition to the great changes in traffic that have taken place since the ferry tolls now in existence were established under an order of the City Council in the year 1887.

For the foregoing reasons, I strongly recommend passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Ordered, That the tariff of tolls for passengers and vehicles upon the East Boston ferries be amended and established as follows, to take effect on and after January 1, 1928:

Passengers.
Foot passenger.....	1 cent.
Passengers on vehicles, other than driver, each.....	1 cent.
Vehicles.
One or two-horse vehicle with driver...	15 cents.

Motor truck, over six tons, with driver.....	30 cents.

Trailer.....	20 cents.
Miscellaneous.
Hand cart, or wheelbarrow, and man..	10 cents.
Horse and rider.....	10 cents.
Horses and cattle, each, with attendant	10 cents.

Tickets for Vehicles.
Tickets in packages of twenty shall be sold at a reduction of twenty per cent from toll rates.

Funeral Processions.

Funeral processions shall pass free of tolls.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
November 14, 1927.

To the Honorable the Mayor.

Complying with your request, I submit a report of the Division Engineer of the Bridge and Ferry Division in the matter of ferry tolls, containing a proposed schedule of tolls to be considered in connection with an adjustment of the present schedule.

Yours very truly,
J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

(Inclosure.)

October 11, 1927.

To the Commissioner of Public Works.

I beg leave to submit to you the following statement with regard to the question of increasing tolls for the Ferry Service.

An increase in tolls is desirable from the standpoint of the Public Works Department, in that the increase would produce a larger revenue, decreasing the deficit to the city and thereby aiding in reducing the general tax.

The total loss on the ferries, according to the annual report of the Public Works Department for 1926, is $12,678,550.99.

The existing rates have been in force for forty years, having been adopted in 1887. Since that date conditions have materially altered.

First, Foot passenger travel has dropped off very greatly. For example, 9,507,864 foot passengers paid for transportation in 1887; 13,051,318 foot passengers paid for transportation in 1904, and in 1924 only 2,844,317 foot passengers paid for transportation; the decrease since 1924 being due to the opening of the East Boston Tunnel. This decrease in the foot passenger travel has diminished the revenue as compared with 1904 by over $100,000 per annum.

Second, Although a very substantial part of the revenue of the ferries comes from foot travel, the ferries are now primarily for vehicular traffic, which has increased since 1887 from 755,688 paid vehicles transported to approximately 1,000,000 vehicles being carried per annum at the present time.

Third, The character of the vehicles has changed greatly owing to the introduction of automobiles, both for the carrying of passengers and trucking. At the present time nearly 75 per cent of the vehicles transported are automobiles and of these automobiles about 40 per cent are trucks.

The loads that are being carried average much heavier than the loads that were formerly carried, on account of the advent of the motor truck and as they are much heavier they impose more severe strain on drops and boats, increasing both maintenance and construction charges.

The present schedule is not based on any definite plan, although it is governed more by weight of vehicle than any other condition. It makes no provision for motor vehicles except to rate them in with horse-drawn vehicles.

Under the existing laws tolls must be charged and as the cost of maintenance has arisen owing to the rise in prices of both materials and labor since 1887, it is a subject for consideration as to whether the tolls might not fairly be increased to provide at least for a part of the increased cost of maintenance.

Any system of tolls should be simple of application and it is extremely probable that any system applied would be simpler and more easily checked than the one now in force.

To charge tolls is fair, as transportation by ferry differs from ordinary provisions for traffic such as roads or bridges. On a road or bridge are offered only a means of travel whereas on a ferry the vehicles themselves are transported, saving for the distance of the ferry route, cost in wear and tear, gasoline, etc.

Apparently some of the business interests of East Boston are willing to pay a toll of considerable magnitude in case a bridge is built and it is possible that the feeling of the community has changed somewhat with regard to the increase in the rates of tolls.

I have drawn up a rough schedule of tolls which would produce a revenue of about $240,000 a year, which is a decided increase over the present system of tolls. It is very much less than the tolls charged in New York and Philadelphia. I submit herewith this schedule. The foot passengers remain at one cent and one cent will be charged for every additional passenger on a vehicle besides the driver instead of such persons being carried free as they are at present. The increase is made wholly on vehicles. There is also no particular reason why free transportation should be given to vehicles on the Fourth of July. I believe that it might be well to allow foot passengers to travel free on that holiday but I see no reason why vehicles should. Even if the suggested increase be adopted there will be a heavy maintenance deficit every year.

Yours very truly,
JOHN E. CARTY,
Division Engineer.

The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by Chairman DOWLING at 3.03 p. m.

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENT.

Chairman DOWLING called up, under unfinished business, No. 1 on the calendar, viz.:

1. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor October 31, 1927, of James T. Lyons, to be a Weigher of Coal; and Christopher B. Kennedy, Ernest I. Ford, Richard J. Ryan, Richard W. Melville and Francis L. Owens, to be Weighers of Goods.

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Coun. Green, Guild; the whole number of ballots, 11, yeas 11, and the appointments were confirmed.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. GILBODY, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

(1) Report on the petition of A. H. Handley (referred today) for children to appear at Symphony Hall on December 4, 1927,—that leave be granted.

Report accepted, leave granted on the usual conditions.

(2) Report on orders (submitted by the Mayor today and accompanying requests for transfers within departmental appropriations)—that said orders ought to pass.

Report accepted, said orders passed, yeas 15, nays 0.

(3) Report on orders (submitted by the Mayor and referred today) to transfer $50,000 from the Reserve Fund and $50,000 from City Debt Requirement, or $100,000 in all, to Public Welfare Department, Central Office, Care of Dependents,—that the same ought to pass.

Report accepted, said orders passed, yeas 15, nays 0.

CENTRAL LIBRARY FIREPROOFING, ETC.

Coun. GREEN, for the Committee on Finance, submitted the following:

Report on order (referred August 22, 1927) for a loan of $250,000 to be expended by the trustees of the Public Library for the central library building, fireproofing, improvements, etc.,—that the same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order:

Chairman DOWLING—The Clerk will call the roll.

Coun. KEENE—Mr. President, just prior to calling of the roll I would like to add to the report of the committee the fact that Father Connolly and Mr. Kirstein, members of the Board of Trustees, were in attendance today at the meeting of the committee and laid great stress on existing conditions at the library. They stated that the last inventory of the central library showed approximately $16,000,000 of property, some of it extremely valuable, that could never be replaced, and cited the fact that there are in the library original editions of Shakespeare, of Milton, and other works of great value, that could not possibly be replaced. At the present time these books are kept upon shelves in ordinary rooms, and not very long ago one of Commissioner Hultman's experts made a report to the effect that the library is a fire hazard. Members of the trustees who were present stated that they felt very keenly the conditions that exist and that they did not dare to assume the responsibility longer without calling the fact to the attention of this Council, setting forth the urgent need of fireproofing. Proper fireproofing demands some structural changes. We have estimates of the engineers calling for an expenditure of approximately $250,000. It would seem that this is an urgent need and that the city should take some action to protect the property there. I understand that our library ranks third in the libraries of this country. I sincerely trust that the Council will take prompt action in the matter.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, I intend to vote for the order, but I do so wholly unimpressed by the argument of urgency. The urgency now argued apparently has existed for some time, for a number of years, and the facts have been known, but it has not been pressed. I do not find from the correspondence or data, in connection with this matter that the Mayor's office has been up to the present time impressed by the urgency argument, because the correspondence shows that the request was made of the Mayor November 27, 1926, and it did not reach the Council until July 25, 1927, representing a delay of eight months. I see no reason why the amount represented in the order should not have been split and the burden spread over a number of years. It seems to me it would have answered the purpose as well to have a part of the money expended in 1926, a part in 1927, and so on, instead of having the order for the whole amount come in at this time.

The Clerk called the roll on the passage of the order, with the following result:

Yeas—Coun. Bush, Donovan, Dowling, Englert, Fitzgerald, Green, Guild, Keene, Lynch, Mahoney, Parkman, Ruby, Wilson—13.

Nays—0.
[Chairman DOWLING, before announcing the vote, waited a short time to see whether members were present in the anteroom.]

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, if in order I move that the result of the vote be announced and that we proceed with the business of the meeting. Then, if a sufficient number of votes show up later, we can have reconsideration.

Chairman DOWLING—There being but thirteen votes in the affirmative, and fifteen being required for the passage of the order, the order is rejected.

On motion of Coun. GUILD it was voted that the action on the order be reconsidered and that the order be assigned to the next meeting.

Coun. KEENE in the chair.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF.

Coun. ENGLERT, for the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, submitted a report recommending the passage of an order for payment of aid to soldiers and sailors and their families in the City of Boston for the month of November, 1927, under the provisions of chapter 115 of the General Laws and Acts and Amendments thereof or in addition thereto.

Report accepted, said order passed.

APPROVAL OF ROXBURY PROBATION OFFICERS' SALARIES.

Coun. FITZGERALD, for the Committee on County Accounts, submitted a report on the communication from the justice of the Municipal Court of Roxbury District of the City of Boston (referred October 17, 1927)—recommending the passage of the accompanying order:

Ordered, That the salaries of the probation officers of the Municipal Court, Roxbury District, as determined by the justice of said court, to date from January 1, 1928, be and the same hereby are approved, viz.:

Chief probation officer, $3,500; first assistant probation officer, $3,000; four male probation officers, $2,800 each; one woman probation officer, $2,500.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, I simply rise for information. Is that an increase in the salaries of the probation officers, or is it merely to take care of the salaries to date?

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, that takes care of the increases already provided for. The Legislature passed an act authorizing certain increases.

The report was accepted and the order declared passed.

Coun. BUSH doubted the vote and asked for a rising vote. The Council stood divided, and the order was passed, 10 to 1.

BETTER LIGHTING ON COMMONWEALTH AVENUE, BRIGHTON.

Coun. DOWLING offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide boulevard lamps or other high candle-powered lights on Commonwealth avenue, between Brighton avenue and the Newton line in sufficient numbers to properly light said avenue and afford reasonable protection to pedestrians and motorists, and that he be further requested to report to the City Council what action he proposes to take in this matter and at what time.

Coun. DOWLING—Mr. President, I have offered that order as the only way that seems open to me to get adequate lighting facilities for one of the most important thoroughfares in the city. Commonwealth avenue is the main artery which connects the city proper with the western suburbs and the large western cities. I inquired from the Mayor's Traffic Survey Board this afternoon, and my own opinion was confirmed by their statement that 14,000 automobiles pass through that avenue between eight o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the evening. There have been in the past five months, according to the records of the Police Department, Brighton Division, three fatal accidents and twenty-two accidents in which serious personal injuries were incurred. The danger there is not due to unnecessary speed, because that avenue is fairly, and even more than fairly, well patrolled. Captain Anderson has three or four motorcycle officers on the avenue all the time, and the movement of traffic does not violate the law, and does not, because of undue speed, cause these accidents. I will send to the clerk at this time and ask him to read a clipping from the Herald one day this week, setting forth the comments made by Judge Connelly on the situation there, and after the clerk finishes I will resume.

The clipping was read by the clerk, as follows: "Judge blames bad lights for accident. Calls Commonwealth avenue opposite Capitol Theater dangerous. Judge Thomas H. Connelly of the Brighton District Court yesterday censured the lighting on Commonwealth avenue, opposite the Capitol Theater, where two women have been killed and several persons have been injured during the past two months. Judge Connelly said that he was satisfied that the accident was caused by poor lighting on Commonwealth avenue, near the Capitol Theater, and that it had been his experience that numerous accidents had been caused there by lack of proper light. He said that he had observed the light at that point, and thought it insufficient for motorists, although there has been no attempt to remedy the matter."

I have not offered this order, Mr. President, for the purpose of personal glorification. I don't want any white way system there, attributed to my efforts, but I do want some measure of protection for the people. As I have said, there are more than 14,000 autos that pass through the district there during the day, and I know from my daily and nightly experience that it is impossible to drive a car along Commonwealth avenue with any degree of safety to the pedestrian or driver under present conditions. It is a three-barreled road, with a main central route on which traffic moves in opposite directions, and two side drives, so called. I offer these remarks in connection with the order merely in the hope that they will attract the attention of the Commissioner of Public Works and his Honor the Mayor. I move a suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

BURIAL SPACE FOR SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

Coun. DOWLING offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to take such steps as may be necessary to increase the area of the lot in Mt. Hope Cemetery now especially assigned to deceased veterans of the Spanish American War.

The rule was suspended and the order passed.

COMPLETION OF BRIGHTON COURTHOUSE.

Coun. DOWLING offered the following:

Ordered, That the sum of $200,000 be appropriated, to be expended by the Superintendent of Public Buildings, in completing the building of the Brighton Courthouse, and that to meet the said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, bonds or certificates of indebtedness to said amount.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

REPAIRING SOMERSET SCHOOL.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Schoolhouse Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to confer with the members of the School Committee, for the purpose of arriving at a satisfactory agreement relative to the repair of the Somerset School, which was damaged by fire on Saturday, October 29, this school being then occupied by special classes.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

EXTENSION OF ELVEN ROAD.

Coun. GUILD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works through his Honor the Mayor be requested to estimate the cost of extending Elven road to Hyde Park avenue with underpass under the line of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad and to report the same to the Boston City Council.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK ALONG PILGRIM ROAD.

Coun. PARKMAN, for Coun. Arnold, offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Pilgrim road, Brookline avenue to Short street (edgestone only), Ward 4, in front of the estates bordering thereon, said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of crushed stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS.

Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. President, if in order at this time I move that we take up the name of John H. Brady, as it appears in No. 2 on the calendar under unfinished business, and act upon it at this time.

The Council voted to take up the question of appointment of John H. Brady as constable, submitted by the Mayor October 31, 1927, and act upon it at this time.

The question came on confirmation.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, if in order at this time I would ask also that the name of Joseph Weiner, appointed constable by the Mayor on the same date, be taken up, under No. 2 on the calendar.

Chairman KEENE—The question first comes on the confirmation of the appointment of John H. Brady.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, I rise to a question of information. Has the Special Committee on Constables made any report at all on these two names?

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, in response to that inquiry I would state that the Special Committee on Constables went over the whole list of constables, when we had them before us, but I understand that, these men having been turned down, now come before us in a new form, and that, according to the Law Department, the Committee has no jurisdiction in the matter. We had the list and acted upon all the names in one way or the other, but this comes in the same as a new petition, as I understand it, and therefore did not come before our committee.

The question came on confirmation of the appointment of John H. Brady as constable. Committee, Coun. Donovan and McMahon. Whole number of ballots, 13; yeas 12, nays 1, and the appointment was confirmed.

The constable's bond of John H. Brady, having come down approved by the City Treasurer, was approved by the Council.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I now move that we take up the name of Joseph Weiner, appointed as constable, as set forth in No. 2 on the calendar at this time.

The Council voted to take up the question of confirmation of appointment of Joseph Weiner as constable, the appointment being one of several submitted by the Mayor on October 31, 1927.

The question came on confirmation. Committee Coun. Bush and Englert. Whole number of ballots, 12; yeas 12, and the appointment was confirmed.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, may I call up under No. 3, unfinished business, on the calendar, the appointment by the Mayor on September 26 of Edward Ober to be a constable?

The Council voted to take up the question of appointment of Edward Ober as constable, under date of September 26, 1927. Committee, Coun. Fitzgerald and Donovan. Whole number of ballots, 12; yeas 12, and the appointment was confirmed.

THE NEXT MEETING.

If the price bid on any district appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low it may lead to the rejection of the proposal for said district. BOSTON YEAR BOOK, 1924-25 (2nd YEAR).

This is the most comprehensive book thus far issued relating to the public interests and activities of today in New England's metropolis. Special articles and statistics on metropolitan Boston follow the extensive and varied output devoted to municipal Boston, illustrations and diagrams being an attractive feature. Compiled and edited by Statistics Department, 73-76 City Hall.

AREA TO WARD LINES.

Total, 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,436 acres flats. Land area only, 28,019 acres (i. e., 43.78 square miles). Included in the latter are 160 acres of filled flats recently added to the land area of South Boston and 175 acres to that of East Boston.

Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (364 square miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 square miles).

If Boston should expand by annexation as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the 39 cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would exceed the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

ANNEXATIONS TO BOSTON.

East Boston in 1637; South Boston in 1804, being set off from Dorchester; Roxbury in 1868, a city of Norfolk County since March, 1846; Dorchester in 1870, a town since September, 1630; Charlestown in 1874, a city of Middlesex County since February, 1847; Brighton in 1874, set off from Cambridge and incorporated as a town of Middlesex County in February, 1807; West Roxbury in 1874, set off from Roxbury and incorporated as a town of Norfolk County in May, 1851; Hyde Park in 1912, a town of Norfolk County since April, 1868.

These annexations, which added 24,312 acres of land to the original land of Boston, were by area as follows: East Boston, 1,435 acres; South Boston, 795; Roxbury, 2,450; Dorchester, 5,600; West Roxbury, 8,075; Brighton, 2,664; Charlestown, 423; Hyde Park, 2,869. Filled land increased the area later by 1,396 acres. In 1875 the annexed territory had a population of 201,250, or 58.86 per cent of City's total; in 1910 its population had increased to 477,311, or 71.18 per cent, Hyde Park not included. By 1925 the total was 607,519, or 77.92 per cent of City.

FISCAL YEAR.

The fiscal year begins on January 1 and closes on December 31, as provided by the Charter amendments.

PORT OF BOSTON.

Boston Harbor comprises an area of about 47 square miles, (exclusive of the islands) including all the expanse of tidewater within a straight line from Point Allerton to Point Shirley and extending therefrom to the mainland. It is the best of natural harbors, near open sea, sheltered and spacious for anchorage; main ship channel 35 feet in depth at mean low water, increasing to 40 feet from President Roads to open sea; new dredging operations in charge of U. S. engineers are under way for increasing depth of said main channel to 40 feet; waterfront (i. e., lineal pier space) 40 miles, 6 miles fronting on 30 feet depth at low water.

Commonwealth Pier No. 5, South Boston, 1,200 feet long, 400 feet wide, accommodating five 600-foot ships at one time, 40 feet depth at mean low water on both sides, with three 2-story fireproof buildings of steel and concrete construction, containing 900,000 square feet of floor space, total cost of this enterprise to State, $4,500,000. Commonwealth Pier No. 6, South Boston, (Fish Pier), buildings on same erected by lessee, Boston Fish Market Corporation, cost to State, $1,487,361. Commonwealth Pier, No. 1, East Boston, 900 feet long, costing State $764,600 for site and $426,674 for construction. New dry dock at South Boston, (probably the largest in world), completed in 1919, 1,200 feet long and 120 wide, costing $3,169,651 and taken by U. S. Government at total cost.

Islands in Boston Harbor over 3 acres in area, 17, with total area of 965 acres; Long Island the largest, or 215.5 acres. Owned by United States, 392 acres; by City of Boston, 334 acres. Number of wharves, 143, of which 8 are owned by the City.

There are 32 foreign steamship lines with regular sailings to and from Boston and 18 coastwise lines (5 to Pacific ports).

In 1915 a revision of the harbor lines was made and the project undertaken whereby 600 acres of flats between Governor's Island and Jeffries Point, will be filled in and used for extensive commercial developments under State control. About 175 acres of flats have recently been filled in and added to the land area of East Boston and 160 acres to that of South Boston.

In April, 1918, the Government decided to establish its Army Supply Base on a portion of the Commonwealth lands in South Boston. About 57.6 acres were purchased of the State, the price being $1,317,510, soon followed by the construction of two pier sheds, each 920 feet long, a wharf shed and other buildings, including one of the largest storehouses in the world, built of reinforced concrete, eight stories high, 1,638 feet long, 126 feet wide and with floor space of over 1,650,000 square feet. The total outlay for the plant was $26,000,000.

Total expenditures by State for improvement of Boston Harbor $22,160,342, from 1859 to 1925, inclusive; in the same period, there was expended additionally $843,676 on small channels; total Federal expenditure from 1790 to June 30, 1925 $13,046,044 (corrected figure).

NATIVES AND CITIZENS OF BOSTON AND VICINITY HONORED IN HALL OF FAME.

In the American Hall of Fame, New York City, dedicated in 1901, are inscribed on bronze tablets the names of 58 eminent men and 7 distinguished women deemed worthy of the highest honor on account of their services and attainments. Of the 65 individuals thus selected (up to 1925 inclusive) by an electorate of 100 leading Americans, 27 were natives or for some time citizens of Boston or vicinity. The names of the latter are as follows:

Chosen in 1900—John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, William Ellery Channing, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Daniel Webster, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Horace Mann, Nathaniel Hawthorne, George Peabody, Samuel Finley Breese Morse, Joseph Story, Asa Gray, Gilbert Stuart—total, 13.

Chosen in 1905—John Quincy Adams, James Russell Lowell, John Greenleaf Whittier—total, 3.

Chosen in 1910—Edgar Allan Poe, Oliver Wendell Holmes, George Bancroft, John Lothrop Motley, Phillips Brooks—total, 5.

Chosen in 1915—Louis Agassiz, Francis Parkman, Rufus Choate, Charlotte Cushman—total, 4.

Chosen in 1920—William Thomas Green Morton, Alice Freeman Palmer. Five additional names every fifth year are to be selected and inscribed until the year 2000, when the 150 tablets in the colonnade will be complete.

No Bostonian was selected in 1925.

If those who were natives or residents elsewhere in the State are added to the list, the following 7 names increase the total to 34 for Massachusetts or more than half the whole number, viz.: William Cullen Bryant, Jonathan Edwards, Mark Hopkins, Elias Howe, Eli Whitney, Maria Mitchell, Mary Lyon.

If all New England is included, 4 more names will bring up the total to 38 or 58.46 per cent of whole number chosen, these being Roger Williams, Henry Ward Beecher, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Emma Willard.

MAYOR GREETED LOST BATTALION "SAVIOUR."

Mayor Nichols on November 28 received Abraham Krotoshinsky, known as the "Saviour" of the Lost Battalion. Mr. Krotoshinsky was a member of Company K, 307th Infantry of the 77th Division, better known as the "Liberty" Division. He is visiting Boston as a guest of the Herbert J. Wolfe Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The well-known soldier discussed the battle from which he derived his name and autographed the Mayor's guest book.

ADDRESS OF HIS HONOR THE MAYOR, MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE RETAIL TRADE BOARD AT THE HOTEL STATLER ON MONDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 28, 1927, ON THE SUBJECT, "THE PROBLEMS OF THE CITY AS RELATED TO THE RETAIL BUSINESS."

MR. CHAIRMAN AND MEMBERS OF THE RETAIL TRADE BOARD.

The city in which you transact your business presents a complex of all the problems with which your business has to reckon. That is an expression in the broadest sense of the meaning which the city has for you. You are men representing a commercial enterprise which carries on a gross trade valued at about one million dollars a day. Half of this trade is in the largest department stores.

Of course you wish and should enjoy every advantage that the city can offer, not only in the administration of its public utilities, but also in its great influence to promote the general welfare.

The great retail stores whose business men are assembled here are as progressive and upstanding as any in the world. The establishments which they represent are known from one part of the country to the other. I think the best stores in the country are to be found in Boston and they naturally have a vital interest in the problems of the city.

SERVICE IS STANDARD FOR CITY.

Many of these problems are difficult and I am sorry to say not sufficiently understood. At the bottom, however, they rest upon a broad foundation which ought to be understandable. This broad foundation is first of all essentially one of service. The city ought to serve to the best of its ability every man, woman and child and all those who do business in it or through it, and the expense of such service ought to be reasonable. Promptness, thoroughness, economy are three requisites without which the best service cannot be rendered. You know this with the transaction of your own business, as I know it in the transaction of public business.

Your problems, however, are of a different nature from city problems. Your stores are conducted for the purpose of making a profit. That profit depends upon the quality of the service which you give your customers. The city is not in the business of making a profit. It is conducted for the business of service alone. The success of the city is therefore to be measured by the greatest amount of benefit which it can confer.

The operation of a private business, therefore, differs profoundly from the operation of city business. Thus it follows that a good business man does not necessarily make a good politician. Still,

BUYS CAMELS FOR FRANKLIN PARK ZOO.

Mayor Nichols announced on November 30 that he approved the purchase of two mating camels which will make their permanent residence in the Zoo at Franklin Park right next door to the dromedaries. These camels were purchased from Haekenbaek Brothers of Hamburg at a cost of $2,250.

Although the camels did not arrive at Franklin Park until yesterday they have been in this country for several months. When they arrived here they were immediately shipped to Littleton, Mass., where they were put in quarantine which is required by the Federal Government.

Now that they have passed all the necessary tests and have been pronounced physically perfect they will spend the rest of their days being the cynosure of the visitors at the Zoo.

The Mayor stated that the humped quadrupeds have not been christened as yet and he is open to suggestions.

ADDRESS OF MAYOR.

I have seen men successful in commercial life who thought it an easy thing to succeed in a public career. But I never met a business man who would unhesitatingly leave to a politician the conduct of his business.

The first service you are naturally interested in is the protection of your property against loss by theft or destruction by fire. One of the first of the matters to engross my attention was the inadequacy of police protection, and I provided for three hundred additional patrolmen at a cost of approximately half a million dollars a year. Secondly, I appointed a Fire Commissioner with specific instructions to reorganize his department with special emphasis on fire prevention. The improvement in the Police Department has been marked since these additional men were added. The reorganized Fire Department has in one year cut fire losses to the extent of at least a quarter of a million dollars. Third, I appointed a Building Commissioner with instructions to reorganize his department in an effort to protect the city from weak buildings and from new structures not erected in conformity with law. I believe at this time we have the most effective building department in the country. Fourth, I have given especial attention to the public health and can say with a great deal of pride that our health organization is second to none in this world.

A CITY KNOWN BY ITS STREETS.

The foregoing activities relate intimately to the most emphatic needs of the community. They have a marked relationship upon the business and trade of a great metropolis. They are associated with other activities set up within the past year. First the hospitalization of the city has been effectively reorganized with the assistance of the City Hospital trustees. Second, an intensive study of traffic conditions is being carried on by a well equipped committee under the best expert advice obtainable. Third, the question of fire insurance rates, which are exceedingly high in this city, is being investigated by a competent committee which will present a careful analysis of the cost of fire insurance and the underlying causes of fire losses.

The subject of streets and highways is so important that it deserves to be spoken of in a class by itself. This year we are spending about one million and a quarter on streets. The street program, is, I think, one of the most comprehensive that the city has ever undertaken. A city is known by its streets. If we have poor streets we have the appearance of being a poor city. Nothing could be farther from the truth about Boston. In wealth and prosperity we are in the first rank. Our highways should spell prosperity. The opportunity is not here presented to deal fully with the work of the city on the streets. But I ask you to take a look at Boylston street and Tremont street, at Park square, at Washington street, at Columbus avenue, at Kneeland street, at Faneuil Hall square, and realize that the work shown here at your door is being done all over the city.

Closely related to the subject of streets is the sewer work of the city for which one million dollars was made available this year, as well as last year with an additional half a million this year for pumping station facilities at East Boston. Also closely related to streets is the problem of cleaning and snow removal, in which the city has made a record to be proud of. These are services peculiarly beneficial to a business like your own which needs smooth and clean streets.

All these things cost money. They have a tendency to cost more money every year. That is why the problem of financial management in a great metropolis like our own is one of increasing difficulties. The burdens imposed by the war were such that Boston and other American cities did an insufficient amount of work on their public utilities. I do not believe that for years the tax rate of this city was adequate to meet the demands made upon the public service. We needed more policemen. We needed reasonable pay for laborers; more money for streets; more money for schoolhouse construction; more money for teachers' salaries; more money for pensions; more money for hospitals; more money for high state assessments. The old tax rates could not pay the bills and render service. The new tax rate did render service such as this city required, and I have never heard a complaint that the proper service was not provided.

TRUTH ABOUT TAX RATES.

There is a good deal of misunderstanding about tax rates. A city with a low tax rate whose debt is excessive, and whose service is poor, is not usually the best place in which to live and do business. Nevertheless, we hear sweeping praise for cities and towns with a low tax rate. I know a city not one thousand miles away whose tax rate is attractively low, but I do not think any of you would regard it as the best place to settle.

Since 1916 the personal expenditures of us all have about doubled. Is it surprising, therefore, to find that the maintenance of cities has about doubled? Since 1916 state expenditures have increased at about the same ratio as city expenditures, and the executive work of the state is simple compared to that of any municipality.

As individuals we have a more direct and personal relationship to a city than to a state administration. We make our demands at City Hall. Here these demands become a part of our municipal affairs. The conduct of these affairs is subject to a varied expression of opinion. However, the opinion may run it is a fact, as shown by the low rate at which the bonds of the city are marketed, that Boston enjoys a position in the world of credit second to no other great American city. I sometimes find Boston compared with other cities in the matter of expenditures. The peculiar organization of this city affecting its finances makes any comparison of little value. We pay out of our tax levy all of the schoolhouse construction, and since 1916 that has reached a total of nearly twenty-seven millions. The custom in practically every city, except our own, is to pay for schoolhouses out of bond issues.

The City of Boston pays for a park and boulevard system in addition to her own. It may interest you to know that our payments toward this system up to the present amount to nearly twenty millions. This represents the contribution of Boston to the construction and the maintenance of metropolitan parks, only a negligible portion of which are within the area of the city.

Our street traffic problem is not merely the problem of a city of eight hundred thousand people, but the problem of a city of nearly two million people.

The City Hospital upon which three millions for additions are being spent, with a further program of three million dollars to follow, receives as many applications for admission from the sick who live outside the city, as the sick who live within the city.

I could go into many departments of the city and indicate to you that much of our yearly maintenance is due, not merely to peculiarities in finance, but to the taking on of burdens which no other municipality assumes, for the reason that the City of Boston, standing by itself, actually performs municipal services requisite for a city double her size. Of course, I recognize that Boston, as a business center of the metropolitan city, has the advantage of high valuations not possessed by surrounding cities and towns. The presence of these valuations accounts for the fact that our tax rate is as low as it is. At the same time, the great value of property and the enormous volume of business transacted within the city make necessary incomparably greater municipal expenditures with a much greater per capita rate. It is really surprising under the circumstances that the maintenance of city departments has not shown an increase much greater than the one hundred and one per cent increase shown since 1916.

ECONOMY AND PARSIMONY.

If there is much misunderstanding regarding municipal tax rates, there is much more misunderstanding regarding the meaning of the word economy. My experience has led me to believe that most critics who demand economy really are asking for parsimony. I do not believe in parsimony. I do believe in economy. Debt incurred for an unwise purpose is unwise debt, but debt which represents a substantial increase to the plant of the city is both wise and profitable.

During my first year as Mayor I vetoed over three million dollars in proposals for public buildings for which no reasonable argument could be made. I also discouraged nearly ten million dollars more in other proposals which never officially reached me. I deemed it unwise to sanction a number of street widenings and extensions, before the traffic survey now being conducted would be available to show where such widenings and extensions could advantageously be made. I had before me the example of another American city which had expended many millions in street work for the relief of traffic, only to find that traffic congestion was worse than before. I suppose it would be conservative to say that since I have been Mayor one hundred million dollars in improvements have been urged upon the city, but it has seemed to me that the city had better meet some of its more recently acquired outstanding obligations before the consideration of further projects.

New projects not only add to the city debt, but they are almost immediately reflected in the tax rate. Since 1910 there has been a decrease of three and three-quarter millions in the net debt of the city exclusive of the rapid transit debt which is self supporting. Were it not for the presence of eleven millions in debt arising from major street widenings and extensions, such as Stuart street, Cambridge and Court streets, Tremont street, Kneeland street, Faneuil Hall and Dock squares, our decrease in the net debt would have been about fourteen millions. I doubt if any other large city in the world could show so conservative a record in the handling of its debt.

Moreover, I do not believe that it will be possible for this city to meet the obligations it owes to its own commercial supremacy without adding in the near future to its present net debt. In other words, the city must spend money in order to do business. It can go along by traffic regulations to handle hundreds of thousands of persons in and out of automobiles, and to move great quantities of merchandise, but it must go still farther and continue the modest street program of the past few years. This necessity has already received considerable recognition. Work is now being done on the widening of Ashland and Oakland streets, between Mattapan and Roslindale. River street, between Mattapan and Hyde Park, is being reconstructed. This work on both streets is to cost in the neighborhood of three quarters of a million dollars and will provide great traffic thoroughfares in the extreme westerly districts of the city. The relocation of streets in the vicinity of Sullivan square at comparatively little cost will relieve traffic congestion at that point. The equipment of many great business arteries with permanent paving is work equal in commercial importance to the construction of new thoroughfares.

OVERHEAD EXTENSION OF NORTHERN ARTERY.

When I became Mayor there was pending before the Legislature the so-called intermediate thoroughfare, the estimated cost of which was in excess of thirty million dollars. I was not convinced that the intermediate thoroughfare solved the traffic problem confronting the city and it was not only my opinion that the cost was so high as to make us consider well before entering upon the undertaking, but also that if we were to construct the thoroughfare the Metropolitan District ought to share in its cost.

My opinion about it is now as it was then, except that I believe it possible to work out a practical solution at about one third the cost. As a step in this direction I have approved a measure to provide for the connection of Nashua street with the Northern Artery and the widening of both Nashua and Causeway streets. I am now informed by the Metropolitan Planning Division and by the City Planning Board that it would be possible to connect this new thoroughfare with an overhead street to be built on the elevated structure at the North Station and to continue this overhead street to a point near Arlington square. I am advised moreover that there is to be presented in the next General Court a measure for the construction of an overhead street over the tracks of the Boston and Albany, connecting with the Atlantic avenue overhead thoroughfare, thereby making a loop from the Northern Artery around the city over to Cottage Farm Bridge. I was asked if I would assent to the introduction of this bill in the Legislature and I replied that I would.

There ought to be a widening of Dorchester avenue for the purpose of creating a broad thoroughfare connecting with Old Colony Boulevard at Columbia road, thereby making a connection between the overhead street at Atlantic avenue and the South Shore. A further street widening at Hampden street should be made to connect Albany street with Blue Hill avenue. These projects involve the expenditure of not less than fifteen millions. They are vastly more comprehensive than the proposed intermediate thoroughfare.

HIGHWAY PLAN—A METROPOLITAN PROBLEM.

An obvious factor in the traffic situation is the creation by the state of great boulevards carrying thousands of automobiles into the city where streets are insufficient both in width and in length. Indeed traffic has been carried to the city in such volume that the city has been unable to undertake the enormous expense required to take care of it. No one scheme that I have ever seen has presented so complete a program for the rapid handling of traffic as the one just outlined. This development is really an extension of the Northern Artery. Its benefit to the entire metropolitan district is such that it is only fair to ask for an apportionment of the cost between the state or the district and the city. This could be done by the use of the highway fund, or by assessments on the entire district, or by the enactment and allocation of a gasoline tax among all the cities of the Commonwealth. In many ways all of the cities of the Commonwealth have a traffic problem as serious to them as ours to us, and they also need assistance. By all means I would have a gasoline tax and give all the cities in the Commonwealth the benefit of it.

The ferry service between East Boston and the mainland is at a point where it cannot handle the great traffic imposed upon it. Probably one million dollars could be spent upon the ferries at this time with comparatively little benefit. The deficit every year is in excess of three quarters of a million dollars, and in the future only larger and heavier boats will be able to carry the great loads which are expected of it. It seems to me, therefore, more economical to consider the advantages of a bridge or tunnel between East Boston and the mainland. I favor the construction of either bridge or tunnel, but have seen no practical way of meeting the cost except by private control with toll charges. If such a measure should come before me from the Legislature with reasonable protection to the city, I should deem it my duty to approve it. Meanwhile, ferry tolls should be raised to lighten the burden of every Boston taxpayer.

People make values. There can be no city values without crowds. This city wants people to come here, to live here, to transact their business here. I favor any practical method of bringing people to Boston. In our Park Department we have gymnasia, bathing facilities, playgrounds, parks and boulevards that are the envy of every American city. Our park system is publicly praised by the President of the United States. In our athletic instruction we excel. In our health units we are distinctive. There is nothing like our system of preventive medicine anywhere. In health work, district nursing and hospitalization we have no equal. Every citizen and everybody who comes to Boston to earn a living gets more for his money than he does elsewhere. All this attracts people here, it all helps bring people to this city and when they are here, they find the most attractive retail stores on the continent.

BOSTON SEEKS BIG BUSINESS.

I favor every practical plan to bring people here; that is why I favor a great Stadium and a great Auditorium. It is why I have advocated consistently every measure that will bring business here. We want more business, more big business. It is why I want to co-operate with the retail stores and such fine trade organizations as the Boston Chamber of Commerce and its Maritime Association in multiplying the business activities of the city.

The city took the deepest interest in appearing before the Shipping Board where I went personally to urge the assignment of the South American Republic Line ships to this city, and I am very glad to say that the line is more successful here than at New York City. May I say to you that it wants export trade. I hope that every business man will see how far he can go in sending his shipments from the Port of Boston.

The city wants to see its own airport developed and hopes that it can assist in making the airport serviceable in a commercial way so that at the earliest practicable moment we can ask the United States to construct the most northern air route here to Albany, where it will form a direct connection with Chicago and the West.

The city has joined the Chamber of Commerce in asking for a rail rate to place Boston on a parity with Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk. We are also co-operating in an effort to obtain equitable ocean freight rates for Boston. The city only wants to know where it can be serviceable, particularly in such an emergency as arose a few weeks ago when the city was instrumental in bringing to the Charlestown Navy Yard the ship "Triumph" for work involving a million and a quarter at a time when the Navy Yard was threatened with a shut down.

RAPID TRANSIT—GOVERNOR SQUARE.

Particular mention should be made of rapid transit. Its importance to the city cannot be over-estimated. We were the first city in the world to institute rapid transit. Since the Tremont Street Subway was opened in 1897 the valuations of the city have increased by about one billion dollars. Perhaps this was not all due to any one cause, but it is a fact that hand in hand with a quick transportation of passengers there came the greatest increase of valuation with any period of time in the history of the city. Only a few days ago, we opened the Fields Corner Extension. The city has made every effort to get the work started at Governor square. I am more confident than ever that suitable provision can be made this year. It is my hope that a comprehensive transit measure will pass the Legislature to accomplish this and other desirable rapid transit extensions.

A greater city would help the retail stores. It would first help by improving the basis of a better understanding through which all metropolitan improvements could be more expeditiously managed. Rapid transit is one of the most important of such improvements, so important, I believe, that no effort should be spared to procure quick and safe transportation of thousands of persons in and out of the business district. The highway question is no longer localized among thirty-nine cities and towns. It is a great metropolitan question. Fire protection is also metropolitan in character. Police, likewise. Indeed the number of metropolitan questions is constantly growing, and will really, in time, compel a more general recognition than we have ever had before.

REAL STRENGTH OF BOSTON.

There are two separate and distinct conceptions of Boston in the minds of people living at some distance. One conception relates to the Boston of fact and the other to the Boston of history and romance.

Boston will always hold her place in the story of our country; will always be thought of as the home of all the fine arts. In history and art her position is secure.

But there is a lack of understanding of her real strength and importance in the world of industry and commerce. The time has now come when we should all unite to bring about a universal recognition of her growing power as a flourishing and industrial metropolis of nearly two million souls. Boston should so be represented in the Federal census and she can be without depriving any city or town in the metropolitan district of its identity. For this purpose I shall reintroduce in the Legislature during the coming session a bill, which failed of passage two years ago through a misunderstanding of its real provisions. We can correct the prevailing lack of understanding about the business importance of the city and portray the city for what it is, the growing and progressive industrial and commercial Hub of New England, with the finest water front on the Atlantic seaboard, with wonderful business leadership and the best labor anywhere obtainable. We can make Boston conscious of her own strength.

In conclusion, permit me to express my deep appreciation for the courtesy extended me as Chief Magistrate of the city in inviting me to be your guest for the purpose of outlining problems of the city as they relate to retail business. I have dealt briefly with a good many of them and have not even touched upon many more of which I should like to speak if time permitted.

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your permission is hereby requested to award, without advertising, the contract for furnishing and installing four sets of elevator landing doors in Wards T and U, Burnham Building, Boston City Hospital, to the Swett & Sibley Company, their estimate being the lowest of those received. The complete list of estimates received is as follows: The Tyler Company, $1,486; Conway-Cannon Company, $1,340; the Swett & Sibley Company, $1,260.

Yours respectfully,

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Bridge Service).

Upon November 25 the Mayor approved a contract with the Boston Bridge Works, Incorporated, for repairing track castings on the draw span of the Northern Avenue Bridge. A communication from James H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, November 22, 1927.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission is requested to award a contract, in the estimated cost of approximately $3,000, to the Boston Bridge Works, Incorporated, for repairing the track castings on the draw span of Northern Avenue Bridge, without advertising for proposals.

The Boston Bridge Works are available and are the most experienced parties to perform this service. This is emergency work, due to the dislocation of the track casting on which the draw rolls.

It is necessary that these repairs be made at once in order that the bridge be kept in service.

Yours very truly,

JAMES H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Sewer Service.)

Upon November 25 the Mayor approved a contract with J. C. Coleman & Sons Company for building seven catch-basins in Washington street. A communication from James H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, November 23, 1927.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission is requested to award a contract for $2,695, without advertising, to J. C. Coleman & Sons Company for building seven catch-basins in Washington street, between Massachusetts avenue and Dover street.

The J. C. Coleman & Sons Company is the contractor repaving Washington street within the above limits, with sheet asphalt on concrete base. As this company is at work on the street, the only feasible solution is to let a contract at a reasonable price for building basins, outlets and all incidental work connected therewith.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Water Service.)

Upon November 30 the Mayor approved a contract with the C. and R. Construction Company for relocating seven high pressure gates in Kneeland street. A communication from J. H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, November 15, 1927.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission is requested to award a contract to the C. and R. Construction Company, without advertising, to relocate seven high pressure fire hydrants in Kneeland street, between Washington street and Atlantic avenue, at an estimated cost of $3,250.

Due to the character of the work it was considered inadvisable to advertise and receive bids from contractors who have had no experience on high pressure work, it being entirely different from ordinary water pipe laying. Therefore bids were invited from two contractors who are familiar with and have done high pressure work for the city. The bids submitted are:

C. and R. Construction Company, $13 per linear foot; C. M. Callahan, Incorporated, $24 per linear foot.

The estimated length of pipe to be removed and relaid is 250 linear feet.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Upon November 18 the Mayor approved a contract with McKinney Brothers for furnishing ten horses to the Public Works Department. A communication from Herbert S. Frost of the Supply Department was as follows:

BOSTON, November 18, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Under date of November 1, 1927, your Honor approved a request from this department to award a contract, without publicly advertising for same, to the Mead-Morrison Manufacturing Company for furnishing to the Ferry Service, North Ferry, one double drum electric winch at a price of $2,385

The Division Engineer feels that this machine meets the needs of his department satisfactorily, and as there is a saving in price of $110 I would respectfully request that the original permission signed under date of November 1, 1927, be canceled and that this request be accepted in lieu of same.

As the Mead-Morrison Manufacturing Company is the manufacturer, no advantage would accrue from publicly advertising for same.

HUGE BUILDING CONSTRUCTION PLANS DISCUSSED.

Mayor Nichols announced on November 23 that he had conferred with Mr. Schmidt, representative of Sears, Roebuck, upon the proposal of that company to erect a $5,000,000 building on Brookline avenue and Audubon road.

Mr. Schmidt expressed the deepest interest in the City of Boston as a prospective business place for his concern, particularly as a desirable location in which to reach all parts of New England and Canada.

The Mayor stated to Mr. Schmidt that he had been calling attention of business men for several years to the accessibility of all parts of New England from Boston and that he had made a public statement to this effect recently while in the city of Chicago. Mr. Schmidt stated that he had seen the statement and thought it pointed to the great possibilities offered by the City of Boston.

The Sears, Roebuck concern in order to erect the kind of a building that they have in mind will have to obtain a change in the zoning height limits, and the Mayor expressed the opinion that the enterprise had such merit that the Zoning Board would look with favor upon it.

The Mayor thereafter was in consultation with Building Commissioner Rourke upon this and other matters brought to the office of the Building Commissioner. At the present time, for instance, there are three proposals for building construction under consideration reaching a total of nineteen millions of dollars.

Boston University has a plan to erect a twelve million dollar group of buildings, between Ashby and Granby streets and the basin. This group is to be devoted to certain medical units. In addition, there is the petition of Durant, Incorporated, who seek the right to erect a building beyond the present zoning limits as a recreational center for women. This petition was introduced after the Zoning Board had refused to grant the application to exempt this building from the present height limits. The proposed building is valued at two million dollars.

LEGION THANKS MAYOR FOR PARIS TRIP CO-OPERATION.

Mayor Nichols has received a letter from the American Legion, Massachusetts Department, expressing their appreciation and gratitude for the co-operation which was extended by the Mayor in connection with the recent National Convention of the American Legion held in Paris.

The letter in full reads as follows:

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permit me, at this late date, in behalf of the American Legion of Massachusetts, to express to you our deep appreciation and gratitude for the wonderful co-operation extended by your Honor and the members of your official family in connection with the recent National Convention of the American Legion held at Paris, France.

The very fine program and memorial services outlined by your able Commissioner of Public Celebrations, Mr. George H. Johnson, were carried out very impressively at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Again, at the Place des Invalides, the official greetings of the City of Boston were delivered to the mutilés confined there, by Department Commander John W. Reth, as the commissioned representative of your Honor. The official banner of the City of Boston was delivered to the chief magistrate of Paris, with fitting ceremony, and the convention and attending ceremonies met with the greatest possible success.

We are grateful indeed to your Honor, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Condon, and to every member of your official family.

Sincerely yours,

DENNIS H. HAVERY,
Department Adjutant.

COLONEL LINDBERGH THANKS MAYOR AND BOSTON CITIZENS.

Mayor Nichols announced on December 8 that he had received the following letter from Col. Charles A. Lindbergh expressing his appreciation of his reception by the city.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MAYOR,—I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my deep appreciation of your kindness in presenting me with the beautiful statue "Appeal to the Great Spirit."

Also, through you, I would express my thanks for all the courtesies extended to me by the people of Boston on the occasion of my recent visit.

With renewed expression of my gratitude and with kind regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

C. A. LINDBERGH.

ADDRESS OF HIS HONOR THE MAYOR, MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, AT THE MEMORIAL EXERCISES OF BOSTON LODGE OF ELKS NO. 10, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1927, AT 11 A. M., AT THE METROPOLITAN THEATER

Saith the Psalmist:

"As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

"For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

"But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting and his righteousness unto children's children."

And the Psalmist in his prayer said all there was to say about a human life. As a worldly thing it is nothing. When touched by Divine Mercy it is life eternal. It is this life eternal we think of in such memorial exercises as these held in affection and esteem for the departed brothers of this great fraternity. Only in the thought of eternal life can we do justice to their memory.

Men are not held in affectionate regard because of wealth, nor of genius, either. The deeds of wealth and genius are indeed matters of record, but not of hallowed memory. The military leader who substitutes profound irony for simple faith will be justly celebrated but never well remembered. Memory is personal. It glows with the warmth of old friendship, of thoughts that dim the eye and tremble upon the lip. Memory is precious because it brings back noble ideals for which we respected and loved those no longer here.

It was Aristotle who defined justice as giving to every man his own. This definition went through the pagan centuries and found its place in the teachings of Christianity. It is a practical teaching. It enters into the doctrine of humility taught by Micah. Its influence is manifest in the lesson on charity taught by St. Paul. Roosevelt called it a square deal. We sometimes call it playing straight.

Being an Elk is living the kind of life that plays straight. To such a life the words charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity are words of meaning. They are positive, direct words not merely of reflection but of action.

The Order of Elks owes its great power to good works rather than to wealth or numbers. The order could command neither wealth nor numbers without good works.

The national membership of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is 925,000. Its annual relief expenditures are a huge sum. In the crisis of war and revolution the Elks in their Americanism were magnificent. Their help toward Mississippi and Florida was timely. Their aid to the New England flood sufferers has been substantial. Their social and community work continues

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.]

BUYS ELAND FOR CITY.

Mayor Nichols has approved the purchase of an eland which will cost the city $1,100. An eland is a member of the antelope family, being the largest of that type with twisted horns. Elands are particularly scarce in the United States and this animal will be a welcome addition to the visitors of the Zoo, especially for those who have never seen one.

As is the usual custom after his arrival in the United States he will be taken to the United States Quarantine Station located at Littleton where he will be inspected by the government veterinarians for the hoof and mouth disease. He will probably be quarantined there for fifteen days and then will be moved to the Zoo at Franklin Park.

The specimen which will be purchased by the city is particularly fine and only one year old and is far more valuable than any which could be imported from Africa.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HEAD CONGRATULATES MAYOR.

Mayor Nichols on December 2, received a communication from Andrew J.

Peters, former Mayor and President of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, congratulating him upon signing the order which will develop the artery leading through Nashua street to Causeway street by the North Station. The former Mayor states that through the widening and extension of Nashua street and the widening of Causeway street the relief of traffic congestion is a distinct contribution to the promotion of commerce and industry in the city. The letter reads as follows:

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MAYOR NICHOLS,—Please accept my congratulations upon your signing the order which authorizes the widening and extension of Nashua street and the widening of Causeway street. To those of us who are interested in the relief of traffic congestion and the development of down-town Boston, this project is particularly noteworthy. We feel that your action is a distinct contribution to the promotion of commerce and industry in the city.

Yours very truly,

ANDREW J. PETERS, President.

ADDRESS OF MAYOR.

throughout the year. They are ever generous in the expression of tactful and helpful sympathy toward the worthy in need.

The ritual of Elkdcm is not open to the world, but it has no secrets, unless the manifestations of its charity everywhere are not and cannot be fully told.

The Elks built their structure upon the foundation of good will. A few men gathered together in the firmness of their friendship, one for the other. This gathering of plain men united in the tie of friendship, inspired with the power of charitable impulse and quickened by the love of American institutions, waxed strong and presently became the mighty fellowship of today.

In the growth of Elkdcm there is a lesson for all. At times it seems as if warfare were the inexorable law of nature applied to all her creatures. It is the stark rule of science, but it is far from the purpose of Divine law. There is but scant truth in the survival of the fittest whose supporting doctrine is sharply limited by the universal recognition accorded among men today to the precepts of the Great Master.

To those few who believe that warfare is the rule and guide of humanity an Elk will say that under such a law civilization would be quickly swept from the earth. The greatest struggle of arms in history produced countless examples of tenderness and devotion. In the camp and on the battlefield the soldier learned the priceless worth of comradeship, and the word "buddy" became a vital part of every-day English.

"Buddy" is a synonymous term for the fundamental landmarks of Elkdcm, charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity.

Cicero remarked that those who placed too light a value upon friendship should for experiment try to get along on hatred. He was one of the greatest of pagan writers, but the way of the world had taught him the universal truth that hatred never succeeds. Men find that they cannot survive on hatred. There is no progress in the policy of head-on collisions.

In this conception there is sound philosophy, although the line of thought is too narrow to fit the beneficent uses of charity, studied and practiced by a stalwart fraternity like our own.

The world is still growing in its consciousness of the value of good works. The great lessons of the past must again be taught. Through toil and privation men must take into their hearts that which cannot be told and kept in the mind. Experience brings clear perception of truth.

A new definition of human rights is produced by great struggles among men. But throughout the years good has lived and the power for good has broadened.

The growth of Elkdcm demonstrates the expanding influence of their power. It is a power affecting the opinions and actions of many persons, making them feel that their welfare is a matter of concern to somebody. When nobody cares about anybody there is desolation and despair. When everybody cares for somebody and wishes well toward everybody there is contentment blossoming into great happiness.

There is real fellowship, characteristic of Elks. It is a fellowship of men whose thoughts and feelings are expressed in the symbols of their order, chief among which is the bright flag of our country, an emblem of intense love and undying loyalty. It is a fellowship to be held sacred in the precious thought of him who is no more, whose dear face we shall never, never see.

And thus upon this day appointed by our Order we unite to revere the memory of our departed brethren, in gratitude to the Most High for the blessing of their useful lives, and in thankfulness for an earth that is the Lord's, the fullness thereof, the world and they that dwell therein.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Sanitary Service).

Upon December 1 the Mayor approved a contract with bidders as indicated:

BOSTON, December 1, 1927.

To the Mayor of Boston:

On November 30, 1927, the following bids were received for collecting and removing ashes, store dirt, house dirt, refuse and garbage during the year 1928:

Bids Per Month.

East Boston District.—Montrose Construction Company, Incorporated, $3,850; Leo Bartello, $4,100; John J. Ward Company, $4,200.

Brighton District.—Edward J. Byrne, $6,500; Thomas J. McCue, $7,285; Joseph P. McCabe, $7,445; Francis P. Donovan, $7,700; D. M. Biggs & Co., $10,900; John J. Loonie, $15,000.

West Roxbury District.—William F. Cuddy, $4,150; M. De Matteo, $4,349; John J. Moore Company, $4,390.65; M. McGinnis & Co., $4,950; M. Doyle & Co., Incorporated, $5,000.

Dorchester District.—Coleman Brothers, Incorporated, $17,800; Edward J. Byrne, $18,200; J. C. Coleman & Sons Company, $18,400; D. M. Biggs & Co., $21,450; M. H. Loonie Construction Company, Incorporated, $21,750.

Hyde Park District.—William F. Cuddy, $1,200; Thomas E. Bryan, $1,400.

In the East Boston district I recommend that the award be made to the lowest bidder, the Montrose Construction Company, Incorporated, whose bid is $3,850 per month.

In the Brighton district I recommend that the award be made to the lowest bidder, Edward J. Byrne, whose bid is $6,500 per month.

In the West Roxbury district I recommend that the award be made to the John J. Moore Company, whose bid is $4,390.65 per month. The lowest bidder, William F. Cuddy, did not submit check of sufficient amount as called for in the proposal. The second lowest bidder, M. De Matteo, whose bid is only $51 less than that of the John J. Moore Company, has never had a contract of this kind before and I think that the city will be justified in giving the contract to the Moore Company because of the excellent service they have given in the past, and not to take any chances with the new man for this district.

In the Dorchester district I recommend that the award be made to Coleman Brothers, Incorporated, the lowest bidder, whose bid is $17,800 per month.

In the Hyde Park district, I recommend that the award be made to William F. Cuddy, the lowest bidder, whose bid was $1,200 per month.

Respectfully yours,
JAMES H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Sanitary Service).

Upon December 1 the Mayor approved contract with various bidders as indicated for the removal of snow and ice in various districts. In respect thereto the following communications have been received from James H. Sullivan of the Public Works Department:

BOSTON, November 30, 1927.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission is requested to award a contract, without advertising, to J. J. McCarthy Company, in excess of $1,000, to remove snow and ice from the streets and avenues in Snow District 1, from December 1, 1927, to December 31, 1927, with the privilege on the part of the city of extending until May 1, 1928, providing sufficient appropriation is made by the city government, the price to be paid for each cubic yard being 55 cents.

It is uncertain how much will be spent on this contract, as it is entirely contingent on the snowfall. The price, in my opinion, is a reasonable one and is substantially the same as obtained last year after advertisement; and the contractor selected is equipped to do the work in a satisfactory manner, having had contracts for similar work in previous years.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7 (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the New Style calendar in 1752 to September 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

PLEADS FOR JUST OCEAN RATES FOR BOSTON.

Mayor Nichols announced on December 3 that he had sent the following communication to the United States Shipping Board, Washington, D. C., in further reference to the matter of the ocean freight differential case of Boston heard by the United States Shipping Board on Wednesday, November 30, 1927.

UNITED STATES SHIPPING BOARD, WASHINGTON, D. C.

GENTLEMEN,—Many sound arguments have been presented to you for an adjustment of ocean rates to place the Port of Boston in a position of equality in the shipment of freight from central freight association territory to European ports. Our national policy has been to encourage a flow of export business through all our ports, as such a policy is helpful to the exporter in keeping open all avenues for his ocean shipment. Of course it is of vital concern to the Port of Boston which before the war had from the steamship lines ocean rates comparable to those now asked for. We have unsurpassed port facilities and are in a much better position to handle export freight than ever before.

The technical features of our case have been presented to you by Mr. Silverman of our Law Department, acting by my instructions, but I should like to add this personal word to what has been said. I wish it had been possible for me to attend the hearing last Wednesday, and to say that this city desires to do everything in its power to encourage the shipping of commodities through this port and that the city officially takes a deep pride in its activity to bring back to the port the old-time prestige which Boston once enjoyed in world commerce.

I am mindful of the consideration of your Board in allocating the South American line ships to the Port of Boston and am confident of the success of these ships. I hope that you may find it possible to grant the petition of Boston in the ocean-rate case.

With many thanks for your courtesy, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

GERMAN PRESIDENT ASKS MAYOR'S AID IN LOCATING LEGACY.

The City of Boston will be $1,000 richer if it is able to find three barrels of gold, according to a letter which was received by Mayor Nichols from Germany.

An unusual communication written by I. Gunkel from Papenburg, Germany, states that in 1852 Mr. Gunkel's father, who lived in Wingerode, near Heilighenthal, received a notice from the Prussian Government in Cassel that he had fallen heir to a legacy in America of three barrels of gold. The notice stated that the date of payment would be announced after the claimants had established their identity, but up to date no notice has been received.

Recent inquiry, says Mr. Gunkel, at Berlin and Cassel resulted only in the statement that no documents in relation to this matter could be found. The Cassel authorities suggested that the then Prussian Government may have received the legacy and that the papers in the case were lost.

He also states that the legacy comes from two brothers of his grandfather by the same name but he has no idea where in America they lived or died. He says that according to private inquiries the Gunkel brothers were supposed to live in Boston and to have owned some factories here.

"If through your efforts I should come into possession of my legacy I will give to the city government the sum of $1,000 in cash" is the last paragraph of Gunkel's letter.

MAYOR RECEIVES NOTED THEATRICAL STARS.

Mayor Nichols on December 1 received Miss Olga Cook, leading lady of the "My Maryland" Company, Alexander W. Callan, the leading man of the same company, and Miss May Dowling, business representative of the company. They were accompanied by Daniel J. Kane, exalted ruler of the Boston Lodge of Elks, Joseph N. Shafer, George E. Curran and Charles Van, chairman of the Memorial Services Committee of the Boston Lodge of Elks.

Mayor Nichols also received four members of the Rang Tang Company, which is playing in Boston at the present time. The visitors were Ford T. Dabney, Flourney E. Miller, A. L. Lyles and Clarence Cummins.

ORDERS OF ADDITION.

SCHOOLHOUSE DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor has approved the issuance of the following orders of addition:

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $25,492.80, to the contract of Matthew Cummings Company for the erection and completion of the new Horace Mann School, Dearborn District. This amount is required to cover the cost of open blasting of rock up to October 28, 1927. Up to that date 1,062.2 cubic yards of rock have been taken out, and from the cost of this work has been deducted the cost of 1,062.2 cubic yards of earth excavation, as provided in the contract.

The issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $1,011.26, to the contract of New England Iron Works Company for repairing and retubing boilers in various schools.

This work of repairing and retubing boilers is done each year, and the amount of repair work called for in the contract is always an approximation, since conditions are shown, on opening up the boilers, that are not evident on a superficial examination. In this case the work proved more expensive by the amount named above than was originally reported as necessary by the inspectors of the insurance company.

MAYOR APPEALS FOR WORK FOR NAVY YARD.

Mayor Nichols announced on December 7 that he had forwarded a telegram to Washington on the question of additional work for the Navy Yard.

In 1926 Secretary Wilbur recommended to the Naval Affairs Committee that thirteen battleships be modernized and Congress enacted legislation providing for the modernization of six of these. Of these six ships two went to Norfolk, two to Philadelphia and two to Boston.

Of the thirteen recommended by the secretary two more ships were authorized by the last Congress but owing to the failure of the Deficiency Bill the money was not made available. These two ships were assigned, one to Philadelphia and one to Norfolk and the present Deficiency Bill now before Congress calls for the authorization of an appropriation for these two ships.

The Mayor has urged upon Washington the importance of making provision in the present Naval Affairs Committee report for authorization to modernize the five remaining battleships and also of the need for one of these ships being assigned to Boston.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

In accordance with which, it is hereby ordered that the said Patrolman Joseph R. Coutu perform two hundred and ten hours' punishment duty.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

EXCEEDING OF APPROPRIATION FOR REPAIRS ON WASHINGTON SCHOOL.

The following communication was received:

Law Department

November 7, 1927.

Miss Ellen M. Cronin,
Secretary, School Committee,
15 Beacon Street, Boston.

Dear Madam:

I have your letter of October 26th in which the School Committee states that the Schoolhouse Commission proceeded to do work on the Washington School beyond the appropriation available at the time and now seeks to have the School Committee make the additional appropriation to cover the deficit incurred. The Schoolhouse Commission in its communication to the School Committee advised that Board that an emergency existed which required the immediate completion of the addition without waiting for the additional appropriation. The Committee now asks to be advised whether the Schoolhouse Commission had a legal right to proceed further when it was known that the Washington School addition could not be completed within the appropriation which had been made by the School Committee for the purpose. Your Committee also asks "with whom lies the determination of a case of extreme emergency involving the health or safety of the people or their property as provided in section 16, chapter 486 of the City Charter, when the project is the erection or remodeling of a school building."

By the provisions of Sec. 2 of C. 473 of the acts of 1901 the Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners is authorized to provide temporary school accommodations; make, alter and approve designs and plans for school purposes, erect, complete, alter, repair, furnish and prepare yards and school buildings, and make contracts and select architects for doing this work. This section further provides that the Schoolhouse Commissioners shall not incur any expense for any purpose beyond the amount authorized under sec. 4 of this same act, in addition to the sums which may be appropriated by the School Committee for these purposes. Sec. 4 of the act provides for the raising of money for the work to be done by the Schoolhouse Commission by the issuance and selling of bonds.

C. 473 of the acts of 1901 was amended by c. 376 of the acts of 1904. These acts provide that the provisions of c. 266 of the acts of 1885 and all other acts relating to the departments of the City of Boston or the officers or employees thereof in so far as they may be applicable and not inconsistent herewith, shall apply to the Schoolhouse Department and to the officials and employees thereof.

These provisions in substance make the Schoolhouse Department, its officers, and employees, subject to the provisions of the City Charter and its amendments.

Sec. 16 of c. 486 of the acts of 1909 (Amended City Charter) provides that,—

"No official of said city, except in case of extreme emergency involving the health or safety of the people or their property, shall expend intentionally in any fiscal year any sum in excess of the appropriations duly made in accordance with law, nor involve the city in any contract for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriation, except as provided in section six of this act. Any official who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or both."

This section is not inconsistent with the provisions of c. 473 of the acts of 1901, as amended by c. 376 of the acts of 1904, which provide that the Schoolhouse Commission shall not incur any expense beyond the amount appropriated by the School Committee. It is entirely consistent with these statutes and merely makes an additional provision for cases of extreme emergency. Sec. 16 by its terms applies to all city officials and, of course, applies to the Schoolhouse Commissioners, who are city officials. The Schoolhouse Commissioners are authorized by law to make certain expenditures of money appropriated by the School Committee. In the case of schools the School Committee is the appropriating authority and its appropriating powers are similar to those of the City Council, in its capacity as the appropriating body for municipal expenditures. The Schoolhouse Commissioners, in making their expenditures, must comply with and are subject to all the statutes applicable to other municipal officers. It during the progress of the construction, erection or alteration of school buildings an extreme emergency arises which requires the expenditure of money beyond the amount appropriated by the School Committee in order to protect the health or safety of the people or their property, the Schoolhouse Commission is authorized to proceed at once to obviate or eliminate such emergency at any cost and it need not wait for an additional appropriation by the School Committee. The Schoolhouse Commissioners are the ones to determine whether the extreme emergency exists. They are the officials in charge of the construction or alteration work and theirs is the responsibility. They need not wait for any one nor yield to any one else's judgment in such case. The city government is required by law to pay all bills incurred in obviating or eliminating an emergency whether or not an appropriation is available when the bills are presented for payment.

I advise you, therefore, that the Schoolhouse Commission had the legal right to proceed to complete the Washington School addition even though it could not be completed within the available appropriation, if such completion was necessary to avoid an extreme emergency if such emergency was within the contemplation of sec. 16 of the Amended Charter, and whether such an extreme emergency existed is for the Schoolhouse Commissioners to determine and not for the School Committee. Of course, the Schoolhouse Commissioners cannot under any circumstances decide that an extreme emergency exists. If there is an abuse of their judgment and discretion and if they are circumventing the law by calling a situation an extreme emergency when, as a matter of fact, no emergency existed, the Schoolhouse Commissioners subject themselves to the penalties contained in sec. 16 of the Amended Charter. Sec. 16 must be construed to require all city officials to keep within the available appropriations and to exceed them only when the lives and property of the people are in danger. There must be an extreme emergency where delay is not possible and where a perilous situation has presented itself which will result in disaster and destruction if the situation is not remedied at once.

Many such instances might occur, such as the collapsing of a roof, breaking of water pipe, the cracking or sinking of a foundation wall, discovery of an unstable base under a building in the process of construction or one that is already constructed. Such situations might require immediate expenditures of money to avoid the danger of loss of life or property. Sec. 16 was intended to apply to such cases only. Mere convenience, change of judgment, more practicability or possible saving by change of plans do not warrant expenditures in excess of available appropriations. They cannot be considered extreme emergencies within the meaning of sec. 16 of the Amended Charter.

Very truly yours,
Frank S. Deland,
Corporation Counsel.

Placed on file.

In connection with the foregoing ruling of the Law Department, Mr. O'Hare pointed out that although under the law the School Committee is the appropriating power, the Committee actually has but little control over expenditures, either in the erection of school buildings by the Schoolhouse Commissioners or in the awards of land damages by the Street Commissioners. He is of the opinion that the law should be amended so as to give to the School Committee more control over expenditures or else divorce the two departments. The present arrangement does not work to the advantage of either department.

Mr. Sullivan stated that he is and has been always of the opinion that the Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners should be under the control of the School Committee, but he believes that the present situation, though anomalous, is far better than it would be were the Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners to be completely divorced from the School Committee.

The Superintendent offered the following:

ORDERED, That John C. Brodhead, Assistant Superintendent, is hereby authorized to attend the second annual convention of the American Vocational Association, to be held in Los Angeles, California, from Dec. 17 to 20, 1927, inclusive, at an expense to the city not to exceed three hundred and fifty dollars ($350).

Passed, Mr. Sullivan voting in the negative.

In explanation of his action, Mr. Sullivan stated that he feels that the Committee may well begin to economize in expenditures for attendance at educational conventions and believes that an equivalent value may be obtained by the reading of the literature which results from these educational meetings. Furthermore, and apart from the cost, he realizes that because the assistant superintendents are now so burdened, they are not able to spend as much time in the schools as they would wish to spend. He feels that Mr. Brodhead's services are valuable here and that the schools should not be deprived of them, even for this limited period.

TREMONT STREET IMPROVEMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, November 28, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the City Auditor relative to an additional appropriation for the Tremont Street Improvement, the purpose of the appropriation being to permit the city to properly close this account for the year. In accordance with the request of the auditor, I submit herewith a loan order providing for the appropriation of $180,000 inside the debt limit of the city and respectfully recommend passage of the order by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Auditing Department,
November 28, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—You are respectfully notified that there is a cash deficit of $142,911.05 on account of the appropriation for Tremont Street Improvement. This is due to the payment of executions of court, in accordance with chapter 36, section 2 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, which provides that the city treasurer "shall on presentation pay every execution against the city, when duly certified as correct by the law department, even if the appropriation to which the execution is chargeable is not sufficient to meet it."

It is difficult to estimate the total amount that will be required to pay claims now outstanding and suits pending in court as well as charges for expert service in connection therewith.

In order to close the accounts for the financial year and to provide for the deficit already existing, you are respectfully requested to submit a loan order to the City Council for $180,000, inside of the debt limit, with a recommendation for its early adoption.

Respectfully yours,
RUPERT S. CARVEN, City Auditor.

Ordered, That the sum of $180,000 be and the same hereby is appropriated to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners for the laying out, widening and construction of Tremont street, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

WARDROOM, WARD 3.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, November 17, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Superintendent of Public Buildings, in answer to your order of October 31, 1927, requesting the setting aside for wardroom purposes for Ward 3, the hall in the building situated on Bulfinch street, owned by the City of Boston, and now used as an armory.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Buildings Department,
November 11, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Replying to the inclosed order of the City Council that the Superintendent of Public Buildings be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to set aside for wardroom purposes for Ward 3, the hall in the building situated on Bulfinch street, owned by the City of Boston and now used as an armory, I wish to say that the room referred to is now occupied by the Third Battalion, Three Hundred Seventy-Second Infantry, M. N. G. Section 39 of the Militia Laws, State of Massachusetts, states that cities and towns must provide a suitable hall for drill purposes for the various units located therein, provided there is not a first-class armory located in said town. The fact is that there are at least two first-class armories located in Boston and it seems to me that the City of Boston should not be obliged to furnish this armory for the use of any military company, in keeping with the phraseology of the law.

Personally, I am in hearty accord with the order passed by the City Council and feel that some arrangements should be made whereby the state would be obliged to provide other quarters for these organizations.

There is another feature in connection therewith, namely, that the City of Boston is also obliged to provide wardrooms for public meetings and the ordinance so states, that if such wardrooms are not provided, if five legal voters of any ward will make application for the use of a hall in their district, the City of Boston would be obliged to hire a place for their meeting, regardless of all other conditions.

In consideration of the foregoing, I would suggest that the Law Department, City of Boston, be consulted as to its rights in the premises.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN P. ENGLERT,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

Paced on file.

ELVEN ROAD.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, November 22, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner of Public Works, in answer to your order of November 14, 1927, relative to an estimate of the cost of extending Elven road to Hyde Park avenue with underpass under the line of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
November 21, 1927.

To the Honorable the Mayor.

I return order of the City Council, requesting an estimate of the cost of extending Elven road to Hyde Park avenue with underpass under the line of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, and report that the estimated cost is $130,000.

The extension does not appear practical. The head room under the railroad is limited, due to the topography of the surrounding area. The flood line of Stony brook governs the surface drainage to the extent that the underpass would be limited to pedestrians. An underpass for pedestrians would require about nine feet of head room, while one for vehicles and pedestrians would require at least twelve feet,—three feet lower. At the lower grade there would be three feet of water during flood times or excessive rainstorms.

Yours very truly,
J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Placed on file.

SALE OF LAND, MANNING STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, November 26, 1927.
To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Inclosed find an order authorizing his Honor the Mayor, in the name and behalf of the city, to sell at public auction at an upset price of five hundred dollars ($500) all of the right, title and interest the city has in and to a parcel of land situate on the northerly side of Manning street, at the corner of Berry street, in West Roxbury, containing 7,150 square feet of land, more or less, and to execute a deed of the same to the purchaser in form satisfactory to the Law Department.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, November 26, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Inclosed find message and order to the City Council authorizing his Honor the Mayor to sell at public auction, at an upset price of five hundred dollars, all of the right, title and interest which the city has in and to the parcel of land situate on the northerly side of Manning street, at the corner of Berry street, West Roxbury, containing 7,150 square feet of land, more or less, and to execute a deed of the same to the purchaser in form satisfactory to the Law Department.

The Park Department of the City of Boston in a letter to you dated October 21, 1927, stated that the parcel of land herein referred to is no longer needed for public purposes.

Mr. Edward T. Kelly, chairman of the Board of Assessors of the City of Boston, in a letter to you dated September 29, 1927, has stated that in his opinion $500 is a fair upset price to fix for the land.

Yours very truly,
FRANK S. DELAND,
Corporation Counsel.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is authorized, in the name and behalf of the city, to sell at public auction at an upset price of five hundred dollars ($500) all the right, title and interest the city has in and to a parcel of land situated on the northerly side of Manning street, at the corner of Berry street, in West Roxbury, containing seven thousand one hundred and fifty (7,150) square feet of land, more or less, and to execute a deed of the same to the purchaser in form satisfactory to the Law Department.

Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

CHANGES AT 33 BEACON STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, November 28, 1927.
To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The executive and administrative offices of the Board of Park Commissioners of the City of Boston are and have been for a long period of time located within the building numbered 33 Beacon street, which building was a part of the residue of the George F. Parkman estate, which was devised to the City of Boston, and therefore a part of the George F. Parkman Fund.

The city is now paying, and has paid for a long time, the sum of $2,500 annually as rental of this building, which rental has been treated as a part of the income of the George F. Parkman Fund. This building is in such condition that it is seriously in need of substantial repair in certain parts, and certain portions should be reconstructed so as to have the whole building suitable for occupancy by the Board of Park Commissioners.

This building is a part of the George F. Parkman Fund. I am advised by the Law Department that the expenses of repair and reconstruction and changes that are necessary to be made should be from an appropriation from the George F. Parkman Fund, and when the proposed repairs, reconstruction and changes are made the annual rental will be increased by the sum of $3,500, making the annual rent $6,000, which increased rental will be dealt with as income from the George F. Parkman Fund, and expended in accordance with the terms of the George F. Parkman will.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

Whereas, The rear portion of the building numbered 33 Beacon street, which building was a part of the residue of the George F. Parkman estate and therefore a portion of the George F. Parkman Fund, is in such a dilapidated condition that it is now a fire menace and should be razed and a new construction be made in place of that portion of the building razed; and

Whereas, The razing of the rear portion of the building will necessitate certain alterations and changes in the main portion of the building; and

Whereas, It is necessary to raze the rear portion of said building and make alterations and changes in the main portion of the building to make the building tenable;

Ordered, That the sum of fifty thousand dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated from the George F. Parkman Fund, and that such said sum or so much thereof as may be deemed necessary by the Board of Park Commissioners, with the approval of his Honor the Mayor, be expended under the direction of the Park Department for the purpose of building and constructing a new portion of said building in place thereof, and changes in the main portion of the building as may be deemed necessary by the Board of Park Commissioners, with the approval of his Honor the Mayor.

Referred to the Committee on Parkman Fund.

LOAN FOR CHARLES STREET JAIL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, November 28, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—In connection with the preparation of the budget for 1928, there has been brought to my attention a condition at the Charles Street Jail, with reference to the power plant in that institution, which, in my opinion, should be remedied by the issuance of a loan rather than by making available an appropriation within the budget. I submit herewith a report from the Superintendent of Public Buildings who, acting under my instructions, has made a survey and investigation of the matter. This report is self-explanatory and, in accordance with the recommendation contained therein, I submit herewith a loan appropriation providing for the sum of $100,000 to be spent on certain specified improvements within the jail walls. In view of the short period of time which now remains before the close of the year I respectfully recommend immediate consideration by your honorable body of this loan order.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Buildings Department,
November 28, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In accordance with instructions contained in your communication of November 18, and having reference to certain essential improvements to be made in the Suffolk County Jail, I respectfully report that, in company with Commissioner of Public Works James H. Sullivan and Building Commissioner Louis K. Rourke, I visited Sheriff Keliher at the jail. The sheriff outlined his ideas regarding his desires and they were practically the same as enumerated in his communication to you under date of November 17, namely, to raze the present wooden workshop, erect a new fireproof boilerhouse in its stead, excavate trenches to provide for the transmission of heat to the main building and to remove part of the existing wall around the jail for an exit to North Grove street instead of the present exit to Charles street in order to avoid the congestion on Charles street.

This work will cost approximately $100,000 and the urgent need for same was concurred in by all present, particularly because the boilers have been condemned by the state authorities as being in a dangerous condition and in their present location in the main building they are a positive menace to the institution.

You will observe that in the original request of the sheriff he called for an appropriation of $200,000 which would provide on a very comprehensive scale for his wants, but he informed me that with an immediate appropriation of $100,000 the boiler situation would be relieved and that possibly in the near future another appropriation could be made to carry out his original scheme by an addition to the new boiler house which would provide for a garage, repair shop, storeroom, offices and chambers.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN P. ENGLERT,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

Ordered, That the sum of $100,000 be and the same hereby is appropriated for County of Suffolk, Jail Improvements, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be and hereby is authorized to issue, from time to time, upon the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

SIDEWALK, JEROME STREET.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along 6 Jerome street, Ward 13, in front of the estates bordering thereon, said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

OVERHEAD ENTRANCE TO COLUMBIA STATION.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Transit Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install an overhead entrance to the Columbia Station of the Dorchester Rapid Transit line from the end of Crescent avenue and Sydney street.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, that order calls for a different entrance or an additional entrance, overhead, to the Columbia Station in the lower end of Ward 13. I might say that the present Columbia Station has an entrance from Columbia road, and all the surrounding property is vacant land. While it was necessary to go from that point to a central loading platform, it really does not serve the district as well as an entrance on the other side would. In the old days, when trains stopped there, the station was at the corner of Crescent avenue and Sydney street, and this calls for an overhead entrance from that section to serve the people. At the time it was thought that an auditorium or great civic center would be built there. But, as that has been taken care of by our friends of the Boston and Maine, and there is no need of a city auditorium in addition, I think perhaps this is a good time to have that new entrance put in. I move a suspension of the rule for the passage of the order. The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

FIRE STATION, WARD 13.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to establish a fire station in the vicinity of Savin Hill avenue and Dorchester avenue, for the proper protection of that district.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, in connection with this order I will say that in the entire Ward 13 there is no fire station at present. About a year ago I took the matter up with the present Fire Commissioner, Mr. Hultman, who assured me that one of the first stations to be considered would be one in the vicinity of Savin Hill and Dorchester avenue. Since the letter was written to that effect they have opened both the new entrance at Crescent avenue and Savin Hill, which brings much more traffic there, and there have been added the Edward Everett, Savin Hill and John Lotthrop Motley Schools, and the new St. Williams Parochial School, which takes care of 200 children, and it becomes more evident than ever that there is no adequate fire protection for the district. I certainly hope that this order, dealing with a very important matter, will go through.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

FRANCIS PARKMAN PLAYGROUND, WARD 19.

Coun. GUILD offered the following:

Ordered That the Park Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to include in the budget for the year 1928 his department a sum sufficient for the construction of a field house containing shower baths and lockers on the Francis Parkman Playground, Wachusett street, Ward 19.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, in connection with that order I would like to say that this playground is the only one on the east side of the great Chinese wall that bifurcates Ward 19. It is used for the ordinary athletics conducted at the Francis Parkman School, including football, both American and English style, and teams playing on that playground find it inconvenient to run to their several homes before changing their regalia. The order is supported by a petition of some five hundred residents of the district. The Park Commissioner informs me that when the playground was first taken it was planned to have a field house such as the order calls for erected there, but they simply got as far as drawing the plans and it went no further. It is the sincere hope of the residents of the district that something beyond the plans on paper will materialize during the year 1928.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

PROPOSED INCREASE IN GAS RATES.

Coun. DOWD offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the Corporation Counsel to appear before the Public Utilities Commission on December 7 in opposition to the proposed increase in gas rates.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, in presenting this order I do so because of the fact that on December 7, a week from Wednesday, a hearing will be held before the Department of Public Utilities to protest against the proposed increase in rates which the Boston Consolidated Gas Company proposes to put into effect in the City of Boston amounting to anywhere from 10 to 60 per cent. I remember a short time ago when another corporation, the telephone company, decided to make a wholesale increase in rates to the public, the city took similar action on the matter. After all is said and done it is the small consumer who is really the one who suffers in such matters. At that time the Mayor sent a communication to the City Council, asking the City Council to pass an order providing $50,000 to hire special counsel to protect the people of Boston. I believe the gas situation at the present time is similar to that, that in fact it is even more threatening, in view of the fact that it affects particularly the poorer people in our congested districts, such as Roxbury, Charlestown, East Boston, the North End, the South End and other sections. I find that in my district the rate to poor people will be raised some 45 per cent, that poor unfortunates, unable to light their houses with electricity, will have to pay 40 to 45 per cent more for gas than they are paying at the present time. I believe it will be an unusual hardship on them. Whether or not it is justified

I am not prepared to say, but we have a Law Department, which costs the taxpayers of this city more than $700,000 a year, which is probably equipped to handle just such matters. If the Law Department is too busy at the present time to conduct the investigation in the interest of the people of this city, I believe the Mayor should take steps to furnish enough money to provide special counsel to go before the Public Utilities Board and protest as far as possible against the proposed increase.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, we have an expensive Law Department, but is a very able one, and if its time is not wholly occupied with making favorable betterments for land damages, I think it might well assign some of its staff to just this sort of thing. Or perhaps this might well come within the scope of the special legislative counsel to whom the city now pays a respectable salary to adequately represent it, at legislative hearings. It would seem to me that the matter might very well be taken care of before the Public Utilities Commission on December 7 in some such way. It is, of course, too early to go into the merits of the question. I doubt, however, if the councilor's figures are correct, that the proposed rates will result in a 40 to 45 per cent increase to small users of gas throughout the city. On the contrary, I believe the hearings will show that the small user of gas will be benefited as compared with the so-called rich householders and corporations.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, in answer to the councilor from the Back Bay district I might state that I have been informed by a public utility official that the increase in the Roxbury section will be from 40 to 45 per cent. I am simply taking those figures.

Coun. PARKMAN—Well, I don't think the councilor is fair in stating that there will be an increase and an increase only. As a matter of fact, while I understand that there will be an increase in some cases, there will be a reduction in others. As a matter of fact, as I understand it, the increase will largely affect those using a substantial amount.

The order was read for information of Coun. Guild.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, apparently this is something addressed to the Corporation Council and does not call for the employment of any special counsel. It seems to me Coun. Parkman must have been under a misapprehension as to the nature of the order in addressing his remarks to the Board. The function of the Corporation Council, it seems to me, is to take care of just such matters as this, and, as the order does not carry any provision of employment of special counsel, to be employed at an additional expense, I shall favor it.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

IMPROVEMENTS FOR CENTRAL LIBRARY BUILDING.

Coun. KEENE called up assignment, No. 14, on the calendar, viz.

Ordered, That the sum of $250,000 be and the same is hereby appropriated to be expended by the Trustees of the Public Library for the Central Library Building, fireproofing, improvements, etc., and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city for said amount. The question came on the first passage of the order.

Coun. KEENE—Mr. President, the Chair and the other members will recall that at our last meeting there were not enough members present when this order was acted upon to pass it. I trust that it will be passed at this time.

The order was given its first passage, yeas 20, nays 0.

The order will come up for its final reading and passage in not less than fourteen days.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PICTURES OF THOSE DYING IN WORLD WAR.

Coun. LYNCH offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to include in the budget for 1928 the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, to be expended under the direction of the Superintendent of Public Buildings, for the purchase of memorial portraits of the Boston men and women who died in the service of this country in the World War, the portraits to be the same as those of the former Mayors, fire commissioners, and Presidents of the City Council, now hung in City Hall and Fire Headquarters, and that the Superintendent of Public Buildings locate these portraits in the city buildings of Boston nearest to the former homes of the deceased.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. GILBODY, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

The report was declared not accepted. Coun. LYNCH doubted the vote and asked for the yeas and nays.

The report was accepted—and the order was passed, yeas 16, nays 4:

Yeas—Coun. Donovan, Dowd, Englert, Fitzgerald, Freeley, Gilbody, Green, Keene, Lynch, Mahoney, McGrath, McMahon, Parkman, Ruby, Wilson, Wragg—16.

Nays—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Dowling, Guild—4.

PUBLIC LANDS.

Coun. McGRATH, for the Committee on Public Lands, submitted the following:

1. Report on order (submitted by the Mayor and referred October 17), authorizing the Mayor to sell at public auction, at an upset price of $4,700 all rights, title and interest of the city in and to a parcel of land situated on the northeasterly side of Main street in Charlestown, and containing 2,367 square feet of land, more or less,—that the same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order.

As the Clerk started to call the roll, Coun. FITZGERALD said:

Mr. President,

Chairman DOWLING—For what purpose does the gentleman rise? For information? The roll call has been ordered, and remarks from the floor are not now in order, except that a member may ask a question for information.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, my purpose in rising was to ask the chairman of the committee a question in reference to this order.

Chairman DOWLING—If the gentleman rises for information, that comes within the rule. Coun. Fitzgerald asks information in relation to the order from the chairman of the committee.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, over in Charlestown we have a tremendously big playground known as the Sullivan Square Playground. On the farther side of the playground there is an immense building built by the Schraft Company. The line running between the property owned by the Schraft Company and that owned by the City of Boston as a playground is such as to make a peculiarly shaped lot, and the adjoining owners are anxious to buy a piece of this land in order to straighten out their holdings. We held the usual bearing last week and there were no objectors.

We asked the gentleman representing Charlestown in regard to the proposition and he explained that there was plenty of land left, that this simply meant the straightening out of this property, the city deriving as much benefit as the gentleman next door. Therefore, as this was favored by the representative in the Council from Charlestown, we favored it, as we would be apt to do in any case where a thing was favored by a representative from any part of the city, expressing the wishes of the people of his locality.

The order was given its first reading and passage, yeas 20, nays 0.

2. Report on order (submitted by the Mayor and referred October 3) authorizing the Mayor to execute and deliver to the Hedge & Mattheis Company license to build structure over a certain portion of a parcel of land at 285 Dorchester avenue, South Boston, which land was taken by the city for sewerage purposes, that the same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, perhaps it would be well for me to give a little explanation of this order, so that there may be no misunderstanding in regard to it. This concerns one of the usual sewer easements, being a case where the city some years ago took land there for sewer purposes. This happens to be on Dorchester avenue, just below Dover street. A steel works company there, Hedge & Mattheis Company, want to build on a portion of this land where there is a sewer. It is provided, however, that if the Sewer Department wants at any time to bare pipes underneath, it can tear up the floors or do whatever is necessary to get at the pipes, without being subject to damages against the city for so doing. This has passed the Law Department and is favored by the various departments concerned. It is the same situation that we have in parts of West Roxbury, Forest Hills and other sections of the city. There seems to be no reason why the order should not pass.

The order was passed, yeas 19, nays—Coun. Fitzgerald—1.

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENT AS CONSTABLE.

Coun KEENE, under unfinished business, called up No. 7 on the calendar, viz.:

7. Action on appointment submitted by the Mayor, June 27, 1927, of John S. Avramides, to be a constable.

Coun KEENE—Mr. President, this is an appointment submitted by his Honor the Mayor on June 27, 1927, of John S. Avramides to be a constable. Mr. Avramides was up here on one or two occasions and was not called in. It is one of the new appointments. I met him personally in company with others. He is a Greek, seems to be a proper person to be a constable, and I feel that his appointment should be confirmed. If there is no objection I would like to have the matter acted upon today.

The question came on confirmation. Committee—Coun. McGrath and Parkman. Whole number of ballots, 19; yeas 16, nays 3, and the appointment was confirmed.

CONFIRMATION OF SUNDRY APPOINTMENTS.

Chairman DOWLING called up, under unfinished business, No. 1 on the calendar, viz.:

1. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor, November 14, 1917, of Rosalyn Silbert, Ethel Piken, Freda Levine and Philip DiVanno, to be Weighers of Coal, and John H. Lynch, Richard S. McSorley, Anthony Demaino and Charles W. Sargent, to be Weighers of Goods.

The question came on confirmation. Committee—Coun. Wragg and Donovan. Whole number of ballots, 15; yeas 15, and the appointments were confirmed.

REPAVING ALEXANDER AND CEYLON STREETS.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to include in his budget for 1928 a sum sufficient to provide for the repaving of Alexander and Ceylon streets, Dorchester, with smooth pavement.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

DELAY IN REPORT ON FEES, ETC.

Coun. PARKMAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Budget Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to inform the City Council the reason for the delay in submitting the report and recommendations prepared by him in the matter of the fees charged for licenses and permits, requested by the City Council order passed April 25, 1927.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, that order was submitted to the Budget Commissioner by vote of the City Council last April, and there has been plenty of time for a report to have been rendered by the commissioner and submitted to the City Council for action. In fact, I understand that it has left the Budget Commissioner's office and now rests with the Mayor, to submit to the City Council for such action as he may approve. The reason why I ask for action at this time is that the report may call for legislation, and the time remaining before the Legislature convenes is now very short. I move a suspension of the rule for the passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

BUS SERVICE ON COLUMBUS AVENUE.

Coun. ARNOLD offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to ascertain from the Board of Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway the approximate date when bus service will be available on Columbus avenue.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 2, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Transit Department, in reply to your order of November 28, 1927, relative to the installation of an overhead entrance to the Columbia Station of the Dorchester Rapid Transit line from the end of Crescent avenue and Sydney street.

City of Boston,
Transit Department, December 2, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Herewith is returned order of the City Council, dated November 28, 1927, requesting this department to install an overhead entrance to the Columbia Station of the Dorchester Rapid Transit line from the end of Crescent avenue and Sydney street.

Under the terms of chapter 480 of the Acts of 1923, providing for the extension of rapid transit facilities in the Dorchester district, no changes such as suggested herein can be made without the consent of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, the lessee of the property.

In view of the fact that a stairway has been built from Carson street to Columbia road to provide better access for people living in the vicinity of Crescent avenue and Sydney street, we are of the opinion that the heavy expenditure for providing this overhead bridge would not be justified.

Yours very truly,
CITY OF BOSTON TRANSIT DEPARTMENT,
by T. F. SULLIVAN, Chairman.

EXTENSION OF MT. HOPE CEMETERY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 5, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—There has been brought to my attention a serious situation now existing in the Mt. Hope Cemetery in the amount of land available for single graves. Practically all of the available land within the cemetery has been developed so that unless additional land is made available it will soon be impossible to meet the demand for single grave lots. At the present time there is a section of land adjacent to the cemetery which should be secured before any housing development may be considered by the owners. In the opinion of the Board of Park Commissioners the sum of $25,000 will be adequate to purchase this additional land and to develop it for single grave sections. In accordance with this opinion, I submit herewith an order providing for the appropriation of this amount from the special fund, sales of city property. I respectfully recommend adoption of this order by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, November 30, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—At a meeting of the Board of Park Commissioners held November 18, the matter of the serious situation now existing in the shortage of single graves, Mt. Hope Cemetery, was brought up for consideration.

Three studies of land that could be purchased, adjoining Mt. Hope Cemetery, were considered, and it was voted to request your Honor to ask the City Council for an appropriation of $25,000 for the purchase and development of additional land adjoining Mt. Hope Cemetery for a single grave section which will be needed in the immediate future.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

Ordered, That the sum of $25,000 be and hereby is appropriated from Special Fund, Sales of City Property, for Mt. Hope Cemetery, Extension and Development of.

Chairman DOWLING—The message and order will be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, may I direct the attention of the Chair to Rule 28, which says: "No permission for the use of land for purpose of burial shall be granted until a hearing shall be given to the abutters?" Inasmuch as the matter must go ultimately to the Executive Committee on that question, it seems to me that it should be referred in the first instance to that committee.

Chairman DOWLING—The chair feels that this is a matter dealing with a possible appropriation for this purpose, that the question of the extension of the cemetery is not now before the Council and if there is no further objection, the reference will stand.

The matter stood referred to the Committee on Finance.

CONFIRMATION OF EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

On motion of Coun. GILBODY the Council took up, under unfinished business, the appointment of Hyman Rossman, to be a constable (in No. 2 on the calendar), and the appointment of Arthur L. Whitney and William E. Castaldo to be constables (in No. 4 on the calendar).

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Coun. Green and Keene. Whole number of ballots 17, yeas 17, and the appointments were confirmed.

Chairman DOWLING called up under unfinished business No. 1 on the calendar, viz:

1. Action on appointment, submitted by the Mayor, November 28, 1927, of Daniel Tempesta and Arthur Williamson, to be Weighers of Coal; Charles O'Neil, to be a Weigher of Goods; and Arthur Williamson, to be a Measurer of Wood and Bark.

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Coun. Fitzgerald and Guild. Whole number of ballots, 17, yeas 17, and the appointments were confirmed.

PROPOSED SUFFOLK COUNTY JAIL IMPROVEMENTS.

Coun. GREEN, for the Committee on Finance, submitted the following:

Report on message and order (referred November 28) for a loan of $100,000 for Suffolk County Jail Improvements—that the order ought to pass.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, in connection with that matter, there is a report from Superintendent Englert of the Building Department and from the Sheriff, which I would like to have the Clerk read.

Clerk DONOVAN read the communications referred to, as follows:

Desmond and Lord, Architects.
1 Beacon Street.

Boston, December 2, 1927.

In Re Suffolk County Jail:

Mr. J. P. Englert,
Superintendent of Public Buildings, Room 802,
City Hall Annex.

Dear Sir,—We estimate that it will cost the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) to erect building, install boilers with connection to main plant, and also provide opening for a door through North Grove street wall at the Suffolk County Jail, Charles street, Boston, Mass.

Very truly yours,
DESMOND & LORD,
by G. Henri Desmond.

Suffolk County Jail. November 17, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In order that certain essential improvements may be made in the Suffolk County Jail, I respectfully request that the sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) be made available at as early a date as possible.

As I stated in our recent interview and pointed out in a communication under date of July 5, 1927, the state authorities have ordered such a radical reduction in the pressure of the present boilers as to greatly embarrass our heating system. Immediate relief must be had.

The present boilers are located within the main structure and constitute a constant menace to officers and inmates alike. It is proposed to erect a structure in the jail yard to house the new boilers. This plant, including boilers and means of conveying heat to the main building, can be constructed for approximately one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). This figure provides for furnishing two tubular boilers of ample pressure, wrecking of present workshop, removal of part of the protecting wall of jail, sinking concrete piles, erection of a suitable building and stack of sufficient height to preclude smoke nuisance and the building of trenches for forwarding the heat to the jail.

Traffic congestion has become so marked on Cambridge and Charles streets as to render the transportation of inmates to and from the courts extremely dangerous. To eliminate this danger that threatens every trip, I propose to abandon the entrance on Charles street and arrange to receive the van from North Grove street. This can be done by utilizing land owned by the city.

To make possible the carrying out of these much needed improvements the present wooden workshops must be razed, and a new fireproof building erected.

If this comprehensive scheme is approved, so much of the work as immediate wants demand could be provided and the balance completed later.

Trusting that you may see your way clear to act favorably upon this recommendation, I am

Very truly yours,

JOHN A. KELHER, Sheriff.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the first reading and passage of the order.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, before the order goes through I would like to ask a question. Do I understand that that now provides for the taking of any of the land of the city yard?

Coun. GREEN—No.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, at the committee hearing the information was given to us that it only provided for a passage across the city yard in order to reach a new gate to be constructed, that it didn't involve anything more than a right of way across what is now being used for a city yard.

The order was given its first reading and passage, yeas 17, nays 0.

Assigned for fourteen days for final action.

PLAYGROUND, DORCHESTER.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Planning Board be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to report to the City Council as to the advisability and expense of establishing a playground in the area bounded by Dudley street, Howard avenue, Harlow and Folsom streets, Dorchester.

Passed, under suspension of the rule.

FIELD HOUSE, FRANCIS PARKMAN PLAYGROUND.

Coun. GUILD offered the following:

Ordered, That the sum of $12,000 be appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Park Department for the construction of a field house containing shower baths and lockers on the Francis Parkman Playground, Wachusett street, Ward 19, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be and hereby is authorized to issue from time to time, upon the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, the order which was introduced and passed by the Council last week for the inclusion in next year's budget of an item for the construction of this building was returned with a communication today from the Park Commissioner that it was not proper to put it in the budget but that it would be a proper subject for a loan. I therefore present the order that has been read.

The order was referred to the Committee on Finance.

GENERAL RECONSIDERATION.

On motion of Coun. WILSON, a general reconsideration of all action taken today was refused.

Adjourned at 3.04 p. m., on motion of Coun. RUBY, to meet on Monday, December 12, at 2 p. m.

CITY CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chapter 448, Statute 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chapter 266, Statute 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chapter 486, Statute 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayors power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission, and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chapter 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in section 26. (2) Chapter 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in section 32; changing the requirement as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in section 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to section 54. (3) Chapter 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chapter 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor, and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chapter 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chapter 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chapter 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from November 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from January 1 to December 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years. (8) Chapter 136, Acts of 1925, increasing the number of signatures of registered voters required to nominate a candidate for election to the City Council. (9) Chapter 105, Acts of 1926, relative to nominations for municipal elective offices.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on November 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY.

The first chartered colony in New England, charter granted by Charles I on March 4, 1629. About a year before, a patent had been granted to six prominent men of Dorchester, west of England, among whom was Capt. John Endicott. He sailed in June, 1628, with a party of 50 or 60 persons, arriving in September and settling at Naumkeag, afterward named Salem. In the spring of 1629, the Bay Company fitted out three ships conveying about 400 persons and arriving at Salem in June. Endicott sent a small party to effect a settlement on the Bay in Mishawum, afterward named by the settlers Charlestown, the first town in New England to assume the town policy, Plymouth and Salem being governed by a Governor and Council. Endicott was appointed in London as the first resident Governor on April 20, 1629. The Massachusetts Bay Company was reorganized in London on October 20, 1629, when John Winthrop was chosen as Governor. He arrived at Salem on June 12, 1630, soon proceeded to Charlestown with a large following and finding that place unsuitable, finally settled in Boston. Winthrop served 13 years as Governor in four different periods ending in 1649 and Endicott 15 years at various times ending in 1665. Other governors were Thomas Dudley, Richard Bellingham, John Haynes, Henry Vane, John Leverett and Simon Bradstreet, the latter serving 12 years until 1692 when the Bay Colony and the Plymouth Colony were merged, becoming the Royal Province of Massachusetts Bay, which existed 82 years to 1774, the governors being appointed by the King.

The name, Massachusetts, is Indian and signifies "near the big hills."

MUNICIPAL YEAR.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz. 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

LEGAL HOLIDAYS.

As provided by the Revised Laws of Massachusetts, also by chapter 473, Acts of 1910, and chapter 104, General Acts of 1916 (ratified by the electorate on November 7, 1916), legal holidays on which the public offices shall be closed, include January 1, February 22, April 19, May 30, July 4, September (first Monday), October 12, Thanksgiving Day (the last Thursday in November) and Christmas Day (December 25).

SITUATION OF BOSTON.

Latitude, North, 42 degrees 21 inches 29.596 feet. Longitude, West, 71 degrees 3 inches 51.040 feet (exact situation of apex of State House dome, according to United States Coast and Geodetic Survey). Boston's latitude is similar to that of Detroit and the southern boundary of Oregon, also Rome (Italy), Sofia (Bulgaria) and Mukden (Manchuria); longitude nearly that of Quebec (Canada), Bogota (Colombia) and Santiago (Chile).

EXTENSION OF CONTRACT.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

A. D. Daddario has been granted an extension of the time of completion of the contract for building sewerage works in Hampden street, between Albany street and a point about 100 feet southerly, Roxbury, from December 10, 1927, to January 10, 1928 (thirty-one days).

BILL APPROVED.

The bill from the Atlantic Works in the sum of $1,399.65 for emergency repairs to the steamer "George A. Hibbard," due principally to defects in the boiler, has been approved.

SCHOOLBOY STADIUM PLANNED BY MAYOR NICHOLS FOR THE FENWAY.

Mayor Nichols gave out on December 10 sketches of the proposed schoolboys' stadium at the Fenway. These sketches were prepared by the Park Department under the Mayor's instructions and provide also for the erection of a locker building at the northerly access of the stadium.

The area of the stadium is about nine acres. The plans call for seating of 7,500 persons and make provision for 4,500 additional seats at the southern access. The stadium is to contain a football gridiron, two full-sized baseball diamonds, a $\frac{1}{4}$ mile track, and reservations for a straightaway 220-yard dash, a 100-yard dash, shotput, high jump, pole vault, broad jump, and running broad jump.

The grading of the field will provide for skating during the winter months on a skating area larger than the Public Garden pond.

The locker building will contain besides the boiler rooms, storage, etc., lockers to provide for 200 athletes, shower room, one rubbing room, checking facilities to provide for 500, toilet facilities for men, women and children, and an additional room to take care of the skaters in the winter time which is not provided for in any of the present field houses in the department.

The Mayor expects that the use of the stadium will obviate the present necessity on the part of the School Committee to pay rental for the use of private grounds. The cost of the whole work is estimated at $185,000, and will be paid for out of the income of the Parkman Fund. In the spot where the stadium is to be erected there are at present bleachers seating 3,000.

The Mayor has instructed the Park Commissioners to have the field ready no later than September 1, to meet the requirements of the school athletics during the fall season.

NAVY SECRETARY THANKS MAYOR FOR NAVY DAY CO-OPERATION.

BOSTON, December 6, 1927.

HON. MALCOLM E. NICHOLS,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract, without advertising, to the Grinnell Company, Incorporated, 79 Milk street, Boston, for the installation of a sprinkler system in the repair shop of the Maintenance Division of this department, for the sum of $2,552. This system will be for the first, second and third floors, blacksmith shop and boiler room of the Maintenance Division.

The reason for desiring to award this contract to the Grinnell Company, Incorporated, without advertising, is that this is an extension of the present system in the shop. Nothing will be gained, therefore, by competitive bidding.

Owing to the importance of the repair shop, I believe that this work should be done as soon as possible.

Respectfully,

John Galway, from supervising operator to chief operator.

III. COMMENDATIONS.

Ladderman William J. Magner of Ladder Company 22 is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 452, on December 2, 1927, while off duty.

IV. RADIO OPERATION ON FIREBOATS.

The following rules governing the operation of the radio equipment on the fireboats and in the Fire Alarm Station are hereby ordered to become effective at 8 a. m. Friday, December 9, 1927. All rules or orders inconsistent with the following are hereby rescinded.

Radio stations in the department have been allotted the following call letters: WEY, Fire Alarm Office; KFPA, Engine Company 31; KFPC, Engine Company 44; KFPD, Engine Company 17.

Under the license issued, these stations have only the right to communicate with each other, except in case of emergency when communication may be carried on with any commercial or amateur station.

All communications must be handled in a manner to conform with the rules and regulations set forth by the Department of Commerce and the International Telegraphic Convention.

The stations shall be used only for official business.

Radio transmitters are tuned by order of the Department of Commerce to a wave length of 119 meters and tuning of same must not be altered.

All communication shall be handled by use of radio telephone.

The operator on boat upon receiving orders or alarms of fire shall repeat message and then record same. This record, signed by the operator, shall be attached to the company's fire report sent to headquarters. The operator in the fire alarm office shall make notation of same on the log sheet, giving names of transmitting and receiving operators.

If because of interference the fire alarm office cannot communicate directly, one of the other boats will be called upon to act as a relay point between the office and the boat in service. The operator on boat relaying messages shall keep a record in the journal of messages handled by him.

Watches.

A radio operator shall be present in quarters or on the boat at all times ready for duty except when boat is out of commission.

A radio watch shall be maintained at all times when boat is away from dock or not connected by wire with Fire Alarm Headquarters and the receiver shall be kept tuned to a wave length of 119 meters.

As soon as the boat is under way the operator on boat shall call the office.

During watch periods, calls and acknowledgments must be made on the hour, at quarter past, half past and quarter of the hour to insure communication. If conditions warrant it these calls must be made more often.

Upon the arrival of boat at a working fire the officer in charge of the boat, if having received no orders while responding, shall go into action according to his judgment, reporting at once to the commanding officer at the fire, by means of radio, his location and what action he is taking.

Upon arrival at a fire not requiring immediate action by boat, the officer in charge shall report by radio his arrival and location to the commanding officer at the fire and await his orders.

Unless otherwise ordered by the commanding officer at the fire, upon receipt of the "all-out" signal the fire alarm office shall notify the boat responding to same and the boat shall be immediately returned to quarters.

The boat shall be immediately ordered back to quarters by the commanding officer at the fire upon his arrival if its services are not required.

Radio operators shall be held responsible for keeping batteries in proper condition.

By order of Fire Commissioner E. C. Hultman.

DANIEL F. SENNOTT,

I. KILLED IN SERVICE.

It is with the deepest regret that the Fire Commissioner announces the death of Lieut. James Gavagan of Ladder Company 19, who died December 8, 1927, as the result of injuries received while fighting a fire at 6.25 p. m., December 5, 1927.

Lieutenant Gavagan was appointed to this department August 16, 1897, and was promoted to lieutenant on July 12, 1920.

The death of Lieutenant Gavagan in the active performance of his duty impresses upon us the constant sacrifices the members of this department are called upon to make in the service of their fellow citizens.

The funeral will be held from his late residence, 20 Humphreys street, Dorchester, at 8 a. m., Saturday, December 10, 1927, followed by services at St. Paul's church, Hartford street, Dorchester, at 9 a. m.

The members of Ladder Company 19 will be excused from duty in order to attend the funeral and the Chief of Department will arrange for the customary detail to represent the department. Members of the department who are off duty at the time of the funeral are invited to join the department detail and permission is hereby granted to wear the department uniform for that purpose. The detail will report at the quarters of Engine Company 21, Columbia road and Annabel street not later than 8 a. m., December 10, and will report to the District Chief of District 9.

The detail will wear regulation overcoats.

Permission is granted company commanders to allow members who desire to join the Fire Department detail to go off duty before 8 a. m., provided they are properly relieved by the men coming on duty.

PUBLICITY FOR SCHOOL ACTIVITIES.

Mr. O'Hare made the following statement:

Many attempts have been made during recent years to obtain such publicity through the press as will keep the public of this city informed of what is being done in the schools, but so far with little success. Recently, while on a visit to New York City, I found that two of the metropolitan papers give a whole page daily to what is being done in the schools—to describing the various educational activities, the educational meetings and conferences which would seem to be of public interest, and other matters which have direct bearing on the work of the schools. I sincerely hope that in some way arrangements may be made with the press of this city to similarly feature the work of the Boston public schools. Information as to what is being done in the schools and the cost of the schools in general as well as information concerning the various educational activities, should be of interest to the citizens of this city, and it seems to me that valuable information could be furnished through the Superintendent, the Board of Superintendents, and the Business Manager.

The Board adjourned.

DEATH OF HON. NATHAN MATTHEWS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 12, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—It becomes my sad duty to advise you of the death of Hon. Nathan Matthews, Mayor of Boston, in the years 1891–1895, inclusive.

Mr. Matthews was one of the most profound leaders in the United States in the knowledge of municipal government and its varied problems, political economy and jurisprudence.

No man ever served the City of Boston with greater fidelity, more devotion to the interests of the city or with greater love for the well-being of our citizens.

Former Mayor Matthews was born in Boston upon March 28, 1834, a descendant of the Cape Cod Pilgrims, educated in the public and private schools of Boston, entered Harvard University in his eighteenth year, and was graduated with high mathematical honors in 1855.

In the foundation of his life work, Mr. Matthews entered the University of Leipzig, Germany, and at this noted seat of learning gave a most earnest two years' study to political economy and its attendant problems.

Mr. Matthews began the practice of law in Boston in 1880 and early proved himself an advocate of fine acumen, tireless industry and became one of the foremost lawyers of the country.

He was elected Mayor of Boston in 1891 and serving four terms of one year each proved himself a master of the varied problems that related to our municipal government. He was an earnest advocate of the building of new parks and recreational facilities, the development of the sewerage system in Boston and especially the building of schoolhouses.

Mr. Matthews advocated the administration of the Police Department under a single executive, the appointment of a Board of Street Commissioners by the Mayor in place of election, a City Council of reduced membership and the direction of the public schools in charge of a superintendent.

He recommended the imposition of a tax upon legacies, the collection of fees from corporations using the public streets and was the splendid advocate of plans which largely resulted in the building of the first subway in Boston.

Mr. Matthews was one of the framers of the present charter of the City of Boston and served as first chairman of the Boston Finance Commission in 1907–1909.

He was lecturer in the Department of Government of Harvard University in 1909–1912 where his fearless presentation of the problems related to national, state, and municipal government attracted country-wide attention.

Mr. Matthews, appreciating the high character of the principles involved, served as president of the Franklin Foundation with great ability and singular devotion in outlining the administration of this important Boston institution in providing ways and means that young men, wholly dependent upon their personal effort, might graduate well qualified for the various professions incident to the commercial and industrial life of the city.

The Boston Public Library was completed during Mr. Matthews administration and under the leadership of the late Col. J. H. Benton, his appointee, has won a world-wide renown.

Mr. Matthews served as chairman of the Trustees of the Massachusetts State Library and as special counsel of the United States Railroad Administration he served the United States Government during the World War in 1918 and 1919. He served as chairman of the Boston Commission on the Budget System in 1916 and was chairman of the Commission on New Sources of Revenue in 1920 and 1921.

Mr. Matthews was a life-time student of the genealogy of Boston and Massachusetts to which he gave a voluntary labor of great excellence and was vice-president of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, member of the New England Historical Genealogical Society, and the Massachusetts Historical Society.

During the later years of his life, Mr. Matthews was an especially popular lecturer upon historical, legal, economic and political subjects and also contributed many articles to leading publications upon these general subjects.

We mourn the memory of a man, who was not only of Boston's first citizens, but lived life's best estate and who leaves our city poorer for his loss.

His fine acumen, his familiarity with the greatest problems that affect the national life of our country, his great ability as advocate and counsellor and his devotion to every interest entrusted to his care brings a deep and abiding sense of sorrow to every citizen of Boston.

As a tribute of respect I have this day ordered all flags upon municipal buildings, parks and playgrounds to be lowered to half-staff.

Respectfully,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

RECONSTRUCTION COLUMBUS AVENUE BRIDGE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 12, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under date of May 9, 1927, I submitted to your honorable body an order providing for a petition of the Department of Public Utilities for the reconstruction of Columbus Avenue Bridge over the tracks of the Boston & Albany Railroad. I am advised that this petition has been approved by the Public Utilities Department and that the Boston & Albany Railroad officials have assented to the terms and conditions of the order. The structure is at the present time in a very bad condition and in the opinion of the Commissioner of Public Works immediate reconstruction is absolutely necessary. I appreciate there is very little time left for your honorable body to pass on appropriations involving the issuance of bonds but in view of the urgency of this particular matter I feel it desirable that the necessary authorization be granted before the close of this fiscal year, in order that the Public Works Department may be empowered to start the necessary work without great delay.

I accordingly submit herewith a loan order providing for an appropriation of $85,000 to be utilized in the reconstruction of the Columbus Avenue Bridge and respectfully recommend immediate consideration of your honorable body.

Very truly yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
December 7, 1927.

To the Honorable the Mayor.

I send herewith an order issued by the Department of Public Utilities, as the result of a petition of the City Council, for the reconstruction of Columbus Avenue Bridge over the tracks of the Boston & Albany Railroad. The agreement connected with it has been signed by the vice-president of the New York Central Railroad Company and by the Commissioner of Public Works, and it will have to be approved by your Honor to become effective.

The present condition of the bridge is very poor and reconstruction is absolutely necessary. A loan to cover the cost of the work will be required, and I respectfully recommend that a request, in the sum of $85,000, be sent to the City Council.

Just what portion of this expense will be borne by the Boston & Albany Railroad has not been determined but will be later on. Plans and specifications are about ready and it will be possible to advertise the work within the next month, or as soon as the preliminaries connected with this order of the Department of Public Utilities are complied with.

Yours respectfully,
J. H. SULLIVAN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That the sum of $85,000 be and hereby is appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for Columbus Avenue Bridge, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of the city to said amount.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

STADIUM IN FENS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 12, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am advised that the sum of $56,044.62 is now available for appropriation in the income from the Parkman Fund. Under the conditions governing the use of the fund this income must be appropriated before the close of this fiscal year, or else it will revert to the principal. It is my desire to construct in the Fens Section of the park system a stadium to be primarily for the athletic activities of our school system. The balance which is now available may be used to finance a portion of the cost of such a stadium. I accordingly submit herewith an order providing for the necessary appropriation and respectfully recommend immediate consideration by your honorable body.

Very truly yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, December 9, 1927.
Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—At a meeting of the Board of Park Commissioners held December 7, it was voted, that you be respectfully requested to ask the City Council to appropriate from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund the sum of $56,044.62 for the purpose of building Section 2 of the School Boys' Stadium in the Back Bay Fens—this work will also include the starting of the construction of a field house building and bleachers, etc.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

Ordered, That the sum of $56,044.62 be and the same hereby is appropriated from the income of the Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commission, for the maintenance and improvement of the Common and parks in existence on January 12, 1887, as follows:
Fens, Improvements. $56,044 62

Coun. KEENE—Mr. President, I move reference of the matter to the Executive Committee.

Coun. Keene's motion was declared carried.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I doubt the vote and ask for a verification by a show of hands.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, if there is no objection, as a member of the Committee on Parkman Fund, I would like to say a word. We held today a meeting in regard to the Parkman Fund. As we all understand, if the money is not used today, it is going to be placed in the principal of the Parkman Fund. There is no reason why it should revert back to the fund, in view of the fact that the Mayor has decided to erect a stadium costing —

Chairman DOWLING—The Chair would say that the gentleman is out of order, the question being on solving the doubt. Those in favor of reference to the Executive Committee will raise their right hand. (A number of members did so.) The reference is carried.

The message and order stood referred to the Executive Committee.

TRAFFIC OFFICER, ELIOT SQUARE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 12, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Police Commissioner, in reply to your order of November 28, 1927, relative to the assigning of a traffic officer for permanent duty at Eliot square, Ward 9.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

December 9, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Replying to your note of November 30, together with order of the City Council, that the Police Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to assign a traffic officer for permanent duty in Eliot square, Ward 9, I wish to state that I am sending you herewith, copy of report of Deputy Superintendent Goode relative to the same, in which report I concur. I am also sending copy of report of Captain Gallivan of Division 10 relative to the school crossing.

I am returning herewith, your note under date of November 30, also original order of the City Council passed November 28, 1927.

Yours respectfully,
HERBERT A. WILSON,
Police Commissioner.

December 8, 1927.

To the Commissioner.

Sir,—In connection with attached communications from the office of the Mayor and City Clerk, in which it is requested that a traffic officer be assigned for permanent duty in Eliot square, I respectfully report that in my opinion it would be impractical for one officer to regulate traffic in this large area.

A few months ago a beacon flashlight traffic signal was installed in this square; also, white painted lines from the car stop on one side of Eliot square, across and to the other side at Highland street and a white center line with a curved arrow was placed in Centre street where it joins this square.

I am submitting attached Captain Gallivan's report whom I took the matter up with in reference to school children or any congested period of the day that he is taking care of, or that he may be able to take care of.

Whenever we have sufficient traffic officers, which will allow us to place two of them in this square, I will be glad to make a further recommendation on this request.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS F. GOODE,
Deputy Superintendent.

December 6, 1927.

Thomas F. Goode,
Deputy Superintendent.

Sir,—In reference to your letter of the 3d inst. in re to the placing of a traffic officer in Eliot square, report as follows:

Some time ago this question came up, and I assigned Sergeant Hartnett there for several days to tally up the school children that cross the square. The number is quite small that cross the wide square; they do come from Centre street, but they are on the side of the square that the schools are on, farther down the street. I have never had an officer there for the route men that touch the square are taking care of more important crossing effecting school children, in fact all the route officers on the division are assigned to school crossings and I use a house day man at the crossing at the noon letting out and going in, and also at 3.30 p. m. The traffic officer from Division 20 is not there at the times mentioned.

One man in Eliot square, is sort of going to be lost, there being no center safety zone, the square being very wide, and I think some center safety zone might be installed at some place making it better to cross at some particular place rather than all over the place as they do now.

Respectfully submitted,
JEREMIAH F. GALLIVAN,
Captain, Division No. 10.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts,
Department of Conservation,
Division of Animal Industry,
State House, Boston, December 30, 1927.

Notice.

To Mayors of Cities and Chairmen of Selectmen of Towns:

In view of the alarming increase in the positive cases of rabies reported to this office, the Division of Animal Industry collaborated with the Department of Public Health in inviting the heads of the Health and Police Departments of thirty-five cities and towns to a conference to discuss ways and means to control by regulatory measures this menace to the health and safety of the public.

At the meeting held in Room 460, State House, Boston, November 29, there were fifty present representing twenty-three places. It was the unanimous opinion of the entire group that owing to the seriousness of the situation as shown by an increase of 427 positive cases this year over last year some concerted action should be taken in the district so badly affected.

This is to notify you that in the writer's opinion there is grave danger of an outbreak and spread of rabies, and you are advised, under the authority given you by section 167, chapter 140 of the General Laws, to order all dogs (whether immunized or not) in your city or town to be restrained from running at large for a period of ninety days beginning December 15, 1927. (The meeting went on record as concurring with the conviction of this division that dogs should be restrained instead of muzzled, as muzzling is ineffectual and less humane.) This recommendation is going to the attached list of cities and towns from which two or more positive cases of rabies have been reported in the past six months, or towns adjoining thereto.

Please acknowledge receipt of this communication.

Also advise promptly of co-operative action taken as in the event that no order is issued by proper authority in your city or town the director will have no course left open to him other than to exercise the authority given him in Department Order No. 34, copy of which is attached. This provides that unless a restraining order is issued by the proper local authority within seven days after such notice the director may order all dogs in such city or town to be restrained from running at large for a period of three months. Your Board of Health has doubtless already recommended the advisability of co-operation in such concerted action.

Very sincerely yours,
FRANK B. CUMMINGS,
Director.

STATE HOUSE, Boston, April 3, 1918.

ORDER NO. 34 (RABIES.)

To all persons whom it may concern:
Department Order No. 4 is hereby revoked and the following order substituted therefor:

Section 1. In any city or town within the limits of this Commonwealth where, in the opinion of the Director of Animal Industry, there is danger of an outbreak and spread of rabies, if the mayor and aldermen of a city or the selectmen of a town after being notified of such danger and advised by the Director of Animal Industry to order all dogs in such city or town properly and securely muzzled or restrained from running at large, under the authority given them by section 158 of chapter 102 of the Revised Laws, refuse or neglect to do so for seven days after such notice, the Director may order all dogs in such city or town to be securely muzzled or to be restrained from running at large for a period of three months from the date of notice to the local authority. The Director may then extend this period if in his opinion conditions render the same necessary.

Section 2. Dogs running at large unmuzzled contrary to the provisions of this order, and any dogs or cats known to have been bitten by a dog affected with rabies, may be killed on order of the Director.

Section 3. All dogs known to have bitten persons shall be quarantined for a period of fourteen days for observation, at the end of which period if no symptoms of rabies have developed said animals may be released from quarantine on order of the Director.

Section 4. All persons are forbidden to tamper with or disfigure any notice posted by order of the Director of Animal Industry, subject to the penalty of the law.

LESTER H. HOWARD,
Director of Animal Industry.

D. M. BIGGS CONTRACT.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to cancel at once the contract with the D. M. Biggs Company for collection of ashes and garbage in the Dorchester district, and to direct the bonding company to enter the said district and proceed to perform the duties specified in the said contract.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, sometime ago we had an order similar to this introduced by one of the other councilors from Dorchester, and evidently nothing came of it. Yesterday during the day I received as many as fifty or sixty telephone calls from people going to and from their respective churches, calling my attention to what I consider one of the worst conditions that could take place—the permitting of ash barrels loaded to the brim, allowed to remain in the street from Saturday morning until possibly this morning or later. It would seem as though the people from my district had a right to expect that they could go from their homes to their places of worship and back again on Sunday without having to suffer from that sort of thing, because of the neglect of contracting companies. One of the people of my district had occasion to call the contractor's home yesterday, after calling me, and she told me that the word she got was that the contractor was too busy to talk to her, she being greeted in a sarcastic vein by somebody in the house who said he could not be bothered. I believe his Honor the Mayor ought to take cognizance of this situation, even although that particular contractor will not be allowed to remove the ashes and garbage in Dorchester next year. I believe, as I have said before, that barrels of ashes should not be allowed to remain on the streets over Sunday by the different contracting firms, when they have been placed out under the reasonable supposition at least that they would be removed. I respectfully suggest suspension of the rule and passage of the order.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, the councilor from Ward 17 and now the councilor from Ward 14, as well as the other Dorchester councilors, are finally beginning to see that in what I said a year ago about Mr. Biggs there is a great deal of truth. The fact that we attacked this gentleman five or six months ago stopped him from getting what he had been promised he would get—the renewal of the contract in Dorchester—regardless of the fact that his price might be high. I did not know, sir, that my colleague from Ward 14 was going to introduce this order until I heard it read, but it must be evident by now to every member of this Council that Mr. Biggs certainly hears a charmed life, for one who is no friend of the present administration; and, sir, if it were not for the criticism to which he has been subjected, if it were not for the fire directed upon that gentleman because of his inefficiency as displayed in the present instance in the councilor's ward, Ward 14, during the past year, he would have obtained that Dorchester contract, even though his price was $40,000 higher, and he would have been allowed to keep that $40,000, of course, himself, because he has no friends in this administration. But, sir, in order to further emphasize the importance of Mr. Biggs, when they did not have the courage after my fight showing that he was in right, to give him this contract for $40,000 above another gentleman, he was given one of those gratuities that are such delicious plums, the snow removal contracts—as Mr. O'Rourke, of Dorchester, a very prominent man politically, who gets contracts at 50 cents a yard for snow removal, and then, sir, under the name, not of O'Rourke, but "Ormae," a combination of the names of O'Rourke and McNary, associates himself with a former Congressman and a former hank president, sir, and gets 60 cents per yard. That is, sir, when the former Congressman comes in with Mr. O'Rourke the same snow falling from the same heavens is worth 10 cents a yard more to remove. But I warn the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Ruby) if he does not want the ire of those whose ire I have recently felt, sir, that he had better be cautious about attacking those who hank in the sunshine of the administration. Mr. Biggs is a favored person in this city in connection with the administration, but he has no friends. Biggs can leave barrels on any street in Dorchester, Biggs can insult any person who would call him up to even ask about the carrying out of the contract. But don't you cast any criticism on Biggs, because this gentleman within two weeks, as I say, has been given one of those delicious plums, so that still the unseen hand of Biggs appears, and he is a favorite of the administration. As one who has had some experience with Mr. Biggs, I want to warn my young colleague who sits next to me to be careful. If you want any patronage in the next two years, be careful, because Biggs bears a charmed life and those who oppose anything he may do come to harm, sir.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I am very glad to see the gentleman from Ward 14 (Coun. Ruby) get aboard or off the wagon, as the case may be, and I would suggest as a possible solution of the Biggs difficulty that we get from the proper department a copy of the contract and that we also have a representative of the Board of Health here in this matter. I cannot believe that the contract is written so that this man, as he is apparently doing, can absolutely lie down on the contract for collection of ashes and refuse in Dorchester during the month of December, as in the month of November, merely because some other gentleman has the contract for next year. It seems to me if there is a penalty attached to the contract such as any competent law officer would see was put into the contract, this man can be sued for damages for not properly fulfilling the provisions of the contract in collecting ashes and garbage in that district. If this man or any other man in Dorchester or Roxbury allows receptacles for garbage or ashes to remain exposed in the public streets or even in the yards for forty-eight hours, the Board of Health can serve notice upon him and summons him into court and fine him. It seems to me the City of Boston would be put in a ridiculous position in allowing a contractor, under such circumstances, to violate his contract and to violate the health laws of the City of Boston, and that if even there is no provision in the contract, as there should be, the Board of Health of the City of Boston might at least snap out of it and relieve the situation.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, I think we will probably all agree that open sunlight is one of the best disinfectants known to man and, having in mind, what Coun. Wilson has just said, it occurs to me to humbly suggest to the councilor who introduced the order that it would be wholesome to have the order referred to the Executive Committee, where the direct rays of the sun can be brought upon the situation through such an examination as Coun. Wilson suggests, rather than by pressing at this time his motion to suspend the rules.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I want to thank my colleague on the left (Coun. McGrath) for having given to me what I think is very honest and sincere advice, but I want to say that the reason why I have never interfered with the so-called Biggs contract is because in the very, very few occasions that required my calling attention to the way in which the contract was being carried out, I was always able to get immediate satisfaction from the concern. But when an entire constituency make it their business throughout an entire Sunday to call the attention of their councilor to a condition of this sort, I believe it is the duty of the councilor to do what he can to try to remedy the condition in the future. I am not worried, Mr. President, when I introduce an order in the Council as to whose toes I may step on when I am sincere in the introduction of that order, as I am in this case. I do not believe that the ire of anyone will fall on the councilor from Ward 14. I have introduced this order because I want to see in my district as well as in the entire Dorchester section, proper removal of ashes and garbage for the balance of the term of the Biggs Company's contract. That is something that we are entitled to. I am, however, going to accept the suggestion of the councilor from Ward 19 (Coun. Guild) by asking that the order be referred to the Executive Committee.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

ANNUITY TO WIDOW OF
JAMES GAVAGAN.

Coun. LYNCH offered the following:

Ordered, That an annuity of $600 he allowed and paid to the widow of James Gavan, late lieutenant of the Boston Fire Department, who died from injuries received in the performance of his duty, such annuity to continue so long as said widow remains unmarried, and to be charged to the appropriation for Fire Department, Pensions and Annuities.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, I move that the order be laid on the table.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, might I ask the Councilor what his reasons are for laying this on the table?

Coun. GUILD—Yes,—that there are not enough members present in any event to pass the order.

The order was laid on the table.

PLANS FOR BLEACHERS IN FENS.

Coun. WARD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to submit to the Executive Committee of the City Council the plans laid out by Mr. Shurtleff in 1925 for the extension of the bleachers on the schoolboy playground in the Fens.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

WATER MAIN, FOREST HILLS.

Coun. GUILD offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to provide sufficient money in the budget for the year 1928 to purchase an easement in land belonging to the Trustees of the Forest Hills Cemetery for laying a water main connecting the ends of the mains now located in Woodland avenue and Tower street.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, some weeks ago there was a disastrous fire that occurred by which six three-family houses were burned in the territory between the two streets named in this order. Ten minutes after the fire started they got a line of water playing on the houses, and twenty-two minutes after the alarm was sounded the stream of water they could get only reached the second floor. The Fire Department reported to Commissioner Hultman that the reason they were unable to get a stream of water to play on the third floor of the houses was that the mains in the streets came to a dead end. The Department of Public Works has reported that that could be corrected, if permission could be obtained from the trustees of the cemetery, to connect the two water mains by getting an easement which would allow that to be done, through some of the cemetery land. They had previously been unable to get that permission from the trustees of Forest Hills Cemetery, to enter on the land that they own, but I think within the past week such permission has been obtained, in the event that the city will agree with them as to the damages which they are entitled to receive therefor. I therefore introduce the order at this time in order that the serious fire hazard that exists in that neighborhood may be averted in the future. I move suspension of the rule and passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SALE OF LAND, CHARLESTOWN.

On motion of Coun. McGRATH, the Council took up, under unfinished business, No. 16, on the calendar, viz.:

16. Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is authorized in the name and behalf of the city to sell at public auction at an upset price of forty-seven hundred dollars all the right, title and interest of the City of Boston in and to a parcel of land situated on the northeasterly side of Main street in Charlestown, in said Boston, and containing 2,367 square feet of land, more or less, and to execute and deliver a deed of the same to the purchaser in form satisfactory to the Law Department. Said land is bounded and described as follows:

Southwesterly by the northeasterly line of Main street, thirty-two and 71-100 (32.71) feet; northwesterly by land of the City of Boston, one hundred forty-four and 76-100 (144.76) feet, and southeasterly by land supposed to belong to W. F. Schrafft & Sons Corporation, one hundred forty-four and 76-100 (144.76) feet; containing 2,367 square feet of land, more or less.

On November 28, 1927, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

The order was given its second and final reading and passage, yeas 15, nays 0.

CONFIRMATION OF EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

Chairman DOWLING called up, under unfinished business, No. 1 on the calendar

1. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor December 5, 1927, of John J. Kirby, John H. Chute and Ralph L. Chute, to be Weighers of Coal.

The question came on confirmation of the appointments. Committee—Coun. Donovan and Guild. Whole number of ballots 16, yeas 16, and the appointments were confirmed.

COMMITTEE TO ATTEND HON. NATHAN MATTHEWS' FUNERAL.

Coun. WARD offered the following:

Ordered, That a committee of five members of the Boston City Council be appointed to represent the City Council at the funeral of the late Hon. Nathan Matthews.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule, and Coun. Gilbody, Fitzgerald, Dowd, Wragg and Guild were appointed said committee.

GENERAL RECONSIDERATION REFUSED.

On motion of Coun. WILSON, a general reconsideration of all action taken today was refused.

CENTRAL GARAGE FOR AUTOMOBILE STORAGE, ETC.

Coun. KEENE offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor consider the advisability of providing for the erection of a centrally located municipal garage for the storage and repair of automobiles belonging to the various city departments.

Coun. KEENE—Mr. President, I have spent some time in the study of the question of storage and repair of cars of our various city departments, and I feel quite sure that there is not a business concern in this city which might be situated as we are that would not, in the interest of efficiency, adopt some method of handling the situation. I feel that the time has arrived and that it is in the line of the new economy, to look carefully into this question. Therefore, I move a suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

Adjourned at 4.32 p. m., on motion of Coun. GILLEN, to meet on Monday, December 19, at 2 p. m.

The Police Commissioner has received an official copy of the following order passed by the City Council and approved by the Mayor:

CITY OF BOSTON,

IN CITY COUNCIL, December 12, 1927.

Ordered, That for a period of ninety days from the date of the passage of this order all dogs within the limits of the City of Boston be restrained from running at large, and the members of the police force of the City of Boston are hereby authorized and empowered to make special service upon the owner or keeper of each dog within the limits of the city by delivering to the owner or keeper of such dog a certified copy of this order.

In City Council. Passed December 12, 1927.

Approved December 13, 1927.

MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

A true copy.

Attest: W. J. DOYLE,
Assistant City Clerk.

The directions which follow are based upon statute law and the court experiences of the police, when similar action was last taken by the city authorities.

Copies of the foregoing order certified under the hand of the Assistant City Clerk will be distributed to the several police divisions. When a police officer finds in a public place a dog which is not restrained by leash or otherwise from running at large, he will ascertain as best he may the ownership of the animal. He will then serve upon the owner or keeper of the dog a certified copy of the order of the City Council and will transmit to the Superintendent of Police another certified copy with the following return endorsed on the back by the officer making the service:

On _____, at _____ o'clock m.,
I served a copy of the within order upon (name) (residence)
by delivering it in hand to said person.

Patrolman, Division _____

If after a lapse of twelve hours from the time of service the dog is again found not restrained from running at large, complaint shall be made against the owner or keeper in the ordinary manner.

In order that the police may not exceed the authority conferred upon them by the statutes and the order of the City Council they will note the following conditions:

1. A licensed dog in a public place must be led in leash or otherwise effectively restrained.
2. A licensed dog upon the premises of its owner is not required to be restrained.
3. No police officer has been authorized to kill a dog because it is running at large without restraint. No person can be so authorized except by direct warrant of the Mayor and City Council, addressed to him individually. The police will therefore follow in this respect the department rule governing the use of revolvers.

The treatment by the police of dogs not licensed and of dogs or other animals at large and dangerous is to be the same as heretofore, to wit, to apply for summons for alleged owners.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

HERBERT A. WILSON,
Commissioner.

A record of this weekly cleaning shall be made in the company journal.

V. ENGINE 53.

An American-LaFrance combination chemical and hose car has been placed in service at the quarters of Engine 53, making this a double unit company. This hose car was placed in service on November 22, 1927.

VI. GAS FUMES.

The attention of the department is called to a new process which is being used for heating potato cars.

Recently there was a fire in the potato car, Rutherford Avenue Yard of the Boston & Maine Railroad in which one of these heaters was involved.

The cars have sections on each end usually used for ice. In the car which was burned, in the sections commonly used for ice a new machine or burner was found using for fuel a very deadly gas given from a form of coal, called "charkets."

These charkets evidently consist of sawdust and charcoal with some form of chemical which gives off a vapor deadly to inhale.

It is customary to tag the cars with small signs stating that poisonous fumes are inside.

Members of the department will exercise every precaution in fighting fires in cars of this type.

VII. TRAFFIC REGULATIONS.

The attention of the department is called to section 7, article 4 of the Street Traffic Regulations, which provides:

"Drivers of vehicles shall not stop or stand the same in front of nor within fifty feet of the center point of the front wall of a fire station on either side of the street on which the station is located except to let off or take on passengers or to receive or deliver goods or merchandise."

Any violations of the above regulation will be called to the attention of the police officer on the route. If results do not follow commanding officers are requested to forward the numbers of any cars violating this regulation, stating the time and place of the violation.

For the information of the department the Board of Street Commissioners has refused to grant locations for "No Parking" signs in the vicinities of fire stations.

By order of Fire Commissioner E. C. Hultman.

DANIEL F. SENNOTT,
Chief of Department.

MAYOR THANKED FOR COURTESIES TO JAPANESE STUDENTS.

Mayor Nichols today received a letter from Kaju Nakamura of Tokyo thanking him for the courtesies which were extended to the Japanese students during their recent visit to Boston.

The letter reads as follows:

KAJU NAKAMURA,
716 Nakashibuya, Tokyo.

MAYOR MALCOLM E. NICHOLS.

DEAR SIR,—This is to express the deep appreciation of the writer to you and your people who have given a very warm reception to the students whom I have sent under the care of Mr. Yoshitomi and Mr. Kawasaki this summer. Not only I was reported of how the students attracted Bostonian's attention by Mr. Tupper of the Japan Society, but it was also reported by these boys themselves who seemed to have been most impressed by the warm heartedness of Bostonians. I am sure that some of the students may later register at the Harvard College or at some of schools of Boston.

I should have thanked you sooner, but due to my continuous trip to my constituency, this delay was caused and therefore please accept my apology for this negligence.

Whenever your students come to Japan nothing shall be reserved in order to please them.

Hoping that this will find you in the best of health and happiness,

Very sincerely yours,

K. NAKAMURA.

PRISONERS RELEASED FOR CHRISTMAS.

There were fifteen releases from the Charles Street Jail and twenty-two from the House of Correction to enjoy Christmas with their relatives and friends. These releases were only granted when it was assured that the men had a proper home to go to on Christmas Day, and were only made after consultation with their relatives and friends. All but four of the men were serving sentences for drunkenness.

One young man, serving a sentence for drunkenness, was paroled at the request of his folks in New York, who forwarded his fare here, and he was placed on the train Friday afternoon for New York. One man was released on Friday at the request of his wife in order that he might take his two little girls in to see Santa Claus.

Christmas at the island started with Catholic services in the morning at 8.15 a. m. followed by the Protestant services. The chapel and dining hall were decorated in holiday attire, and the dinner served to the inmates consisted of roast turkey and dressing, mashed potato and turnip, apple pie, candy, fruit and nuts, and the afternoon was devoted to a motion picture show.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

For repairs on typewriter personally owned by associate editor and used in City Record work (B-39).

For purchase of typewriter, Royal, with Munson key caps, for use of department, which at present does not own a typewriter. This will automatically eliminate from 1928 budget estimates, $87.50 (C-9).

For necessary supplies (D-1).

Respectfully,

EDWARD F. O'DOWD,
Business Agent.

The above transfers were made by the City Auditor with the approval of the Mayor December 24, 1927.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 79.

I. CHRISTMAS GREETING.

The Fire Commissioner desires to extend to the entire personnel of the Fire Department his sincere wishes for a very happy Christmas.

The commissioner is mindful of the fact that the fire departments of the large cities constitute organizations which must be kept up to their highest point of efficiency on days when others lay aside their cares and enjoy holiday pleasures. While all the members of the Boston Fire Department cannot be absent from their duties on Christmas Day or the holiday observed as Christmas, arrangements have been made to give the men who will be on duty a little extra time to be with their families.

In extending his greetings to the department the commissioner desires to express his appreciation for the interest the men have taken in their work during the past year, to bring about a high standard of efficiency in the department.

During the year the members of the department have had occasion to fight large fires and the commissioner has heard considerable praise for the work they have done and the manner in which the department has functioned. As recently as December 16, 1927, the following members of Ladder Company 12 distinguished themselves for the manner in which they saved life at the four-alarm fire, Box 2252, Bartlett street, Roxbury.

Lieut. Edward F. Doyle, Engine 22, detailed to Ladder 12.

William J. Buckley, Ladder 12.

Daniel P. Daley, Ladder 12.

William A. Hughes, Ladder 12.

Patrick J. O'Connor, Ladder 12.

George T. Scott, Ladder 12.

The Fire Commissioner commends these men for the service rendered and has ordered that a record of this commendation be made on the records of the department.

E. C. HULTMAN,
Fire Commissioner.

CITY CHARTER CHANGES.

In 1854, 1885, 1909 and 1924 important changes in the original City Charter of 1821 were effected for the purpose of improving the methods and efficiency of the City Government. The revision of 1854 (Chapter 448, Statute 1854) referred to the voters for acceptance, gave the Mayor a qualified veto over the action of the City Council, also the power of removal of appointed officials, besides providing for his election by a plurality instead of a majority vote. The amendments of 1885 (Chapter 266, Statute 1885) were not submitted to the voters for approval. They transferred all the executive powers to the Mayor prohibiting the City Council from interference with the executive and administrative business of the City. This was done in order to end the inefficiency resulting from an excessive number of joint committees, a municipal development conforming to the traditions of the outgrown town government.

The amendments of 1909 (Chapter 486, Statute 1909) cut down the number and powers of the legislative branch of the government to a minimum, the Board of Aldermen (13 members) and the Common Council (75 members) being abolished. For these was substituted a single City Council of nine members to be elected at large for 3-year term. The Mayor's position was further strengthened by giving him a 4-year term, subject to recall at end of two years, but requiring a majority of the registered voters to make the recall effective. The Mayors power over appointments was no longer subject to check by aldermen but by a State board, the Civil Service Commission, and City elections were removed from all connection with national and State politics, no primaries nor caucuses being permitted, all candidates for office to be selected by means of nomination papers. The only question in this Act of 1909 which was submitted to the voters was contained in section 35, i. e., whether Plan 1 or Plan 2 should be adopted, the first providing for a term of two years for Mayor and a City Council of 36 members to be chosen in primaries. Plan 2, providing for City Council of 9 members, was adopted by a majority of 3,894.

Charter of 1909 amended later as follows: (1) By Chapter 437, Acts of 1910, exempting loans issued for Rapid Transit construction from the prohibition of the establishing of sinking funds, as contained in section 26. (2) Chapter 730, Acts of 1914, fixing date of annual municipal election on the sixth Tuesday after the state election instead of in the following January, as in section 32; changing the requirement as to signatures on nomination papers to 3,000 for Mayor and 2,000 for City Council and School Committee instead of 5,000 for all, as in section 53, also limiting the number of nomination papers issued to 300 for a candidate for Mayor and 200 for other candidates, referring to section 54. (3) Chapter 37, Special Acts of 1918, annulling the jurat at end of nomination papers. (4) Chapter 94, Special Acts of 1918, abolishing recall of Mayor, and making him ineligible for re-election, i. e., establishing a single term of four years, but not prohibiting the election of any Mayor for other than consecutive terms. (5) Chapter 288, Acts of 1921, fixing date of the annual municipal election on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December, also making slight changes as to nominations. (6) Chapter 133, Acts of 1922, changing publication of list of City officials and employees to every second year from 1923. (7) Chapter 479, Acts of 1924, providing for biennial City elections (dating from November 3, 1925); for borough or ward representation in City Council; for a fiscal year dating from January 1 to December 31, beginning in 1926, also a municipal year dating from the first Monday in January, to begin in 1926; for election of the five members of School Committee in 1925, the candidates receiving the two largest votes to hold office four years, the other three for two years and at the election in 1927 and thereafter the term for all to be four years. (8) Chapter 136, Acts of 1925, increasing the number of signatures of registered voters required to nominate a candidate for election to the City Council. (9) Chapter 105, Acts of 1926, relative to nominations for municipal elective offices.

The only amendment of 1924 subject to a referendum was the alternative of Plan 1 or Plan 2 as to the City Council. At the State election on November 4 Plan 2 was adopted, providing for the election by each ward in 1925 and every second year thereafter of one councillor for 2-year term.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY.

The first chartered colony in New England, charter granted by Charles I on March 4, 1629. About a year before, a patent had been granted to six prominent men of Dorchester, west of England, among whom was Capt. John Endicott. He sailed in June, 1628, with a party of 50 or 60 persons, arriving in September and settling at Naumkeag, afterward named Salem. In the spring of 1629, the Bay Company fitted out three ships conveying about 400 persons and arriving at Salem in June. Endicott sent a small party to effect a settlement on the Bay in Mishawum, afterward named by the settlers Charlestown, the first town in New England to assume the town policy, Plymouth and Salem being governed by a Governor and Council. Endicott was appointed in London as the first resident Governor on April 20, 1629. The Massachusetts Bay Company was reorganized in London on October 20, 1629, when John Winthrop was chosen as Governor. He arrived at Salem on June 12, 1630, soon proceeded to Charlestown with a large following and finding that place unsuitable, finally settled in Boston. Winthrop served 13 years as Governor in four different periods ending in 1649 and Endicott 15 years at various times ending in 1665. Other governors were Thomas Dudley, Richard Bellingham, John Haynes, Henry Vane, John Leverett and Simon Bradstreet, the latter serving 12 years until 1692 when the Bay Colony and the Plymouth Colony were merged, becoming the Royal Province of Massachusetts Bay, which existed 82 years to 1774, the governors being appointed by the King.

The name, Massachusetts, is Indian and signifies "near the big hills."

MUNICIPAL YEAR.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz. 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

LEGAL HOLIDAYS.

As provided by the Revised Laws of Massachusetts, also by Chapter 473, Acts of 1910, and chapter 104, General Acts of 1916 (ratified by the electorate on November 7, 1916), legal holidays on which the public offices shall be closed, include January 1, February 22, April 19, May 30, July 4, September (first Monday), October 12, Thanksgiving Day (the last Thursday in November) and Christmas Day (December 25).

SITUATION OF BOSTON.

Latitude, North, 42 degrees 21 inches 29.596 feet. Longitude, West, 71 degrees 3 inches 51.040 feet (exact situation of apex of State House dome, according to United States Coast and Geodetic Survey). Boston's latitude is similar to that of Detroit and the southern boundary of Oregon, also Rome (Italy), Sofia (Bulgaria) and Mukden (Manchuria); longitude nearly that of Quebec (Canada), Bogota (Colombia) and Santiago (Chile).

VETO OF LASKY ANNUITY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, December 13, 1927.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith without my approval the order of the City Council under date of November 28, 1927, providing that an annuity of $600 be allowed and paid the widow of Frank H. Laskey, late member of the Fire Department.

My reason for not signing this order is contained in the accompanying opinion of the Corporation Counsel, who says that the beneficiary named in your order is not legally entitled to an annuity.

Respectfully yours,
MALCOLM E. NICHOLS, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department,
December 9, 1927.

Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—You have asked to be advised whether you have the legal right to approve the following order passed by the City Council on November 28, 1927:

"Ordered, That an annuity of six hundred dollars be allowed and paid to the widow of Frank H. Laskey, late member of the Boston Fire Department, who died from injuries received in the performance of his duty, such annuity to continue so long as said widow remains unmarried and to be charged to the appropriation for Fire Department, Pensions and Annuities."

The provisions of law which authorize the city to pay an annuity to the widow of a deceased member of the Fire Department are contained in section 2 of chapter 107 of the Acts of 1880, as amended by chapter 93 of the Special Acts of 1919 and chapter 62 of the Acts of 1920. The two amending statutes merely change the amount that may be granted by the city government.

Section 2 of chapter 107 of the Acts of 1880 is as follows:

"If any member of the said fire department shall die from injuries received while in the discharge of his duties, and shall leave a widow, or, if no widow, any child or children under the age of sixteen years, a sum not exceeding three hundred dollars may be paid by way of annuity to such widow so long as she remains unmarried, or to any such child or children so long as he or they continue under the age of sixteen years, and the board of fire commissioners may from time to time order such annuity to be reduced."

Your Honor will observe that one of the requisites of this provision of law is that the "member of the said fire department shall die from injuries received while in the discharge of his duties." Before, therefore, the widow of a deceased fireman may receive an annuity it must be established that the fireman died from injuries received in the performance of his duties.

In the present case the medical examiner of the Fire Department reported that he was in receipt of a medical certificate signed by Doctor Buckley, Associate Medical Examiner for Suffolk County, stating that Laskey had died "from acute cardiac failure, chronic cardiac (months), collapsed and died suddenly while a visitor at Deer Island." Doctor McNally, medical examiner of the Fire Department, also reported that Engineer Laskey had been ill with la grippe and pharyngitis. Doctor McNally makes a finding that no injury was a remote or recent factor in the causation of Laskey's death. From Doctor McNally's report it is quite evident that Laskey did not die from injuries received in the performance of his duties.

The evidence submitted at the hearing before the committee of the City Council in charge of this matter indicated that Laskey had received a wetting at a fire on the tenth of April, 1927. I have carefully examined the record of the testimony submitted to the committee of the City Council and find nothing there which permits me to arrive at the conclusion that Engineer Laskey received an injury while in the performance of his duties.

In my opinion section 2 of chapter 107 of the Acts of 1880, as amended, does not apply when the member of the Fire Department dies as a result of a disease and must be confined to cases where death follows as the result of injuries received. A similar ruling was made in construing this statute by several of my predecessors in office; by the late Thomas M. Babson on December 20, 1909; by Judge Joseph J. Corbett on July 29, 1912; and by E. Mark Sullivan on April 11, 1924, in connection with an order of the City Council awarding an annuity to the widow of former Chief John Grady.

Mr. Babson in his opinion to the Fire Commissioner, Samuel D. Parker, said in part,

"The statute under which this pension or annuity is granted does not apply to the widows of persons who died of disease contracted in the discharge of their duties as firemen, but only to widows of persons who received physical injury which resulted in some way in their death."

Mr. Babson ruled in the particular case before him for consideration that the widow of a fireman who died of pneumonia occasioned by getting wet at a fire was not entitled to receive an annuity.

Judge Corbett in his opinion stated in part, "In an effort to provide relief for employees incapacitated by disease, the door would be opened wide to claims of a highly flimsy and litigious character. It is largely a matter of proof. Where there is a change in the physical structure, it is generally possible to show the fact that it occurred in the course of the employment which produced it. Where there is a disease it depends on the statements of the employee and his physician. The question of fact that it was caused by the employment is rarely without doubt."

See, also, opinion of former Corporation Counsel E. Mark Sullivan, addressed to the Honorable James M. Curley, Mayor, rendered on December 11, 1924, advising his Honor the Mayor that the widow of Alexander F. Smith, former member of the Fire Department, was not entitled to receive an annuity. In that case the medical examiner reported that the fireman died from "a systemic toxic condition which was the result of debility following his injuries and the cause of degenerative changes in his kidneys." The medical examiner further reported in that case that the fireman was subject to wettings, severe cold weather, or extreme heat, which might have affected his condition. It was held that any injury which might have occurred to the fireman was not the proximate, direct or sole cause of his death but that the fireman had died from disease.

I advise your Honor, therefore, that in the instant case the widow of former Engineer Laskey is not legally entitled to annuity and that you have no legal right to approve the order of the City Council granting the annuity.

Yours very truly,
FRANK S. DELAND,
Corporation Counsel.

WIDENING OF SEAVER STREET.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to include in their budget for 1928 a sum sufficient to provide for the widening of Seaver street from Blue Hill avenue to Columbia road, Ward 14, to the same width as that of Seaver street from Blue Hill avenue to Eggleston square.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, my reason for presenting this order today is because of the fact that the street at that point is about 15 or 16 feet wide and is considered by the Building Commissioner, as well as by the police captain of that particular division as one of the worst places in Dorchester from the standpoint of automobile hazard. There is a large tract of land there now, formerly occupied by the Cullis Hospital, which has lately been vacated, and the land today can, as I understand it, be purchased, so that the widening would not entail the taking of many buildings. I would suggest that the order be passed under suspension of the rule.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

LIGHT IN WARD 18.

Coun. WRAGG offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install an incandescent light at the junction of Woodland road, River and Tileston streets, Ward 18.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

POLICY OF OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

Coun. DOWD offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to conduct an investigation of the policy of the Overseers of the Public Welfare in its treatment of men who are out of employment and are working in the city woodyard, with a view to correcting the unjust conditions now prevailing.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, in presenting this order I will simply say that I do so as a last resort, to get a little action from the Board of Overseers. During the past year we have appropriated $1,830,000 for that department. We have never questioned the policies of the overseers of the department with respect to the charity work they have done. But at this time of year, when every newspaper, every organization, every public spirited citizen of Boston, is doing the utmost to take care of those a little less fortunate than some of the rest of us may happen to be, it does seem as though it was a time for the Board of Overseers to take drastic action to help and relieve unfortunates, and not to put a greater burden on them. For the first ten months of the year a man who was unfortunate enough to have to go to the woodyard to work could work, say five or six days in the week and get $16 or $17. Under the present rule a man who goes into the woodyard works, say three days a week and at the expiration of three days gets a $4 or $5 grocery order. How can a man maintain a family, his wife, himself and children on a grocery order of $4 a week? They tell men to go out and get a position. Every member of the Council knows that it is absolutely impossible to get positions for men out of employment at the present time. I do not believe his Honor the Mayor is aware of the fact that the overseers have taken this drastic action. Personally, I certainly believe instead of increasing the burden on those poor unfortunates who have to go to the woodyard, we should like to lessen it, especially at this time of year and at such a time as this. I do not like, a week before Christmas, to feel obliged to ask the Mayor to conduct an investigation of this kind, but I believe the action that is being taken by the department is absolutely unfair and against the intention of the act, and I believe it is also against the intention of this Council when it voted to give the $1,830,000 to the Board, to be spent for the relief of those in our city who needed such assistance. I have appealed to the secretary in the matter, in regard to this action of the Board in only giving grocery orders. The only argument they can give you is that there are a few men who have been on the roll for a considerable time whom they feel they should get rid of. Well, if that is so, why not get rid of them? Why make the unfortunates who are dealing with the department at the present time suffer? And, after all, in a family it is not so much the man as the woman and the children at home who suffer. Nobody can take care of a family with a $5 grocery order. You cannot get money that will enable you to pay rent, unless you get an eviction order from the landlord. They tell you that in such an emergency they will act, but in my opinion you may be dying before they will act. I have had some experience with people in my district in this matter. I have received a dozen letters in the last few days from men with families, with five, six or seven children, who have appealed to the Overseers and could only get a grocery order. And yet we here in this Council have voted to appropriate $1,800,000 for this department, and we have never refused when they needed money to give them $100,000 more, or whatever the amount might be. I believe it is time that the Mayor took action in this matter and remedied the situation, particularly in Christmas season.

Coun. McMAHON—Mr. President, speaking to Coun. Dowd's order, I would like to tell the Council about a few interesting cases that I have had in connection with the same department. There is one man in my ward, with six children, who worked down in the wood yard for three weeks, and they gave him $12 in cash and a $4 grocery order. Imagine, Mr. President, six children and the father and mother living on $12 cash and $4 grocery order for three weeks, as the result of working three or four days each week in the woodyard. Certainly they cannot claim that that is charity, if you work three or four days in the week for three weeks and get only $12 in cash and $4 in grocery orders. And that man had to go through three weeks, with his wife and six children depending on him, to get his $12 cash and his $4 grocery order. I called them up and asked about it and was told that a man who worked there was entitled only to a $4 or $5 grocery order. Then, there was a case in which I interested myself a few months ago in my district. I had a personal talk with the investigator three months ago, and he told me he would go out and see an old woman there whom I thought needed attention. He told me that a call would be made on her but nobody went out there from the department. I got the whole story, finding out that no word had been received from the department in regard to the matter. I wrote two or three times and tried to get an appointment, because this was a case in my district. But it seemed impossible to be able to do it. I wrote to make a date when I would be able to go along and bring conditions to the attention of the department in that way. But I have been unsuccessful. So I say now, if what should be done there is not being done, his Honor the Mayor should do it, should see that conditions there are straightened out in this respect. If you go to the Overseers of the Poor you will find a father there, a son there, the son's wife and sister working there, four in one family working for the Overseers of the Poor. But if a number of people such as we know in our districts want to get a week's pay there they cannot do it. I think it is time to start in on the Overseers of the Public Welfare when they won't give to the poor unfortunates enough to live on, parents and children. When they have one family that has four people working there, and still we are told that money for the poor people in different parts of our city is not available, for people who really need it, especially at this time of year, certainly something is wrong. I hope the order will take effect, and I am very glad that the councilor has put it in.

The order was read for the information of Coun. Fitzgerald.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I don't think we ought to wait for an investigation by the Mayor. I think we ought to have the City Messenger get in touch with Mr. Heller, the chairman, having him come to our executive meeting this afternoon. A deplorable condition exists in that department. I have had a good many complaints in my own district, and what has been said by the other speakers is absolutely true. The department has assumed a very high handed attitude. That has been so in reference to cases that I have had, worthy cases. I do not go to them unless the case is a worthy one. I always figure on the matter of whether they have money in the bank, whether folks at home are working, whether there are means in the family, and I know the facts pretty well through investigation before I interest myself further in the matter. There is no politics with me in these matters, none of the "good fellow" business. I know them. Unless they are married I don't go there, because I believe that only meritorious cases should be helped. They have a system down there that ought to be changed. Prior to the World War things were different. At the present time, under the so-called social service régime, they have schools conducted by high-toned reformers who must find positions for those who are turned out, and positions are promised through civil service regulations. The result is that this meddlesome gang are put into the job and they go around to the homes and do things that are absolutely unwarranted. As the councilor from Dorchester has stated, there are married women there drawing salaries, with their husbands also employed there and salaried, and the attention is not given that should be given to poor people with little children, starving, families who cannot get enough to eat. How can such department, with the unemployment situation as it is today, fail in its duty in matters of this kind? We all know how the civil service rules tie things up, that there are plenty of men looking for work and who get on the civil service lists perhaps with the hope of being employed temporarily, but that there must of necessity be more or less delay in their getting even such employment, that it will sometimes be weeks before they get an opportunity to do any work whatever. So many must depend on immediate assistance through a department such as the Public Welfare. I do not believe any city in the entire country handles the unemployment situation so badly as Boston. These overseers ought to be brought to time and told a thing or two. Don't wait a week or ten days. Christmas will be upon us in a few days, and many are starving and may die of want. Have the chairman brought down here where we can talk to him, this afternoon, also have the secretary come here. Other things are not so important. This is the time and the place, and we should have an investigation of the situation. We find people who go there advised to leave their homes, to go away from territory where they have lived for years, where they have their friends, people on whom they could depend to a certain extent to render them some assistance in case of emergency. And still they are simply told to move to parts unknown, to new localities. And that is the attitude of these people, who do nothing unless perhaps as a political favor, and you would think from their attitude that they own the world. If you look back into the history of some of them, perhaps you would find that they in the past had been as unfortunate in their family life as some of those they are now turning down. Yes, Mr. President, this matter should be looked into. I favor the passage of the order and believe that some of the representatives of the Overseers of the Poor should be brought down here. They can be reached very shortly, and we can have a talk with them, face to face. If they were looking for an appropriation you would find them ringing our doorbells and pulling and hauling back and forth, calling up on the telephone and sending somebody down here to intercede for them. But they cater to people to make themselves good fellows, and then don't know whether these same people would do anything for them or not. That sort of thing is all buncombe. Bring Mr. Heller in here, and bring Mr. McCarthy, the secretary, here, and I would like to have Mrs. Leahy brought down, also, as the one in charge of the district I represent. I would like to find out how she lines up in some of these matters, having in mind some things in my district.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, I have listened with interest to the debate on this order, and I refuse personally to get excited about it. There is no doubt in my mind that there may be some injustice done in isolated cases, but it is my personal view that the Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare are trying to do a hard job to the best of their ability. They have investigators whom they send to investigate the different cases that come before them, and I believe they attempt to handle such cases properly and reasonably and to the best of their ability.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman a question. Do you think it is fair to give a grocery order of $5 a week to a man working in the woodyard? Do you think that is fair compensation, when they are selling that wood all over the city, to give a man simply a grocery order of $4 or $5 a week, in accordance with what has been stated here?

Mr. BUSH—Mr. President, I will answer that in a few moments. It is reasonable to suppose that in the administration of a sum of $1,800,000 for poor unfortunates, so called, through the city, there must be a large number of fraudulent claims. By "fraudulent claims" I don't mean that they are entirely of that character, by any means, but certainly if the claimants of aid have funds in savings banks or are the owners of property, either in their own name or in straw names, they should not receive such aid. The aid is not intended for such persons. It is intended, as I understand it, for those persons who are down to their last resources, who, in fact, have no resources, who have been out of employment, and who have no money for food, lodging or rent. People who have savings accounts or who have some other resources are not intended to be included in the scope of this sort of work. It is not intended for them, is not for the purpose of aiding them. Naturally it becomes necessary for the Board in administering this fund to make very certain that the aid it gives should go to people who deserve it, under the act. If they fail to do that, they are wasting the city's money, and are not merely wasting the city's money, but are wasting it in a manner which will prevent others more unfortunate, who are deserving of aid, from obtaining it because of lack of funds. The councilor who spoke previously may be correct in his accusations. Personally, I don't see how he can be possessed of sufficient information, however, upon which to make those accusations. I don't see how anybody who is not a member of the Board or one of the employees of the Board can be familiar with the routine and the detail which they have to go through before they give such aid as is supplied by that department, and the amount of judgment that has to be exercised in passing upon cases that come before the department. I think his suggestion that the chairman of the Board of Overseers he called in here to be questioned about these matters is a good one. I agree with him that that ought to be done, and that any complaints that ought to be made ought to be made to the chairman personally. But I think we ought not to act hastily and make accusations on the floor of the Council Chamber against a Board that is in all likelihood carrying out its duties to the best of its ability, and carrying them out well. As to the matter of working in the woodyard, the chairman of the Board of Overseers told me some time ago that when people applied to him for aid the Board felt that, rather than make those people feel that they were accepting charity—which, after all, is repugnant to a great many people—they would be given an opportunity to do a little work in the woodyard in order that they might feel that they were giving some service in return for what they received, not feeling that they were mere pensioners or almoners, receiving alms at the hands of the city; that there was no intention on the part of the Board to force these men to work, that they did not request them to work any specific number of hours, but merely requested them to come in and do a little work in the woodyard which, of course, they could easily do, without having the possible stigma of being pensioners or almoners attached to them. It was merely done to prevent the men receiving aid from feeling that they were getting charity. They want them to maintain their self-respect and feel that they are giving some service for what they are getting.

Coun. McMAHON—Mr. President, I don't know whether the last speaker, the councilor from Roxbury, has had any experience with the Public Welfare Department. I personally think they have a dandy board down there. But the Board does not know what is going on. If you ask them about cases they will tell you that the investigator is supreme in the Welfare Department, that whatever the investigator says goes. When you speak to Mr. McCarthy, the secretary, for instance, and tell him about a case, he will say that it is in the hands of such and such an investigator, simply looking it up in the book. I have had cases in my experience that I might speak about. You have already heard about the family of four that is employed down there, working down there today. If you go to see about a case, you speak to Mr. McCarthy, and he will refer to what an investigator has told him, Mr. McCarthy in turn telling the Board. Every time I go there I get some satisfaction out of the Board, but I don't feel that in every case I can go down there and talk to the Board. Coun. Fitzgerald says that he wants the chairman and the secretary and also the investigator in his district to come up here, to our executive committee meeting, and I think the councilor from Roxbury, if he wants to take care of the welfare of the people of his district, should feel the same way. I think he would if he had had the same experience that some of us have had. I realize the difficulty that this Board has in handling the matters that come before it, and I believe we should have them come here and tell us just what the situation is. But I would like to have worthy cases get what is coming to them.

Coun. WARD—Mr. President, I would like to ask one question. Perhaps the gentleman from Ward 12 can answer it, and perhaps he cannot. Are you aware, or do you know, that a child going to school whose mother receives aid from the Overseers of the Public Welfare, is compelled to leave school if the parent is receiving aid, thus depriving a poor family in this city of the right to have its children educated?

Coun. BUSH—Before answering the question, Mr. President, I would like to ask the councilor another question,—if that does not depend on the age of the children going to school?

Coun. WARD—Yes, it does, Mr. President, but the age is sixteen.

Coun. BUSH—I understand that there is a statute which governs that enacted by the Legislature and that the Overseers of the Public Welfare are compelled to follow the statute in that respect.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, if there is no objection on the part of the councilor from Ward 8, who introduced the order, may I ask that it be referred to the Executive Committee, and that the chairman of the Overseers of Public Welfare, as well as the secretary, Mr. McCarthy, be requested to appear before the Executive Committee at our session this afternoon.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

SUFFOLK JAIL IMPROVEMENTS.

Chairman DOWLING called up, under unfinished business, No. 1 on the calendar, viz.:

1. Ordered, That the sum of $100,000 be and the same hereby is appropriated for County of Suffolk, Jail Improvements, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be and hereby is authorized to issue, from time to time, upon the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

On December 5, 1927, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 17, nays 0.

The order was given its second and final reading and passage, yeas 16, nays 0.

COST OF EXTENDING SYDNEY STREET.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the City Council as to the approximate cost of extending Sydney street, Dorchester, over the route of the proposed Shoreham street as far as Mt. Vernon street.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, I might say just a word on this order. Since the new Dorchester rapid transit has gone into effect, the first station beyond Andrew Square is a station known as Columbia. That station is not used to full capacity, because it is more or less isolated from where the people really live. Between the end of Sydney street and the junction with Crescent avenue, where the old station of the New Haven line was, and the new place there is a vacant piece of land that people walk over, although they have no right to walk over it. I understand that a building is to be constructed on that land which will force people almost up to Dorchester avenue and Carson street to get back to the road. Within the last week, on this land, which is privately owned and is dark, four holdups have occurred, and two plain clothes men have been delegated from Station 11 to prevent holdups on this property. I introduced an order here for an entrance from Sydney street and Crescent avenue, to take care of the people in that section, so they would not have to go a third of a mile out of their way, and then come back, but the answer came back from the Transit Board that under their powers which are well defined by the Legislature they could not do that. So the only alternative left is the continuation of this street over this land. Where the building is about to be built there is a street known as Shoreham street, with the sewer already in, and at a very nominal cost the city could continue Sydney street, which runs from Savin Hill through to Crescent avenue. This proposed extension would bring the street out to Mt. Vernon street, at a grade below Columbia road. Of course, Columbia road goes over the railroad and comes down there at a somewhat higher grade. By extending Sydney street you could then by stairs have people go up to the grade of Columbia road and thence go to the new station, which has a central platform. This would be a great convenience to people of that section who wish to go to the station, and certainly should be carried through if the station is to be used to 100 per cent efficiency. This is apparently the only solution of the matter since the decision of the Transit Board that they are unable to do it in a proper manner.

The order was passed.

SEWERAGE EASEMENT IN SOUTH BOSTON.

Coun. LYNCH called up under unfinished business No. 13 on the calendar, viz.:

13. Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is authorized and empowered in the name and behalf of the City of Boston for the sum of one dollar, and in form satisfactory to the Law Department, to execute and deliver to the Hedge & Matthies Company, owner of a certain parcel of land situate in that part of Boston called South Boston, and numbered 285 on Dorchester avenue, over a certain portion of the aforesaid parcel of land, which was taken by an order passed by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Boston and approved by the Mayor of said City of Boston, July 2, 1896. The plan of the proposed structure and its position relative to the land taken for sewerage purposes are shown on a plan drawn by F. Leroy Fox, Inc., Boston, dated July 21, 1927, and approved by the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, reserving to the City of Boston without any liability for damages therefor the right by its officers, agents or contractors, at any and all times, to enter upon said land taken for sewerage purposes as above stated, to repair and maintain said sewerage works now therein, and to construct such new works as the said Commissioner of Public Works may from time to time deem proper.

On November 28, 1927, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 19, nays 1.

The order was given its second and final reading and passage, yeas 17, nays 0.

RECESS.

On motion of Coun. BUSH, the Council took a recess subject to the call of the Chair, at 2.52 p. m. The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by Chairman DOWLING at 4.33 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. GILBODY, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on petition of Marie Pentz (referred today) for children under fifteen years of age to appear at Girls' High School, December 17—that leave be granted on usual conditions.

Report accepted: leave granted on usual conditions.

2. Report on order (submitted by the Mayor and referred December 12) appropriating $56,044.62 from the income of the Parkman Fund to be expended under the direction of the Park Commission, for the maintenance and improvement of the Common and parks in existence on January 12, 1887, for Fens, Improvements—that the same ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, the terms of the Parkman will, dated January 12, 1887, I have in my hand here, and the clause in the codicil which applies to the use of the Parkman Fund income reads as follows:

"I devise said residue to the city of Boston to constitute a fund, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and improvement of the Common and the parks now existing and is not to be used for the purchase of additional land for park purposes."

"The income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and improvement of the Common and the parks now existing."

There is no mention of playgrounds. There are two questions arising which, it seems to me, require discussion before a vote shall be had in this matter. One relates to the use of the word "improvement" and the other relates to the use of the words "park purposes." For a proper determination of the second clause it is necessary to go back and try to reconstruct what was in the mind of the testator who devised this fund to the City of Boston for specific purposes which he is entitled to have followed. The report on the Parkman Fund, made in 1921, was a report of a special committee of highly qualified men—landscape architects, lawyers, and men representing various sections of the community. That report states:

"Another and more difficult question of interpretation turns on the meaning in Mr. Parkman's will of the word 'parks.' What kind of public areas did he mean to include in the phrase 'the Common and the parks now existing?' Without doubt he meant it to apply to all areas like the larger parks then being created and the Common, but did he mean to include the squares? Light on this question can be obtained by considering what was the use of this word 'park' current among those interested in the park movement, when he wrote the codicil to his will. Mr. Parkman was no doubt familiar with the literature of the subject. He had almost certainly read Mr. F. L. Olmsted, Sr.'s, report on Franklin Park published the year before the codicil was written. He appreciated—and these are the words that are important for us to consider—"that the essence of a park is in furnishing people with an opportunity for rest and recreation as a relief from the insistence of city conditions. He must have known of the more restricted use of the word which tends to confine it to larger areas with seclusion and with trees and other vegetation which recall a country landscape to some extent. This was the sense in which the word 'parks' was used by those concerned in the so-called 'park movement' of the time. Therefore we think that the income of his bequest should be spent primarily on areas which can properly and reasonably produce this effect, and not considerably on areas which should more strictly be called traffic squares, monument sites, etc., rather than parks."

Now, the expenditure of this sum of money must be considered from the standpoint of the effect that it is likely to produce. There already is a stadium seating 2,500 people in the Fens, and now it is proposed that that stadium be extended so as to include 7,500 additional. That tends to create the congestion, the crowded conditions that surround any athletic field. Are we building and improving an athletic field, or is the expenditure of that money to be restricted to 'parks' using the word as understood by the maker of the will? That is the precise question to be considered here. I contend that the money will not be applied for park purposes if it is used for the building of a stadium and locker buildings. There is another note in this report which is pertinent and it reads as follows:

"The use of the word 'recreation' refers primarily to those receptive and passive forms of recreation supplied by parks and pleasure grounds, such as to stroll leisurely; to contemplate the freedom and openness of landscape surroundings, with room to walk and breathe; to rest under the shade of trees, to picnic upon the turf, and to enjoy the sight of others, especially little children at innocent games. For a large number of people, both young and old, these are real recreations and the public park continues to furnish the hest environment out of doors for such pleasurable refreshment of body and soul for the city dweller. There can be no question of the need of ball fields, considering the very great interest today in games of baseball and football, and provision for such fields should be ample throughout the city, but in the interest of the parks as to what they can supply of the other forms of recreation their open spaces should not be sacrificed. Just as Franklin Field was acquired to protect Franklin Park from injury by providing ample space for crowds attendant upon games, so other parts of the park system should, when the need comes, be similarly protected."

That note, by the way, refers particularly to the use of the Back Bay Fens. The recommendation of that committee, Mr. Chairman, was made after very thorough deliberation. It was made after some consultation with all the various interests of the community who were affected by it. The best brains in landscape architecture went originally to the construction of our park system, and the intended purposes of Mr. Olmsted, the founder or designer of the park system, should be consulted in conjunction with the report of this committee. The building of an athletic field, as an outlet for the intense athletic competition that now exists between school boys, together with the conditions that are brought about by athletic fields from their very nature, would necessarily spoil the use of the Back Bay Fens for the purpose for which it was intended, and not carry out the intent and purpose of the creator of this fund, whose intent and purposes are entitled to consideration.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, I should be willing to follow the previous speaker in his interpretation of the Parkman will because of the name he bears, if for no other reason. Supplementing his remarks as to the unmistakable illegality of this order, I would like to add that I think that it is exceedingly impolitic for the City Council to pass an order of this sort, for at least two reasons. It is apparently a habit of the Park Commissioners to come in at the last minute of each year and try to get through by the rush route some order for disposition of the balance remaining in the Parkman Fund. That was done last year, and is being attempted here again this year. We were told last year that the Park Commissioners had mapped out a perfectly definite plan and wanted to work along the lines of that plan, and for that reason we allowed them to expend the $75,000 which was then the surplus in the Parkman Fund. The matter of a stadium, to quote the language of his Honor the Mayor, primarily for school purposes was not mentioned at the time last year when we were urged to permit the Park Commissioners to go forward with their well mapped-out plan. They are now departing entirely from what they told us was their well mapped-out plan of last year and are asking us to give them $56,000 this year to be used in a way that departs from that plan. They blow hot and blow cold. One year they blow for a well mapped-out plan, and the next year they blow against it. The second reason I have for opposing the order, in addition to what has been said by the preceding speaker, is in furtherance of my well known views in regard to the inadvisability of providing space for spectators at schoolboy athletic contests. It has been my opinion, which has been frequently stated, that no provision whatever should be made for spectators at schoolboy athletic contests for the reason that such contests are justified only by the effect which they have upon those who participate in them, and are in no way justified from the standpoint of the amusement and entertainment they may furnish for spectators. It seems to me the three reasons which have been advanced here are sufficient to warrant the Boston City Council in permitting this $56,000 to go into the residue and be added to the principal for next year. No great harm inures from such a proceeding. This $56,000, if added to the principal, will yield an income, say, between $2,500 and $3,000 more, which the Park Commissioners of the City of Boston will have to spend from the Parkman Fund in succeeding years. That is, that additional $2,500 to $3,000 will come in each year as part of the revenue of the Parkman Fund. There never would have been a Parkman Fund for us to deal with in any way, shape or manner if George Parkman had each year spent all the income which he received. We never would have had it at all unless he had saved some income and set it aside. That lesson in thrift may well be copied by us at this time. And so, in view of the probable unlawfulness and impolicy of appropriating the money in the way suggested, I feel that it is best that we should be thrifty and add this amount to the present principal of the fund.

The order was passed, yeas 9, nays 7:

Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Donovan, Englert, Fitzgerald, Green, Keene, McMahon, Ruby, Wragg—9.

Nays—Coun. Bush, Dowling, Guild, Lynch, McGrath, Parkman, Wilson—7.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, I would like to give notice that I shall ask to have that vote reconsidered at the next meeting of the Council.

Chairman DOWLING—The Chair would advise the councilor to make his motion to reconsider now.

Coun. PARKMAN—I was under the impression, Mr. President, that within twenty-four hours I could file with the Clerk notice of reconsideration.

Chairman DOWLING—The Chair would inform the councilor from Ward 5 that if he does not make his motion to reconsider at this time, later on, when the motion for general reconsideration is offered and acted upon, he will have lost his opportunity.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. Chairman, to save all question of doubt, I will move a reconsideration of the vote just taken.

Coun. PARKMAN—Mr. President, I don't want to lose any rights under this procedure. I understand, under the rules of parliamentary law, that if a vote to reconsider is taken at this meeting and fails to prevail, no further reconsideration can be had.

Chairman DOWLING—That is correct.

On motion of Coun. GUILD the Council voted to reconsider the vote passing the order.

On motion of Coun. GUILD the Council voted to assign the order to the next meeting of the Council.

SOCIAL SERVICE BUREAU.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the City Council the Overseers of Public Welfare should establish a Social Service Bureau containing the names and addresses of the people who receive aid of any description from the City of Boston; and be it further

Resolved, That such information shall not be divulged to any individual or group of individuals, excepting to a duly authorized private or public institution which is seeking the information for the purpose of preventing duplication of assistance.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, this is not a snap order on my part. You, Mr. President and other members of the Board, heard me ask the chairman of the Public Welfare Trustees, Mr. Heller, questions along this line, and you may be reminded that I asked about the same thing last February. I further asked him the question, What association in Boston gives the most money for public welfare purposes, for charity purposes, and he said that the City of Boston itself gives more than any association in New England. What my order asks for can be explained in this way. When a member of the government finds these instances in his district calling for aid from that department, he goes down to the Department of Public Welfare and asks for temporary help for needy cases. The persons so helped go down there believing that they have the protection of the City of Boston itself. It may be the first time in their lives that they have ever asked for aid. It may be the case of the mother of a family, with several children, going down there, the father having been stricken with sickness and the family therefore for the first time having to ask for aid. When that mother leaves her home and goes to the duly authorized city aid bureau, she believes she has the protection and backing of the City of Boston itself. But what did you members find out today when I asked the question of the chairman, as I asked it here last February, "What do you do with a name given you in confidence?" "We put it into the hands of a social service bureau." "Who employs them?" "Why, they are private, but all we do is to give the names and addresses." I want the members here to realize the significance of that. I said, "Are those names and addresses kept there for twenty years or more?" He said, "Yes." Mr. President, twenty years from today, when those young children have grown to manhood and womanhood, and when they go out in the world and perhaps have some social standing, some one not employed by the city, some one over whom the City of Boston has no control, some one who occupies a position which is maintained from an outside source, may bring up the name of that family and of those individuals and say that they once were city paupers. Sir, that is worth consideration. The chairman said, "Well, of course, it is not probable that they would give out the information,—that Miss So-and-So, who has charge of it, Miss Woodside would not want to give that out. But there are girls in her office, Mr. President, and my mind went back to the first time when I was a member of the Legislature and when the names of a family in Dorchester who today are comfortably situated but who were once forced to apply for city aid and help, were brought out, after they thought it was all forgotten. But it was discovered that a girl who worked in a private outside social service bureau had told the entire neighborhood that she had seen their names in the files as city paupers. That is something over which we now have no control. I do not blame Mr. Heller or other members of this Board. I sympathize with them; I know how hard their work is. But I do say, if we gave out $1,700,000 for this purpose last year, and the same amount or more this year, to help people of our city, let us give it out to them in confidence. No matter how poor they may be, they are as much a part of this city as any one of us, sir, and why must we continue the old barbarous treatment of parading before the public the shortcomings of any family in our city? There is no association in this city, privately owned and operated, that has the right to know intimate things about my family, your family or any other family in the city, and I say the City of Boston should stop that sort of thing now. We are spending in this line $1,700,000 a year or more, and if any private organization—be it Catholic, Jewish or Protestant—wants information, let it come to the duly authorized board, subject to the members of this Council and the Mayor, who are elected by the people of this city, and stop this practice of placing the most intimate things in the lives of some of our citizens in the hands of any private association."

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, with all due respect to the councilor who has just spoken, I think he has laid a lot of undue stress on the possible publicity that these matters may receive. As a matter of fact, judging from what I heard said by the chairman of the Board, the girl referred to is supported not publicly but privately. But who are the owners of it? They are the social service and welfare organizations in this city, the private welfare organizations, and they have been compiling this data for a period of twenty years or more. Now, we will say that the City of Boston is spending $1,800,000 or less for this purpose, for welfare work. They have no means of their own of finding out whether these people have been receiving aid from other sources in the city, and they have a right to know that. They have a right to know whether those same people are receiving aid from a half dozen different sources in the city, because if they are receiving such aid these public funds should not be used to help maintain them as well. I say that this public service register or bureau is maintained not simply for the sake of the private welfare organizations but as a co-operative plan for the benefit of all welfare organizations and I think they do the city a service when they allow the city the use of their files to discover whether people are receiving aid from other sources, because it saves the public funds when they do get that information. If the councilor says the city ought to have its own data, I agree with him, but up to this date they have not had that data, and have had to depend and will have to depend upon this other register. If he insists that this order be put through and that the city proceed to compile that data, I will also agree with him. But if he says that this data so compiled should not be allowed to be seen by other organizations or private welfare agencies, I disagree with him, because we all are interested in seeing that justice is done. If one person is able to go to every welfare organization in the city and get aid from each, without any co-operative work of this sort between the different organizations, he is taking the aid from other persons who may need it as much or more than he or she does. This matter of keeping the data open so that all welfare organizations may take advantage of it is something which is of benefit to all concerned, both the public and private welfare institutions.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, I think the councilor uses the point of my order. Because I do not say that that information gathered by the City of Boston should not be given to any duly constituted charity board which may want to refer to it so that there may be no duplication of work or effort. I only disagree with him, sir, on the matter of who should have the records. I don't care what a family was twenty years ago, whether they were paupers or not. What I am concerned with is today. I say let us start on this thing this year, and at the end of five years we will at least know those citizens who did not want to go to sectarian organizations, but wished to come to their own city board for aid, when they needed it. And then, at the end of the five years, if Miss Peggy Pry wants to know something about somebody's else business, wants to know about the Joneses, what happened to them in the past, how many children they have got, why they don't stop having children—a question that has been asked at the State House, not here—she can be asked, "What association do you represent?" If she says she does not represent any association, but wants the information as a private matter, that information can be refused to her. I don't want to see a duplication, and that is why I have introduced this order. I do think that this sort of thing should be in the hands of our Board, which is the biggest agency of the kind in New England in rendering charity, rather than being carried on by outside agencies. Then, if information is given out that should not be given out, we as members of the City Council assembled and the Mayor can find out who in that Board has been giving out some information, just to satisfy curiosity rather than having any beneficial purpose to the community in mind. It is a question of who shall handle it, and I say the city should do so. This department of the city handles $1,700,000 last year, being the biggest giver to charity in New England, and I think that such a social service register or bureau belongs with that Board down there and should be in the offices of our Overseers of the Public Welfare.

The order was passed.

NIGHT CLINICS AT CITY HOSPITAL.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Hospital Trustees be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to include in their budget for the coming year a sum sufficient to provide for the opening of night clinics at the Boston City Hospital.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, I don't want to take too much time talking today, but my time here is limited. (Laughter.) The desirability of the introduction of this order occurred to me, sir, because of the fact that we have perhaps one of the finest public institutions in this country, the Boston City Hospital. It does seem, however, that we are not rendering 100 per cent efficiency when we do not have a night clinic there. It does seem with the hundreds of families in the lodging house sections, the poorer sections of our city, who are handicapped in the time in which they can get out—where, for example, the father of the family has to go to work and the woman cannot leave the small children in the daytime, and a night clinic would give the mother or the father a chance to take the children there at night, to the Out-Patient Department, and receive whatever medical treatment may be desired, that something of this sort ought to be done. There are hundreds of young doctors, well qualified, who would be very glad of the opportunity to get experience in this way. It is not so much a question of handling cases that would be taken to places like the Haymarket Relief Station, or the station in East Boston, as it would be to do something for those who have sickness and who have things in the family requiring medical attention. Any of us know how long a night is when the hand of sickness bears down on a member of a family, and there is not money enough to provide medical treatment. Here is a hospital qualified and fitted to give the best medical treatment of any public or private institution of the kind within a radius of twenty to fifty miles of Boston. But its doors are closed to certain classes of sickness at certain hours. I believe if, from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening, the Out-Patient Department could be opened, where such wants might be attended to and where medicine could be purchased at a nominal price, the mother staying home with the little brood while the father took along to the clinic those requiring treatment, we would be rendering wonderful service in the city. I believe if this Council is responsible for the first steps looking to a night clinic, through the next budget, we will be building a monument to ourselves which will be appreciated by the public which will be remembered for a long time.

Coun. GUILD—Mr. President, I would like to inquire of the previous speaker if he has made any investigation whatever as to the cost of such a clinic? The order before us is in general terms, and I simply would like to know more about it, so that I may have the facts before me.

Coun. McGRATH—I have made several inquiries, and have received letters back from doctors in charge, to the effect that the cost would be negligible in comparison to the service rendered, because the buildings and all the equipment are there, and because there are so many competent doctors, young doctors, who would be willing and glad to render service free. The cost, in comparison with the service rendered, does not even enter into it, sir.

The order was passed.

CONDITIONS AT SAVIN HILL BATHING BEACH.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Health Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to forward to the City Council whatever information he may have relative to the pollution of water at the Savin Hill bathing beach.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, in explanation of this order I might say that recently there has been constructed in Dorchester by act of the Legislature, a road known as the Old Colony Boulevard. The original plans for the Old Colony Boulevard would have meant the building of a bridge from the shore of Savin Hill Beach to the shore of Colter's Beach, in Coun. Gilbody's ward. But, because of expense, when work was done under the act of the Legislature, and when they filled the road in, instead of leaving an opening of about 2,000 feet into these two beaches, which have cost the City of Boston nearly a million dollars, the state of Massachusetts has surrounded the beaches, with the exception of a tunnel of about 25 or 30 feet. The question has now been raised by the Dorchester Board of Trade and other local improvement associations that there is an old surface drain sewer that comes into the marsh at the end of Savin Hill in the Dorchester avenue section, and two coming from Coun. McMahon's ward, around the upper part of Freeport street, and in an extreme storm those sewers are polluted, the pollution flowing to the beach so that it will be necessary to close the beach. They say that for about $300,000 the situation could be corrected. It does seem to me, with the expenditure to which the city has already gone of $1,000,000 in connection with those beaches as against an appropriation by the state of $250,000 or $300,000, something should be done to remedy the situation. I don't know whether the waters are polluted. But the only reason why they want to close the two beaches is that it is said that they are polluted. This asks that the Health Commissioner, through the Mayor, transmit to the Council a report as to whether, in his opinion, the waters are sufficiently polluted to close the beaches in the near future.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' AID.

Coun. ENGLERT, for the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, submitted report recommending passage of order for payment of aid to soldiers and sailors and their families in the City of Boston for month of December, 1927.

Report accepted, order passed.

UNCLAIMED BAGGAGE.

Coun. ENGLERT, for the Committee on Unclaimed Baggage, submitted report on petition of Boston & Maine Railroad (referred today), recommending passage of the following:

Ordered, That the Boston & Maine Railroad be authorized to sell at public auction on or before March 1, 1928, and after publication of the time and place of the sale, according to law, the articles remaining unclaimed in the possession of said railroad in the City of Boston.

Report accepted, order passed.

Coun. GREEN in the chair.

REPORT FROM EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the director of the Municipal Employment Bureau be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to submit to the City Council on Monday of each week the number of applications for employment received from unemployed during the preceding week, and the number of positions filled directly through the Employment Bureau for the same period.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, we have had a lot of talk about unemployment both in the Council and in the Executive Committee today, and I am particularly interested in what is being done by the Municipal Employment Bureau in the old police headquarters. They are no doubt doing an excellent work there and certainly spending a large sum of money, and with the New Year coming on and a probable requisition for a large sum next year, it seems to me advisable to have a check-up for the next few weeks to see how many men are asking employment there, and particularly how many men are receiving employment.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REMOVAL OF ASHES AND GARBAGE, DORCHESTER.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, he and he hereby is respectfully requested to include in the specifications of the contract for the collection and removal of ashes and garbage in the Dorchester district for the calendar year 1928, a provision that the city reserves the right on receipt of complaint to send a special wagon and collect and remove not only garbage but also ashes.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, it may be that the contract has already been signed, sealed and delivered. I am not aware whether it has or not. But I trust that the Law Department will look the contract over somewhat more carefully for the coming year than this last year, because I know how it has worked out in some cases during the year. I know that when a contractor fails to collect ashes and garbage a nuisance, a source of filth, is created by leaving stuff out on the sidewalks days at a time. There is no provision under section 4 of the approved contract under which, when there is such negligence, the city can send out a team and collect ashes and charge it against the man. There is such a provision in regard to garbage, and we are told that that is supposed to cover ashes and is construed to mean garbage and ashes. But it certainly does not cover both in its terms, and I trust that that will be provided for in this year's contract. If it has not been done, it ought to be.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

THE NEXT MEETING.

On motion of Coun. FITZGERALD, it was voted that when the Council adjourn it he to meet on Saturday, December 31, at 11 a. m.

COMMENDATION OF SCHOLASTIC ATTAINMENT OF PUPILS AT PUBLIC LATIN SCHOOL.

Mr. Sullivan offered the following: I hereby move that this Board, through the Superintendent, commend the unique scholastic honor which has come to us in the accomplishment of the Public Latin School in attaining the highest scholastic standing in the college entrance examinations of all preparatory schools—public and private—in the United States, since the establishment in 1925 of the scholastic prize awarded by the Harvard Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

In June, 1925, the Harvard Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society offered for the second time a bronze tablet to be awarded to that school which shall have the highest scholastic standing in the entrance examinations. The standing of the schools is based on the records of the best seven pupils who shall take the tests of the College Entrance Examination Board, whether they enter Harvard or some other college.

This trophy is held for one year by the school adjudged highest in September, and shall become the permanent possession of the school which shall earn the award the greatest number of times in the seven-year period.

In November, 1925, the trophy was awarded to the Boston Public Latin School, with a percentage of 89.12 per cent. Taft School in Connecticut was second, with 88.35 per cent.

In November, 1926, the trophy was awarded to the Boston Public Latin School with a percentage of 88.93 per cent. The Hotchkiss School was second, with 88.87 per cent.

In November, 1927, the trophy was awarded to the Public Latin School for the third time with an average of 90.25 per cent. Exeter Academy was second, with an average of 89.16 per cent.

In 1925, of all the candidates for Harvard, 81 secured an honor average in their entrance examinations. Of these honor students, 24, the largest number from any school, were prepared at the Public Latin School. 22, the next largest number, were prepared at Exeter.

In 1926, of all the candidates for admission, 79 were of honor grade.

Of these, 14, the greatest number from any one school, were prepared at the Public Latin School.

In 1927, 113 of the candidates for admission were of honor grade. Of these 24 were prepared at the Latin School. Exeter, second on the list, had 15 pupils in the select list. All the public schools of the country, including the Latin School had 48 boys on this honor list. Of these public school honor candidates, the Public Latin School had 24, or 50 per cent.

Boston is proud of this record and of the head master, Mr. Patrick T. Campbell, and his corps of splendid teachers, and also of the Latin School boys who, inspired by the traditional history of America's oldest public preparatory school, carry on.

Mr. Sullivan's motion was passed by unanimous vote.

The Board adjourned.
